There ought to be a good list of entries for the Beveridge cup race next Saturday, as it is the last sailing race of the season. Already six entries have been received and the owners of a number of other yachts have expressed their intention of entering. This is a squadron race, open to cruisers only and each yacht gets her full time allowance. This fact is an inducement for the smaller yachts to enter, while the larger boats think they can win irrespective of their handicaps. For the largest list of starters and has been the most keenly contested each season.

The final arrangements for the field day of the Natural History Society at "Camp Nature on the Seeps," the collecting resort of Wm. McIntosh and A. Gordon Leavitt, for Saturday, the 18th inst., have been made, weather permitting. The train leaves the union depot at 110 and returning arrives at the city at 10 p. m., and through the kindness of the C. P. R. will, both ways, stop at Mount Howe station, thereby materially lessening the walk to and from the camp. The outing takes the form of a "basket picnic" and members of the society and their friends are cordially invited and there will be addresses by several of the working members of the society.

MUST STOP DRINKING

FOR SIXTEEN YEARS

Matthew Garnett Gets on the Water Wagon
—Had York to the Alms House

In the police court this morning Edward York pleaded not guilty to begging on the street. Policeman Ward testified that he saw York begging.

York was given his choice of jail or Alms House. He took the latter.

Three drunks were fined $5 each. Jeremiah Kennedy pleaded not guilty to fighting and Matthew Garnett pleaded guilty but said that Kennedy had struck him first. Henry Garnett, a witness, said that Kennedy was the first to strike.

Mrs. Catherine Kennedy, wife of the defendant, said that Garnett came to the house and invited her husband to fight. Kennedy's daughter gave the same evidence as her mother.

Kennedy said that he and Garnett were both carriers. They had trouble and Garnett came to his house and assaulted him.

Garnett claimed that it was not his fault, that Kennedy was the first to strike.

The magistrate gave Garnett a lecture for drinking, and Aid. Sprout gave a good name for both. Garnett said he had a child only three weeks old. He promised not to drink any liquor until his child would reach the age of 16 years and the case was allowed to stand.

Frank Coyle, a small boy, had another boy named Haley before the court for assaulting him. A fine of $20 was allowed to stand against Haley and he was given some sound advice.

Miss Margaret Smith, of Brock and Patterson's, returned this morning from a business trip to the States.

POLICE ASK ABOUT A RUNAWAY WIFE

Mrs. Havelock Murphy Left Her Home Here Some Time Ago

And Now the Salem Authorities Seek Information as to Her Past Life.

Havelock Murphy, who is in the employ of J. D. Turner, King square, is looking for information about his wife and fears that the young woman has been doing some things contrary to law.

It appears that Mrs. Murphy, who was formerly Christina Theodore, the daughter of a Greek sea captain, named Panos, Theophilus Theodore, was brought up, after the death of her father by drowning, by Mrs. A. H. H. of St. James street.

Some six years ago Christina and Mr. Murphy were married at the former's home on St. James street by Rev. A. D. Dewdney. This was in October, 8th, 1900, and two years later they went to Brockton, Mass., where they lived for two years. Mrs. Murphy's mother was during this time a resident of St. John, but died in 1901.

Early in April, 1904, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy returned to St. John from Brockton and went to live with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. H. They remained there for some time, but Mrs. Murphy got up in the morning and prepared her husband's breakfast before he went to work. She then quietly closed the doors to the old people's rooms gathered together a bundle of clothes and walked out of the house. She has never since been heard from until a week ago.

Mr. Murphy has learned that on the first day of February, 1905, which came on Wednesday, his wife spent the day with some friends in St. John, that she was also around the city on Thursday and that on Friday she left for the States, going to Providence, where she has a half-sister married. He has also found that she spent some time in Salem and that later she went back to Providence where she is now supposed to be.

A week ago last Saturday Mr. Murphy received the first letter from his wife since she left. She urged him to go to Providence and get a job there. He has not answered the letter. On Friday last Chief of Police Clark received a letter from Chief of Police H. B. Gillerd, of 17 Leitch street, Salem, asking for information about Havelock Murphy, and requesting proofs of his marriage to the woman known in Salem as Mrs. Murphy. Chief Clark at once communicated with Mr. Murphy, and learned that he had in his possession the marriage certificate which he had quietly kept to himself instead of handing over to his wife as is the usual custom.

This information was sent to Mr. Gillerd, and the St. John authorities are being carried on by the police of Salem and Providence into the career of the woman. Mr. Murphy says he has reason to believe that a charge, perhaps of bigamy, will be made against her and he would not be at all surprised if such were done. He states that his wife's half-sister had a leaning in this direction. The Star has learned that up to the present no arrest has been made, but information from Salem is expected at any time.

NEARING THE FINISH OF THE E.T.P. SURVEY

Only a Small Stretch Near Chipman Remains to be Done on the Alternative Routes.

The work of the G. T. P. surveying parties is progressing well. The survey on the alternative routes is nearly complete, and there are now only a few parties at work and these are getting near Chipman. When these parties have completed their task the whole survey of the routes will be finished. The other surveying parties are now at work on the location of the routes from Chipman to Moncton and from Grand Falls to the boundary, as these lines are common to both the central and river routes. The quantities and estimates of the alternative routes are now being checked over in the office and it is expected that in a month the office will have a report ready to forward to Ottawa.

Clan McKenzie will give a reception tomorrow evening in honor of the visit to their city of Royal Chief W. H. Stein, of Bradwood, Ill., and Royal Secretary Peter Kerr, of Boston, Mass. The reception will be held in the clan's hall, on Union street, and by present indications will be a grand success.
