Jail Delivery Is Frustrated By A Girl Deputy

Sheriff's Daughter Holds Escaping Prisoners Until Help Arrives.

Bellefleur, Pa., Aug. 7.—A jail delivery was frustrated here through the bravery of Miss Marion Dukeman, daughter of Sheriff Harry Dukeman, who is acting as her father's deputy. When she and two trustees took dinner to the prisoners, one of them pushed her through the doorway and rushed into the hallway of the Sheriff's residence. Miss Dukeman grappled with the man and screamed for her father, who had just returned from his prison break away from Miss Dukeman and struck the Sheriff twice with an iron bar. The young woman grasped the weapon and the Sheriff succeeded in knocking the prisoner down. In the meantime Miss Dukeman obtained a revolver and fired one shot at the prisoner, but missed him. Other prisoners attacked the two trustees, one of whom was hurt badly by a blow to the head. They were finally overpowered and locked in their cells.

The escape was said to have been planned by three prisoners who escaped from the Rockview Penitentiary in June, and who, after recapture, refused to plead guilty. They were kept in cell cells but an investigation showed that all the locks had been broken.

Wreck Kills Driver Of Truckload of Men

Two Others of Hartford Party Are Severely Injured When Struck About.

New London, Conn., Aug. 8.—While attempting to avoid a rear end collision with another machine, a one-ton automobile truck crashed into a touring car at Westchester grade crossing on the Hartford-New London Military Highway, and John Jasper, 27 years old, was killed when the truck overturned. Nine other young men were on the truck, bound from Hartford, where they lived, for Ocean Beach, this city. They were thrown to the roadway. Ambulances quickly responded from Hartford and New London and the injured were taken to St. Francis Hospital in Hartford.

Only two of those hurt were found to have suffered severe injuries, the rest received only bruises and a shaking up.

The accident occurred on a steep hill. The fact that the wreck took place on the crossing of the railroad between Colchester and Annapolis led to the report that several persons had been killed by a train. Coroner J. J. Desmond of Norwich, after taking evidence, allowed the body of Jasper to be removed to Hartford.

The touring car was driven by Louis Solomon of Colchester. He was accompanied by his father and brother, but the three of them escaped without a scratch. Their auto, however, was wrecked.

Luque, Cuban Pitcher, Attacks Stengel and Scrimmage Follows.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES

Eight Pitchers Engage in Thrilling Duel at Yankees' Home Park.

(Canadian Press.) New York, Aug. 8.—The Giants won the fifth game of their series in Cincinnati yesterday, despite a fierce attack by Luque, the Reds Cuban pitcher, who rushed across the field in the eighth inning and bounced a hard right off Casey Stengel's head. There was intense excitement for a time as fans and players ran to the scene of the scrimmage and Luque, who had been led away once, returned with a fiery look and a fango bat grasped in both hands. He was led away again and the crowd finally dispersed. The Giants won 6 to 2, and left for St. Louis with a lead of seven and a half games.

In Pittsburgh the Phillies continued their winning streak by defeating the Pirates 7 to 5, and making it three out of four for the series there. Williams was the star for the Phillies, hitting a home run and driving in three runs. St. Louis hit Barns and Benton of the Braves and won the final game of the series with Boston, 7 to 5. Stock and Plack led out a home run epic for the winning counts.

Eight Pitchers Used. A thrilling pitchers' battle in which eight pitchers took part was staged at the Yankee stadium. The Browns, by using five hurlers to the Yanks three, won in large numbers 12 to 10. The St. Louis team made six runs off Shawkey and six off Jones. Mays was put in at the end. Williams, Witt and Seiber ran around without stopping. The Indians inundated the Senators under a storm of runs without the aid of a single homer and won 22 to 2. Mitchell, Friday and Potter were called to the mound for Washington, but were unable to stem the flood. Wamby was the only Cleveland player who did not score at least once.

The Athletics trimmed the White Sox in Philadelphia, 6 to 2. The Chicago team scored their only counters in the first inning, and though they made eleven hits to Philadelphia's twelve, were unable to push across another run.

The Brooklyn-Chicago and Detroit-Boston games were called because of rain.
