

MILITARY MEDALS FOR MANY BRAVE CANADIANS

MANY BRAVE DEEDS BY GALLANT CANADIAN BOYS UNDER FIRE IN FRANCE

Splendid Example of Bravery, Determination and Devotion to Duty, for Which Military Medal Was Awarded to Gunner William MacLean.

GUNNER GILBERT LESLIE WATTERS DISTINGUISHED HIMSELF AT HILL 70

Lance Corporal Wesley Ross Zinck of Nova Scotia While Wounded in Four Places Stood by Gun and Dispersed Attacking Party Single-Handed.

Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, Aug. 30.—(By Stewart Lym, special correspondent of the Canadian Press).—During the operations which culminated in the capture of Hill 70 and the pressing of the enemy backwards into the centre of Lyons, many heroic deeds were performed by Canadian officers and men, a list of men who have been decorated for exceptional action during this fighting was given out today.

Here is a story of heroism and resourcefulness that is not often paralleled: A battery Canadian field artillery was under a concentrated fire from enemy guns. Gunner William MacLean was in an old German gun pit during the bombardment, when a direct hit caused twelve casualties. Wounded in the chest and hand, MacLean turned at once to the duty of rescuing those who were in a worse case than himself.

Amputated Leg. One of the victims was pinned down beneath heavy debris and there was danger that if left in the position in which he was he could not survive long. A medical officer, who could not reach the spot because of the needs of other wounded, was visited and he advised amputation of the shattered leg so that the victim might be released. With great nerve in the smoke-filled gunpit MacLean performed the amputation, thus showing what the official report records as a splendid example of bravery, determination and devotion to duty, for which the military medal has been awarded.

Gets Military Medal. Gunner Gilbert Leslie Watters, of the heavy artillery, has been awarded the Military Medal because of his attack on Hill 70, he maintained communications on part of the captured ground throughout the day, under extreme difficulty and danger. This he did although painfully wounded in the hand at eleven o'clock in the morning. It was not until seven in the evening that he was relieved and had his wound dressed.

Lance Corporal Wesley Ross Zinck, of a Nova Scotia battalion, has received the Military Medal for conspicuous gallantry while operating a Lewis gun near Avion. The patrol to which he was attached was surprised by an enemy party, which opened fire at a range of only five yards. Zinck was wounded in four places, two of the wounds being severe, but he at once opened fire with his Lewis gun and continued firing until the enemy was dispersed, leaving one dead and several wounded behind, one of whom was afterwards captured.

Zinck's great courage and coolness are officially recognized as having saved part of his control from disaster. Coolness in Raid. Private Wilfrid Kilbourne, of a Western Ontario battalion, received the Military Medal for displaying great coolness and daring during a raid on an enemy trench. Corporal Daniel MacLean, a Central Ontario battalion, is awarded the Military Medal for capturing, single-handed, while bombing an enemy trench near Avion, a German officer and five men, whom he safely delivered at battalion headquarters, passing en route through an area in which gas shells were falling.

Privates James Kinslock and Herbert George Cannaby, of the same battalion, captured eighteen of the enemy on the same occasion, fifteen with arms in their hands. Both got Military Medals.

Private Charles Joseph Gagnon, of a Manitoba battalion is given the Military Medal for fortitude under imminent peril. Sergeant Thomas Duncan Waldo MacVicar, of a Manitoba battalion is awarded the Military Medal for going forward alone though wounded into an enemy trench and killing two snipers who were harassing his platoon during an attack on the enemy's front line.

THE MYSTERY OF THE BLOODY KEY—NO. 15.

George P. Graham Introduces the Disguised "Aunt" Conscriptio to the Liberal Convention at Toronto.

MILITARY SERVICE COUNCIL TO ENFORCE CONSCRIPTION BILL!

(Continued from page 1) He given all the time he wished to speak, however, he could not thank him for the courtesy. He proposed to share short rations with his followers. Sir Wilfrid said the statement had been made and repeated that the Liberals had agreed in 1914 to pay $30,000,000 for the C. N. R. stock. At that time the C. N. R. was practically insolvent and came to the government for aid. The question arose how best to deal with it. There were three possible courses—liquidation, temporary assistance or government ownership. At that time the government proposed temporary assistance, reorganizing the company and taking part of the stock. The Liberals proposed that there should be no assistance unless it was provided that the government had power to acquire the stock, at a sum not exceeding thirty million dollars. Sir Wilfrid said that the conditions of 1914 and today were not parallel. The government proposed today to buy the stock of a bankrupt company. The policy which ought to be followed now was that laid down by the 1914 statute. The language of that act was very clear and certain. If they defaulted, the mortgage was to be foreclosed. He asked why that was not being done. He claimed that they were taking property valued at $370,000,000 and with liabilities of $400,000,000. He said the owners of the C. N. R. stock never sold a dollar of it and never paid anything for it. They were taking nothing from the company. He was prepared to vote against the bill with a very clear conscience.

