

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Barton

MISTER SNIP SNA P MAKES A SALE.

"How do you do, Mrs. Y. Yellowbill Duck," he said.

"The very idea!" cried Mister Snip. "The way you talk, Mrs. Yellowbill! Why, your children are the best dressed children in Meadow-Woods—Barnyard Land, or in Squeaky-Moo Land, either."

"Oh, do you think so, Mister Snip?" exclaimed the duck lady, more pleased than ever. "Well, maybe they are. If I do say it, as I shouldn't, I try to keep them like little ladies and gentlemen. I don't like to see them shabby. Perhaps Dolly ought to have another new dress."

"Of course she should," said Mister Snip. "Such a pretty child can't have too many dresses. You have such pretty children, Mrs. Yellowbill Duck."

"I always said you had good taste, Mister Snip," declared Mrs. Yellowbill, more pleased than ever. "Daisy, I suppose if Dolly gets a new dress, you think you should have one, too, for the first day of school."

"Well, then," said Mrs. Duck, "I'll have a suit for each of the boys, and dresses for the girls. Mister Snip, show me the very best you have."

When she had gone home, Nancy said, "Say, Mister Snip, I believe you could sell father to a barber. I heard you sell Mrs. Yellowbill all those clothes. She only came to buy one thing, and she bought six."

"There are tricks to all trades, my dear," laughed the fairymen. (To be continued.)

HON. H. A. McKEOWN

Health Centre Receives Resignation—To Increase Lady Byng Camp.

With much regret the board of governors of the St. John Health Centre last night accepted the resignation of its president, Hon. H. A. McKeown, which had been tendered on Aug. 8 as Judge McKeown had felt at that time that pressure of other duties had prevented him from giving the attention to the Health Centre activities which he should give as president. The appointment of a successor was referred to the executive.

The meeting heard reports for the Lady Byng summer camp at Fair Vale and gave hearty applause for the splendid showing made by this enterprise. Authority was given to rent three cottages instead of two to CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.

The twentieth anniversary of their marriage was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Chapman at their home in Metcalf street last evening when more than 60 friends assembled to do them honor. Music and games constituted the evening's entertainment with several violin selections by Winifred Dunsell. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman were presented a partial set of Limoges dishes. The evening was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. William Prince. Mrs.

TROUBLED WITH ITCHY PIMPLES

Scattered Over Face. Cuticura Healed.

"My face was full of blackheads which later became little pimples. They were scattered over my face and neck and burned, and when I scratched them they became worse and they scabs. I was troubled with them for about three or four months when I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. It helped me so I purchased more, and now I am completely healed." (Signed) Miss Esther L. Ball, Manhou Beach, Michigan.

HALTS WORK FOR CONCERT.

Hammering on the Beatty Hotel work last night could be heard distinctly in the Imperial Theatre while the Vannini Ensemble was playing. The noise proved a source of distraction to the audience. Chief Engineer Sterling, in charge of the work, who was one of those present at the concert, went out during the intermission and ordered all hammering work stopped until after the performance. Mr. Sterling is a music-lover himself, being a member of a philharmonic orchestra in Montreal. His action was much appreciated by both musicians and audience.

W. M. S. MEMBERS FORM NEW SOCIETY

New Glasgow, N. S., Sept. 19—Though the attempt was made yesterday at the annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian churches of the Maritime Provinces and Quebec to form two societies, one for the Unionists and one for the anti-Unionists, it was defeated, 188 to 37, and a new society was formed today when Miss Annie Murray, New Glasgow, the mover of yesterday's resolution, met in session with a number of the women interested in the continuation of the Presbyterian Church.

The provisional officers of the new society include: President, Mrs. L. A. Moore, North Sydney; vice-presidents, Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Robeson; Mrs. Frank Baird, Bedford; Mrs. Clarke Elliot, St. John; Mrs. Dan McLean, Orangevale; Mrs. (Dr.) Clarke, Tatamagouche; Mrs. Foote, Musquodoboit; Mrs. William Duff, Lunenburg; Mrs. P. A. MacGregor, New Glasgow; secretary, Mrs. (Rev.) Scott MacKinnon; Sydney Minister, foreign secretary, Mrs. D. Falconer, Halifax; corresponding secretary, Miss Annie Murray; New

Glasgow; treasurer, Miss Jean MacGregor, New Glasgow; secretary, Young People's Work, Mrs. Harper, Halifax; secretary Mission Bands, Mrs. R. P. Christie, North Sydney; secretary Mission Boxes, Miss Brims, Halifax; international secretary, Miss Elizabeth Stewart, Halifax; editors Mes-
