WEDDINGS

Whittaker-Lordly.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Jean Fisher Lordly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lordly, Elliott Row, to Lorrie H. Whittaker, son of Frederick S. Whittaker, which took place on Saturday afternoon, June 7, in St. John's (Stone) church, at 5 o'clock, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends of the bride and groom.

The church had been tastefully decorated by the members of the Stone Church Guild in tribute to the popularity of Miss Lordly. Apple blossoms and other spring flowers were used in artistic arrangement at the chancel rail and at the guest pews and made a very pretty picture.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of old lace and ivory satin, with pearl trimmings; and veil and orange-blossom worn by her aunt, Mrs. G. Frederick Fisher. Miss Lordly carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses, which was attended by her cousin, Miss Kate Lordly, as bridesmaid, wearing a dress of orchid georgette beaded with crystal with black hat and bouquet of pink roses.

25 Years From Now the Duofold You Give the Graduate Today. Will Call up Treasured Memories of this Turning Point in His Life. CLASSROOM friends must part, but the faithful Parker Duofold pen can staunchly remain a stimulus to achievement, a treasured reminder of these blithe days of youth, and of the one who remembered and gave this classic pen. Will you be the one? Will you so honor and delight at graduation some son or daughter—your own or your friend's? When 17 college professors asked their classes, more students named Parker as their preference than any other pen. What better clue could one want than this in choosing a Gift for the Graduate. Parker Duofold has a superior smooth point tipped with polished Iridium—guaranteed 25 years if not abused. But more than that—there's an inspiration in its beauty, balance and smoothness that will give the Graduate the urge to write! Poor pens stifle impulse and make neglect. Duofold spurs one on to success. And its black-tipped lacquer-red color makes it handsome to own and hard to lose. Money cannot buy a gift more valuable to the girl or the man outward bound on life's career. Remember the Graduate—go get the Duofold now at the nearest pen counter, in time for engraving. nosage of mauve sweet peas, and Miss Hilda Brandage, in jade organdie, with black hat and nosage of sweet peas. Mrs. Lordly, mother of the bride, wore black silk crepe with black and white hat and a corsage bouquet of deep red sweet peas. The groom was supported by Lawrence Elliott Van Buskirk, of Dartmouth, N.S., and the bride was given in marriage by her father. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Elliott Row. It was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Mrs. Charles K. Whittaker and Mrs. Harold L. Nixon were bridesmaids. Whittaker wore brown with hat to match and Mrs. Nixon wore peacock blue crepe with Persian trimmings and a black and white hat. Those assisting were Mrs. J. L. Bull, Miss "Peggy" Bull, Mrs. Guy S. Lordly, Miss Louise Sheldon, Miss Marie Manning, Miss Muriel Lordly, Miss Helen Merritt, Miss Marion Weyman, Miss Belle Howe, Miss Grace Estey and Miss Hilda Brandage. Out-of-town guests were Miss Harriet Prichard, of Halifax, aunt of the bride; Mrs. H. H. Nixon, Yarmouth, sister of the bride; Mrs. Kenneth McLellan, of North Devon, and Miss Harold L. Nixon, cousins of the bride and Mrs. William Langstroth, of Hampton. Rev. Mr. Fleming, in a congratulatory address, spoke highly of the good qualities of the newly married and wished them all happiness and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker left on an automobile trip through the province and on their return in two weeks will make their home in a newly built apartment at 64 Elliott Row. The bride has been on the staff of the Bank of Montreal for some time and the groom is associated with his father in business here. Their popularity was shown in a very fine array of wedding presents received. These included a very handsome bridge lamp from the manager and staff of the Bank of Montreal.

Coulter-Smith.

The wedding of Miss Winifred G. Smith, daughter of Mrs. Maud E. Smith and the late Samuel Smith, of St. John, to Russell A. Coulter, of Toronto, was solemnized at Trinity church Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Rev. Canon E. A. Armstrong in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The church was prettily decorated with palms and spring flowers, tastefully arranged. The bride, who was very attractive in a suit of navy blue pique tulle, with hat to match, and a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley, was given in marriage by her brother, Walter Smith, of St. Stephen. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Doris King, of Chipman, who was very pretty in a yellow tulle gown, with touches of mauve, her picture hat being of yellow with streamers and her bouquet a profusion of lovely sweet peas. The groom was attended by Harry W. Wilson, of Fredrickton, a cousin of the bride. During the signing of the register, "O Perfect Love" was sung by Miss Louise Knight. Professor John Ford played the wedding music.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left by the Boston boat for a trip to the United States. They will visit the bride's sister, Mrs. Dean, of Worcester, Mass., and also go to several other cities during their three weeks' tour. They will return to Toronto, where they will be given a reception by the groom's mother and brother, after which they will go to Iucan, Ont., where they will reside. Mr. Coulter is accountant in the Bank of Montreal in Iucan.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry King, of Chipman, with their family; Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Stevens, of Hampton, Mrs. King and Mrs. Stevens being aunts of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. T. Amos Wilson and their daughter, Miss Violet Wilson, of Fredrickton, and Miss Frances Smith, of Halifax.

Lee-Hubley.

A quiet wedding will take place in the parlor of Central Baptist church this evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Olive Grace Hubley, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hubley, of Clements, N. S., will become the bride of Henry William Lee, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lee, of St. John. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. James Dunlop, pastor of the church. The bride will wear a suit of navy tricot and navy tulle hat with grey trimmings, grey shoes and stockings and grey fur neckpiece. She will carry a bouquet of Ophelia roses. The young couple have received

If You Don't Exercise

IF YOU don't walk five miles every day, or play a round of golf, or spend a half-hour in the gymnasium—you'll probably have a system out of order.

If you are tied down to the busy life of the city, where you get little fresh air or exercise and are often obliged to snatch hasty, unsuitable meals, you need Post's Bran Flakes every day.

Post's Bran Flakes eliminates poisons—keeps the whole system clean and tingling. Yet it is a cereal you can eat with delight every day—thin, crisp flakes with a delicious flavor and with most of the valuable food elements of wheat.

Be sure you get genuine Post's Bran Flakes—from your grocer.