Mr. E. W. Nesbitt of North Oxford, said, not being against McKenzie and Mann, they had shown courage and ability. The government had made a bargain with that company in 1914 and this bargain should be lived up to. Hon. Arthur Meighen said that he would have replied to the leader of the opposition but he could not lay his hands on the proper references in time. The opposition leader, he said, had late given up his efforts to reconcile different positions he had taken on various matters, but today he had made an able speech in an effort to show that the position now taken by the Liberal party was not diametrical to the amendment then moved by the opposition. Sir Wilfrid had argued that in 1914 the parliament had made provision for securing the C. N. R. only in the case of default, and that the amendment then moved by the opposition was in regard to the attitude of the government and taking part of that day were incorporated. The legislation of 1914 did provide for default. He quoted the opposition leader as saying in 1914 that he would rather have control of the road than continue to pour money into it. Sir Wilfrid had also argued that there was no possibility of success for which Sir Wilfrid was referring to the amendment moved by Mr. Pugsley providing that parliament must approve of the finding of the board of arbitration. He argued that the functions of parliament are executive and not judicial, and that all former cases of expropriation, including those for which Sir Wilfrid Laurier was responsible, the supreme court of Canada was made the final court of appeal. There was no good reason why this should be made an exceptional case. Mr. Fred Pardee, who followed, declared that Sir Wilfrid could not cover up his own shortcomings by criticizing the leader of the opposition.

Amberst N. S. Aug. 30.—Before a Magistrate today, Ellsworth H. South, of Moncton pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing a large quantity of dry goods from various firms and he was held for trial.

France Honors Brave Soldier in Death. Montreal, Aug. 30.—Major Lambert Dumont Lavolette, M. C. who died in the Royal Victoria Hospital on Tuesday of wounds received at the battle of Courcellette last fall, has been made a chevalier of the Legion of Honor, first class, by the French government in recognition of his services at the front. A letter to this effect has been received by Mme. Dumont Lavolette, his mother, from Mr. Roy, agent general for Quebec in Paris, and it is probable now that Major Lavolette is not living to receive this honor that the cross will be presented to his mother. A few days before his death Major Lavolette received a letter from the Duke of Devonshire, governor general of Canada, inquiring as to how he was progressing and urging him not to give up hope of his recovery. On the day of his death he was visited by Sir Henry Meredith, Bart, president of the Bank of Montreal. Major Lavolette will be given a military funeral to-morrow morning.

Hon. F. D. Roosevelt at Campobello. Campobello, Aug. 30.—The assistant secretary of the United States Navy, Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Mrs. Roosevelt and four children have arrived at their summer home here. The assistant secretary will remain only a few days.

Amberst, N. S., Aug. 30.—Two German prisoners escaped from the internment camp on the Highlands today. They are A. Peters and T. Rogers. Both speak good English. All exits from the country are now closely guarded, searching parties are out and it is believed that they will soon be captured.

P. E. I. GIRL HAD DIFFICULT TIME TO GET MARRIED

She Neglected License and Then Automobile Broke Down—Finally Wedded Just Before 'Witching' Midnight Hour.

Boston, Aug. 30.—A bridal party with a minister and invited guests waited in the First Baptist church, Charlestown, for five hours last night, while the groom and bride-to-be chased about Somerville to get a marriage license, which they secured and arrived back at the church, where the ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Harold L. Hanson, at an hour before midnight. Lucian E. Gotham of Roxbury had planned to be married to Miss Cora Stuart of East Somerville, in the First Baptist church at 6 o'clock in the evening. They arrived at the church with their attendants, invited guests and friends and everything was ready for the ceremony, when the officiating clergyman, Rev. Mr. Hanson, discovered the bride did not have a marriage license and informed the couple that he could not perform the ceremony. Gotham turned over his license, which he secured in Boston.

Clerk on Vacation. A council of war was held and it was decided to get the city clerk of Somerville. He was away on vacation and the bridegroom and the minister made a trip in an automobile to the home of Asst. City Clerk Jason M. Carson on Vinal avenue, Somerville. They told their story to Mr. Carson and he informed them that they would have to get the bride to sign the application and also get in touch with the court officials to secure a waiver of the five-day law.

Armed with the license they went back to the church, where they were greeted by the minister and the large group of friends who had anxiously awaited their return. The bride party was formed and marched up the center aisle in front of the pulpit, where a few minutes after 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Hanson pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bride in her application stated she was a native of Prince Edward Island and that she was 39 years of age.

Auto Breaks Next. The bride with Mr. Connolly and the groom started for the Somerville City Hall in the machine, and on the way over the Prison Point bridge there was a blow-out to the machine. The party got out and took a street car to Somerville.

