PRODUCE WANTED.

C. HUMPHREY TAYLOR.

PRODUCE PRICES.

The produce market has been exceedingly busy the past week. A vast deal of poultry has been shipped from this station as well as from Bath and Florenceville. The market all along the line was glutted the day before Thanksgiving and every merchant had to refuse offers of poultry. Chickens bring 5 to 7c.; ducks and geese 7 to 9; turkeys 9 to 11c. Oats are still quoted at 23 cents and the merchants at that price have difficulty in realizing any profit, as they are quoted in St. John at only 29 and 30 cents. It costs fully the difference to handle and ship them. This difficulty also exists in the hay and pork markets. It costs $4 to get hay from here landed in St. John, so buyers must get $8 for it there to be able to pay $4 here. Pork is worth 4 1/2 cents this week Butter is worth 16c. if extra good, (poor butter refused) and eggs have jumped to 20c.

On Tuesday J. E. Parsons who has been buying in this vicinity shipped a car of dead pork and a car of lambs. He has now gone to his home in Owen Sound after a very successful season. He is well pleased with this section of the country, particularly Hartland, and says a pork-packing establishment here would make money for itself and for the farmers. He will come here again next season. He advises farmers to raise pork for spring market as well as fall.

VICTORIA CO. COURT.

The fall term of the Victoria County Court opened on Monday last, Judge Stevens presiding.

The first case on the docket was the Queen vs. Albert Tardy for assaulting a constable in discharge of his duty. It seems that on the 22nd of October last Clinton Frazer, a constable of Grand Falls attempted to arrest a drunken man, a friend of Tardy's who was kicking up a rumpus in the street. Tardy pulled off his coat and assaulted the constable. No serious results followed, but constable Frazer laid a complaint. Tardy was given 30 days in goal.

There were three claims for damages against the C. P. R. Mr. McLauchlan on the Grand Falls Branch, had a cow killed by the train and another man at Andover, had two pigs killed. The Company put in no defence and McLauchlan was rendered a verdict for $20 damages and 10 cents for costs; while the other fellow got a verdict for $25 and 10 cents costs. The third case, the C. P. R. put in a defence, A. B. Connell, council. This was for cow-killing and the C. P. R. gained a verdict for nonsuit.

Temperance at Perth.

One evening last week Emerald Division of the Sons of Temperance at Perth gave a public temperance meeting. There was splendid vocal and instrumental music and well-rendered recitations. Rev. Mr. Estey and Hon. G. T. Baird addressed the meeting. Then after all this a course of refreshments in the way of coffee and cake was passed around. This was the first attempt the Division has made for a public meeting, and it was a decidedly successful affair from start to finish. The Division is endeavouring to raise funds for the completion of the Union Hall, so ten cents admission was asked at the door and a sum of over six dollars was netted. Two weeks prior to Christmas a concert and drama will be put on, the proceeds being for the Hall fund. Full announcements of this will be given at a later date in the ADVERTISER.

THEY DON'T THINK SO.

Upper Woodstock Won't Join the Town.

Here is a voice from Upper Woodstock:

"I noticed in the last issue of the Dispatch an article headed 'A Proposal to Extend the Town Boundaries and take in the Upper Corner. Now Upper Woodstock expects very soon to extend her boundaries to the north and west and take in Hartland, Victoria Corner and Jacksonville and therefore become one of the largest cities in the Province. Upper Woodstock expects very soon to have the iron foundry running and when she does there is no doubt but there will be electric cars running to the above named places. And if Woodstock wants to come in she will have to hold out better inducements than she has in the past. And as to the Court House and Goal if Woodstock wants them to beautify her town there is no doubt but what Upper Woodstock will let Woodstock have them in the course of seventy-five or a hundred years.

A TAX PAYER.

Nov. 24th, 1898.

He Didn't Say It.

Frank R. Shaw, chairman of the Wakefield Parish Liberal committee, says the ADVERTISER erroneously reported his utterances. He wishes it expressly understood that he made no statement to the effect that the Liberals lost the last election in this county because of the Conservative candidate having too much money to put up.

Everyone is prone to blunder and newspaper reporters are no less liable to mistakes than people in all other avocations. The ADVERTISER regrets having misquoted Mr. Shaw, but it is authoritatively informed that had he made the statement as reported he would not have shot aside of the mark.

On hand to wholesale at St. John prices, freight added, 24 dozen axes. Lumbermen and general traders can save some money by looking into our prices on axes. Shaw & Dibblee.

Fur and fur-lined capes, astrachan jackets, boas, muffs, etc., for ladies and children; also men's fur coats in coon, wombat, reindeer and imitation buffalo—at Carr's.
