DOMINION PARLIAMENT. OTTAWA, July 20.—In the commons today Borden of Halifax brought up the statement made in London by Solicitor General Lemieux regarding preferential trade and asked the government why one of its members had thus spoken at a partisan political meeting with respect to Canada's position.

Standing on a little platform beneath the great dome of the Albert Hall, the general for once looked small—until he spoke. Then the ring of his words When Mr. Chamberlain, sarting on his campaign for tariff reform contend-Britain's protected competitors was as rapidly increasing, his opponents denied the truth of his contentions as emphatically as they depend on the content of the content o perial authorities. Borden doubted if Lemieux had a mandate from the general gave h Lemieux had a mandate from the Canadian people to speak in this way.