Mr. Connolly made out the papers waiting the five-day law, while the couple went to the office of Mr. Carson and made application for the wedding license. Then arm in arm in wedding outfit they marched down Highland avenue and Walnut street to the home of Judge L. Roger Wentworth on Monroe street, where they arrived at 10 o'clock. Judge Wentworth signed the paper waiving the law, and the

SOME SHIRTS

CHOICE PICKINGS. Within easy reach—as tempting to the good dresser as the apple was to our careless ancestor in the garden, but in this case no remorse. One dollar buys a good one $5.00 buys our best.

Some perky percales, snappy silks, charming crepes, multi-striped madras, and various fancy fabrics. Also new cravats in stripes and live colors, Japanese odd designs, English patterns, French creations—a bully display.

Gilmour's, 68 King St. Open Saturday Evening.

couple marched back to the city clerk's office and secured the license from Asst. City Clerk Carson.

Armed with the license they went back to the church, where they were greeted by the minister and the large group of friends who had anxiously awaited their return. The bride party was formed and marched up the center aisle in front of the pulpit, where a few minutes after 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Hanson pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bride in her application stated she was a native of Prince Edward Island and that she was 39 years of age.

Auto Breaks Next. The bride with Mr. Connolly and the groom started for the Somerville City Hall in the machine, and on the way over the Prison Point bridge there was a blow-out to the machine. The party got out and took a street car to Somerville.

Mr. Connolly made out the papers waiting the five-day law, while the couple went to the office of Mr. Carson and made application for the wedding license. Then arm in arm in wedding outfit they marched down Highland avenue and Walnut street to the home of Judge L. Roger Wentworth on Monroe street, where they arrived at 10 o'clock. Judge Wentworth signed the paper waiving the law, and the couple marched back to the city clerk's office and secured the license from Asst. City Clerk Carson.

Armed with the license they went back to the church, where they were greeted by the minister and the large group of friends who had anxiously awaited their return. The bride party was formed and marched up the center aisle in front of the pulpit, where a few minutes after 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Hanson pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bride in her application stated she was a native of Prince Edward Island and that she was 39 years of age.

Auto Breaks Next. The bride with Mr. Connolly and the groom started for the Somerville City Hall in the machine, and on the way over the Prison Point bridge there was a blow-out to the machine. The party got out and took a street car to Somerville.

Mr. Connolly made out the papers waiting the five-day law, while the couple went to the office of Mr. Carson and made application for the wedding license. Then arm in arm in wedding outfit they marched down Highland avenue and Walnut street to the home of Judge L. Roger Wentworth on Monroe street, where they arrived at 10 o'clock. Judge Wentworth signed the paper waiving the law, and the couple marched back to the city clerk's office and secured the license from Asst. City Clerk Carson.

Armed with the license they went back to the church, where they were greeted by the minister and the large group of friends who had anxiously awaited their return. The bride party was formed and marched up the center aisle in front of the pulpit, where a few minutes after 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Hanson pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bride in her application stated she was a native of Prince Edward Island and that she was 39 years of age.

Auto Breaks Next. The bride with Mr. Connolly and the groom started for the Somerville City Hall in the machine, and on the way over the Prison Point bridge there was a blow-out to the machine. The party got out and took a street car to Somerville.

Mr. Connolly made out the papers waiting the five-day law, while the couple went to the office of Mr. Carson and made application for the wedding license. Then arm in arm in wedding outfit they marched down Highland avenue and Walnut street to the home of Judge L. Roger Wentworth on Monroe street, where they arrived at 10 o'clock. Judge Wentworth signed the paper waiving the law, and the couple marched back to the city clerk's office and secured the license from Asst. City Clerk Carson.

Armed with the license they went back to the church, where they were greeted by the minister and the large group of friends who had anxiously awaited their return. The bride party was formed and marched up the center aisle in front of the pulpit, where a few minutes after 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Hanson pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bride in her application stated she was a native of Prince Edward Island and that she was 39 years of age.

Auto Breaks Next. The bride with Mr. Connolly and the groom started for the Somerville City Hall in the machine, and on the way over the Prison Point bridge there was a blow-out to the machine. The party got out and took a street car to Somerville.

Mr. Connolly made out the papers waiting the five-day law, while the couple went to the office of Mr. Carson and made application for the wedding license. Then arm in arm in wedding outfit they marched down Highland avenue and Walnut street to the home of Judge L. Roger Wentworth on Monroe street, where they arrived at 10 o'clock. Judge Wentworth signed the paper waiving the law, and the

U. S. NAVAL SHIPS ACT AS CONVOYS

American Experts Discover Bomb Deadly to U-Boats.

