TWO UNIONIST FACTIONS CANVASSING THE PEERS

The Situation in London Today—Members of Government Held Conference—Balfour and Lansdowne Also Met and Reviewed the Situation—The King Postpones Visit to Goodwood

(Canadian Press) London, July 25.—It will probably be some few days before either side takes any forward step in the political crisis. The king, who has taken the least interest in the crisis, has again postponed his visit to Goodwood, and it is extremely probable that the pleasure excursion will be abandoned, although it is still hoped that his majesty will be able to keep his engagement for the Gower regatta on Wednesday.

The members of the cabinet were busy today. Chancellor David Lloyd George, John Burns, president of the local government board, and Home Secretary Churchill, who had the confidence of both parties of a large measure. The audience was brief but it is expected that the cabinet hereafter will take a prominent part in the negotiations between the two parties.

(The House Meets) London, July 25.—There was still evidence of considerable feverishness when the House of Commons assembled this afternoon, and speaker Lowther took an early opportunity to administer a cooling draft by reminding the members of the standing order under which he forced a renewal of the disorders that forced an adjournment yesterday.

WEDDINGS

The home of Elvira Smith, Harding street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding this morning, when her daughter, Miss Ella Smith, was united in marriage to Robert Campbell Gilmore, son of the late Robert Gilmore.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Gordon Dickie at 11 o'clock beneath a arch of water lilies and ferns and in the presence of only the intimate friends and relatives. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a dress of white silk trimmed with princess lace and pearl trimming. She wore a veil trimmed with orange blossoms, and carried a show bouquet of pink and white sweet peas.

After the wedding a luncheon was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. G. G. Teed, for the bride and groom. The bride's going-away dress was a gown of white silk and tulle with a pearl trim and a tulle collar.

The groom is employed with Weldon & McLean, and has been a prominent member of the Y. M. C. A. for years. He was formerly connected with the Marathon baseball team and made quite a reputation as a pitcher.

The popularity of the young people was shown by the large number of handsome presents they received. The groom's present to the bride was a pendant of pearls and pearls. The bride's going-away dress was a gown of white silk and tulle with a pearl trim and a tulle collar.
