The rebels, however, had no time to fire, and the gun was taken away.

It is now, however,

Concord, Mass.—Melancholy Accident. We understand that a building occupied by Mr. Jardine, a blacksmith's forge, near the steam mill of Messrs. Holderness & Clinton, on the Merrimac, was totally destroyed by fire, one day ago yesterday.

It appears that two small wicks employed in the manufacture of the premises, picking up sparks, one of them very impetuously in his pipe, and was smoking, when some fire dropped on the combustible material, it immediately ignited.

Before the parties could effect their escape, one of them was so severely burnt, that he died a few hours after, and the other is so severely injured, that his life is despaired of.—[Mirrored Gleamer.]

PULMONARY ORGAN.
A very important disease over which this Balsam exerts a powerful influence; that is,
DISEASED LIVER.

In this complaint it has undoubtedly proved most efficacious, than any remedy hitherto known, and has entirely relieved many patients from the disease, without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when it has been removed, to visit, in vain, the use of all other means to restore the liver to a healthy action, in those cases affected.

SEPARATION CURES.

After every known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect, she resorted to this, also found it a very efficacious remedy in ASTHMA, a complaint in which it has been extensively used with decided success, even in cases of long duration.

It now remains from a regular Physician, but has also been tested in all the complaints for which it is recommended.

It is also recommended by the Rev. Church and an ornament to any apartment, and useful in separating the sexes, as well as in removing the fear of the floor children.
