

OUTCAULT'S ORIGINAL BUSTER BROWN, MARY JANE AND HIS DOG

SEVEN ACRES OF
This can be purchased

STOCKS. We INVESTMENTS.

National
Phone 1363 1206 G

Real Estate

SAANICH ROAD.
48 1/2 acres, nice house good outbuildings, 5
beautiful bearing ord
Price, including stock implements and part f
ture $8,000

SHAWNIGAN DIST.
485 acres, about 60
cleared, fine residence good farm buildings, 1
only $7,000

LANGFORD LAKE.
5-acre block fronting
the lake, at $7,000

1,000 American Cana
Oil at

A. W. MOR
34 BROAD ST.
Corner Trounce Ave.

CANADA AND THE ENGL

By Sidney Brooks, London correspondent for Harper's Weekly.

Did you notice that the B London, retreating to Canada rest after his immortal bout with the president, appealed Canadian farmers "to be good English emigrants who com Rather an odd appeal, that. W asks in some bewilderment, co sibly have justified it? Why there be any necessity for such intervention on behalf of Engl grants to the most "loyal" of possessions? It was not, it noticed, for Scotchmen or Iris Welshmen or that the bishop but for Englishmen. Canada much money and energy in a settlers from the United King scores of thousands of the year pull up their stakes in country and set sail for Hall it was only the English conti whose behalf the bishop fo upon to ask for special cons
"Be good to them," he said.
They don't know any better then, that the Englishman is jectionable to Canadians than low subjects over the Welsh north of the Tweed, and ad Irish changel; that he has not kings of so good an emigrant there is something about his rasps on Canadian nerves, an him the appearance, whereve ties and whatever he tries to square peg in a round hole?

This is a very interesting quant question, and it is one in Canada and in England candidly debated. A short tim Toronto Globe opened its colu discussion of the whole subje Canadians stated their co against the English newcom English newcomers drew up a of their grievances against th tion and treatment they met the Dominion. The upshot of cussion was that the Canadi liked and half-despised the and that the English were ac scious of it. Since then the m and pungent magazine, the Review, has taken the matter published one article on the September, and a second one in the current (November) iss articles are models of frank and dispassionate exposition.
together they reveal a state which has considerably asto stay-at-home Englishman.
The root of the trouble lies in the average Englishman's tion of the Empire. He has having reached the first of ing the Empire, Box 12, this company, April 12, this