Orphpus Theatre, Granville St., continued the mid-week yesterday with a programme that seemed to sparkle with merit. The prime features of the bill was a two part Vitagraph, portraying a strenuous fiction of the days when pirates held sway on the Spanish Main. Hidden Gold, betrayal of the hiding place and retribution for unfaithfulness were the conspicuous features of the yarn, which was finely lenacted by the Vitagraph's best players. The same feature is to be shown to-day. The Pathe Weekly also shown contains many interesting events, together with Mutt and Jeff.

In the police court this morning, Wm. Keefe was fined $4 for causing a disturbance and $10 for assaulting another man.

James Burns was taxed $4 for disturbance and $8 for resisting arrest by officer Wilson.

The case of Abraham Levitt, charged with cruelty to a heifer, was further continued yesterday afternoon until Monday afternoon next, when it is expected a decision will be given.

Three drunks were fined the usual amounts.

The carpenters' strike.

The situation in reference to the carpenters' strike practically remains unchanged. The carpenters say they have strengthened their ranks since the inception of the trouble, more than 30 new members having been initiated.

The carpenters requested a committee from the builders to meet a committee from the union, which materialized yesterday afternoon. The meeting was merely a conference, with a view to final adjustment. The carpenters' committee reported back to their union what transpired, and a meeting of builders is being held this afternoon, after which, in all probability the two committees will meet again, when it is to be hoped the trouble at issue will be settled satisfactorily.

Pretty wedding at Trinity Church.

Theophilus Alexander Conrod and Miss Annie Elizabeth McLellan were married in Trinity Church yesterday at 2 o'clock, by the Rev. L. J. Donaldson, Rector.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of W. C. Kaizer, by whom she was given away, looked very charming in a tailored suit of gray cloth with ostrich stole and black picture hat trimmed with feather plumes. Instead of the conventional bouquet a white prayer book was carried.

Miss Effie Kaizer, who acted as bridesmaid, was becomingly attired in dark grey and black picture hat. Percy Gates supported the bridegroom.

The organist and choir were present and a number of friends attended the wedding service.

After the ceremony the happy couple left by the Maritime Express for Montreal. On their return they will reside in Truro.

A numerous collection of handsome wedding presents attested to the popular esteem in which both bride and bridegroom are held by a wide circle.

We are requested to state that the property at Birch Cove, which belonged to the Donaldson Estate, and recently sold, was not the portion known as the Birch Cove property belonging to the same estate.

NO LONGER FAIR PLAY.

Toronto Globe declares treatment of Sir Wilfrid Laurier

Is a black, ugly stain on every man who took part in the infamous affair.

TORONTO, Ont., April 10.—Commenting on yesterday's proceedings in the House of Commons, the Globe says:

There is no longer a pretence of fair play in the Parliament of Canada. That the revered chief of the Liberal party, a statesman of world-wide reputation whose parliamentary methods have always been most courteous and considerate should be howled down in the Commons by a mob of opponents after the speaker had signified that he had the floor, is a black, ugly stain upon every man who took part in the infamous affair from Premier Borden down.

The World says:

The way the thing was done, was declared by the Opposition to be drastic, but no other course was open.

The death took place at 10 Hurd St. this morning, after an illness extending over a year, of Frederick Filun, a well known barber of this city. He was employed with R. Taple, Halifax Hotel, for many years and later went into business for himself at the foot of Jacob St., but had to retire about a year ago owing to illness.

WOMEN ON SCHOOL BOARD.

Delegation met Legislative Council this morning.

A delegation from the Local Council of Women waited upon the Legislative Council this morning, in favor of a Bill for introducing women on School Boards in towns throughout Nova Scotia. The ladies who spoke in support of the measure were Miss E. Ritchie, Mrs. F. H. Sexton and Mrs. Wm. Dennis.

The Supervisor of Schools and Dr. A. H. Mackay also stated their reasons for supporting the Bill.

All the speakers stated that they would like to have women on the School Board in the City of Halifax.

Hon. Mr. Mack thought that the Bill would not apply to the city on account of the city charter which would have to be amended.

Hon. Mr. Armstrong was of the same opinion.

POPE BETTER TO-DAY,

And his physician hopes he will be convalescent by next week.

His heart is weak and others fear the situation is serious.

ROME, April 10.—The condition of the Pope was found to be practically unchanged when his physician paid the Pontiff an early morning visit to-day. He had passed a comparatively calm night, although disturbed occasionally by fits of coughing and a period of great perspiration at about midnight.

The Pope rejoiced to see the morning bring a change in the weather. A splendid sun streamed through the ample window of his bedroom. Although this seemed to encourage his spirits, he continued to feel nauseated and averse to taking nourishment, notwithstanding the effort made by his own cook, Stefano Inchiostro, an old servant, who came with him from Venice. Inchiostro keeps a special cow in the Vatican garden for his master's milk.

Prof. Marchiafava said after his morning visit that he considered the unchanged condition as augurring well for a decided turn to the better. The only specific apprehension is heart weakness. Dr. Amici denounced most emphatically the persistent reports that the Pope is suffering from nephritis, and reiterated that the whole trouble is a relapse from his recent attack of influenza. Dr. Amici hopes by next week Pius X. will be convalescent. An entirely contrary opinion, however, is expressed by some of those immediately surrounding the Pope, who depict the situation as grave. They assert that as the result of an examination made by a specialist, the presence of from ten to twelve degrees of albumen was proved. The sister and niece of the Pope remained with him this morning from half past 7 to half-past 10.

Just before eleven, Cardinal Merry del Val, Papal Secretary of State, entered the bed chamber, and the Pope, who said in reply to the Cardinal's inquiry that he felt relieved, then spoke about the pilgrims who had come to the Vatican from Venice, and expressed his regret that he would be unable to see them. Cardinal Merry Del Val informed him that the pilgrims were separated into groups, who were going about Rome conducted by priests and visiting churches and basilicas, where they prayed for the Pontiff's recovery.

At noon to-day the condition of the Pope was much better, but the weakness of his heart and his intermittent pulse were still causing anxiety. The doctors permitted him to consume an egg with broth, instead of milk, but the patient was able to take it only with difficulty.

OTTAWA CONSERVATIVE

Paper comes out against closure methods

And declares such will give Senate right to use veto power.

OTTAWA, April 10.—The Citizen (Conservative) says:

If the Naval Bill is put through by closure methods, with the Liberals fighting bitterly for what many who consider the privilege of free speech and minority rights, the principal effect it will have will be to give the Senate new reason for existence and for exercising the veto power for which it was originally intended.

The closure means a dangerous revolution in Canadian parliamentary methods. Its perils are clearly apparent to both parties alike. It might develop into a tool which, in the hands of a less scrupulous government, would expose the country to mercenary aims. Even though it is the only way remaining whereby the majority may enact particular legislation according to its will and desire, the permanent perils are greater than the immediate need.

All of this the Senate will undoubtedly declare. It will willingly assume the role of "Savior of the country."

DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT
