THIS recently erected building is furnished with all modern conveniences and requirements for meetings of lodges, societies and conventions, and is specially adapted for lectures, concerts, dramatic entertainments, musical recitals, bazaars, banquets, balls, wedding receptions, and all afternoon and evening social gatherings.

By availing themselves of the facilities afforded by St. George's Hall, hosts and entertainers avoid much trouble to themselves, and overcrowding of guests, as well as all disturbance of their residences, with little if any additional expense.

*Rent charges for any part of the building
extremely moderate.*

The Secretary and the Caretaker will be pleased to show the building to visitors, and to give any information desired.
