Hayden, wife of our brother John S. Hayden. HAY.—At Truro, N. S., Dec. 25, David Hay, aged 24 years and 8 months, fell asleep in Jesus, after bearing in a patient and heroic christian spirit a lengthy and trying illness. Besides a wide circle of friends, who were strongly attached to our brother, he was a true christian man, a faithful wife and child, and relatives in Scotland and America, deeply mourn the bereavement of an exemplary son, brother, and husband. TINGLEY.—At Bristol, N. B., Dec. 28, John Tingley, aged 98, passed away to be forever with the Lord. He was within a few weeks of being 99. In laying his mortal remains away to rest we felt that one of the fathers had been removed. His name was widely known and revered. His hospitality was unbounded. All were welcome, and Baptists thrice welcome. He deserved special credit for the pluck and energy which he manifested in managing a large and extensive farm under difficulties. But a word of praise is due his name for the effort he put forth to have a suitable place of worship. Two years ago he gave a nice sum of money to repair the church in which he ministered, and he preached on the last day of 1905. He leaves a number of children to perpetuate his tender memory. May the God of grace comfort and lead them in the footsteps of their father. TREHOUT.—Mrs. Hannah (Fral) Trehout was born in Chester, N. S., and died in Goshen, New Hampshire, U. S. She sleeps far from her native land, but sleeps in peace, waiting for the resurrection of the just. McFARLAN.—On Sunday, 29th ult., Wm. McFarlan suddenly passed away. In the morning he was walking through his house, but complained of a pain in his chest. To remove it applications were made, still it continued; in the afternoon it reached his heart and in a few moments he expired. Truly "in the midst of life we are in death." The deceased was an esteemed member of Jerusalem Street Baptist church. During the last years of his life he was cordially joyous, he grew steadily in grace, and in the knowledge of the world of God; it was his daily meditation. The funeral took place on the 31st, the services here were conducted by Rev. Dr. Carey, and at the interment was in Rome they were conducted by Rev. Mr. Champlin. May the Lord richly comfort our bereaved sister and her family, and may they all at last be united in the Home above where death can never enter. BIRD.—At Port Hillford, N. S., Nov. 27, Ann, beloved wife of David Bird, aged 63 years. Her husband was called into fellowship of the Port Hillford church July 1, 1860, by the late Rev. Henry Eagles, of which church she was a faithful and consistent member until called home to receive her crown. Our sister had much of the Spirit of her Divine Master, as her object in life seemed to be the good of others with whom she came in contact. In her home she was a mother indeed, loving and beloved alike by husband and her large and interesting family. Her prayers for her children were unceasing, and she was rewarded by being permitted to see about all brought to the Saviour. Her husband's last illness was light and children, five boys and five girls, and fourteen grandchildren, who sadly mourn their great loss. May God bless these bereaved ones with the consolation of His own love in Christ Jesus. Our sister is dead, still does she speak to us of the power of God's love to bless and sweeten this life, and to make us more than conquerors in death. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." ROBERTS.—At Wiggins's Cove, Queens Co., Dec. 19, Elyse Roberts, widow of William Roberts, aged 38. Our dear sister's sudden and unexpected death has caused widespread sorrow. She was held in affectionate regard throughout the entire community. Her genial manner and her kind actions endeared her to all. Her end came as a great blow to her neighbors; but especially to her husband, and her only son, a young man of 19 years of age. Their grief was extreme. They felt that the light of their home had been quenched, and while fully conscious that the loved wife and mother was with God, they fearfully began to realize the unspeakable loss which had befallen them. Mrs. Roberts was baptized some years ago and united with the Portland Baptist church, St. John. In recent years she has been a consistent and useful member of the church at Wiggins's Cove, in connection with which church she ably filled the office of clerk. The meeting house in that place was densely crowded on the occasion of her funeral, and proved altogether inadequate for the accommodation of those who desired to be present. The services were conducted by Rev. S. W. Springer, C. W. Townsend, and I. Parker, (Methodist), and were deeply affecting. FOR TIRED FEELING. Too Much Mental Worry and Too Long Hours Tell. Exhaustion is Waste—Overwork Means Shortened Life—Dodd's Kidney Pills Means Rest for the Kidneys. Overwork is what you do after common sense asks you to quit. Overwork of any kind does more than tire, it exhausts you. Just a little more after you ought to quit the "too much" that keeps you up. Exertion increases heart action and whether it is work or exercise, this is good. The blood goes out to all parts faster than usual. The pores of the skin are opened for perspiration and the wastes or poisons in the body are got rid of faster. But the worst of overwork is that it exaggerates the evils of any kidney ailment however slight. If the kidneys are not in perfect filtering order, more poison is injected through them to all parts of the body than is usual and then work, to say nothing of overwork, is harmful. The kidneys must be right or everything else will soon go wrong. And when anything else is wrong always look for the cause in the kidneys. And set them in good working order at once by using Dodd's Kidney Pills. As soon as your kidneys commence doing good work there is less and less poison in the blood every minute. This explains why Dodd's Kidney Pills cure so promptly and effectively. The kidneys are at the paying station as soon as they are helped by the greatest of kidney helpers—Dodd's Kidney Pills. J.