Washington Aug. 30.—American naval forces are conveying merchant craft across the Atlantic, it was stated officially today at the navy department, and examination of the records shows that the loss of convoys ships by submarines has averaged less than one-half of one per cent.

Details of the convoy system are withheld. American experts have developed a bomb for use against submarines that is deadly at considerable range.

MONCTON MAN IS HELD FOR TRIAL

Admits He Purloined Goods from Amherst Firms.

Amberst N. S. Aug. 30.—Before a Magistrate today, Ellsworth H. South, of Moncton pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing a large quantity of dry goods from various firms and he was held for trial.

P. E. I. GIRL HAD DIFFICULT TIME TO GET MARRIED

She Neglected License and Then Automobile Broke Down—Finally Wedded Just Before 'Witching' Midnight Hour.

Boston, Aug. 30.—A bridal party with a minister and invited guests waited in the First Baptist church, Charlestown, for five hours last night, while the groom and bride-to-be chased about Somerville to get a marriage license, which they secured and arrived back at the church, where the ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Harold L. Hanson, at an hour before midnight.

Clerk on Vacation. A council of war was held and it was decided to get the city clerk of Somerville. He was away on vacation and the bridegroom and the minister made a trip in an automobile to the home of Asst. City Clerk Jason M. Carson on Vinal avenue, Somerville.

Armed with the license they went back to the church, where they were greeted by the minister and the large group of friends who had anxiously awaited their return. The bride party was formed and marched up the center aisle in front of the pulpit, where a few minutes after 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Hanson pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bride in her application stated she was a native of Prince Edward Island and that she was 39 years of age.

Auto Breaks Next. The bride with Mr. Connolly and the groom started for the Somerville City Hall in the machine, and on the way over the Prison Point bridge there was a blow-out to the machine. The party got out and took a street car to Somerville.

Mr. Connolly made out the papers waiting the five-day law, while the couple went to the office of Mr. Carson and made application for the wedding license. Then arm in arm in wedding outfit they marched down Highland avenue and Walnut street to the home of Judge L. Roger Wentworth on Monroe street, where they arrived at 10 o'clock. Judge Wentworth signed the paper waiving the law, and the couple marched back to the city clerk's office and secured the license from Asst. City Clerk Carson.

Armed with the license they went back to the church, where they were greeted by the minister and the large group of friends who had anxiously awaited their return. The bride party was formed and marched up the center aisle in front of the pulpit, where a few minutes after 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Hanson pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bride in her application stated she was a native of Prince Edward Island and that she was 39 years of age.

Auto Breaks Next. The bride with Mr. Connolly and the groom started for the Somerville City Hall in the machine, and on the way over the Prison Point bridge there was a blow-out to the machine. The party got out and took a street car to Somerville.

Mr. Connolly made out the papers waiting the five-day law, while the couple went to the office of Mr. Carson and made application for the wedding license. Then arm in arm in wedding outfit they marched down Highland avenue and Walnut street to the home of Judge L. Roger Wentworth on Monroe street, where they arrived at 10 o'clock. Judge Wentworth signed the paper waiving the law, and the couple marched back to the city clerk's office and secured the license from Asst. City Clerk Carson.

Armed with the license they went back to the church, where they were greeted by the minister and the large group of friends who had anxiously awaited their return. The bride party was formed and marched up the center aisle in front of the pulpit, where a few minutes after 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Hanson pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bride in her application stated she was a native of Prince Edward Island and that she was 39 years of age.

Auto Breaks Next. The bride with Mr. Connolly and the groom started for the Somerville City Hall in the machine, and on the way over the Prison Point bridge there was a blow-out to the machine. The party got out and took a street car to Somerville.

Mr. Connolly made out the papers waiting the five-day law, while the couple went to the office of Mr. Carson and made application for the wedding license. Then arm in arm in wedding outfit they marched down Highland avenue and Walnut street to the home of Judge L. Roger Wentworth on Monroe street, where they arrived at 10 o'clock. Judge Wentworth signed the paper waiving the law, and the couple marched back to the city clerk's office and secured the license from Asst. City Clerk Carson.

Armed with the license they went back to the church, where they were greeted by the minister and the large group of friends who had anxiously awaited their return. The bride party was formed and marched up the center aisle in front of the pulpit, where a few minutes after 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Hanson pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bride in her application stated she was a native of Prince Edward Island and that she was 39 years of age.

Auto Breaks Next. The bride with Mr. Connolly and the groom started for the Somerville City Hall in the machine, and on the way over the Prison Point bridge there was a blow-out to the machine. The party got out and took a street car to Somerville.

SOME SHIRTS

CHOICE PICKINGS. Within easy reach—as tempting to the good dresser as the apple was to our careless ancestor in the garden, but in this case no remorse. One dollar buys a good one $5.00 buys our best.

Some perky percales, snappy silks, charming crepes, multi-striped madras, and various fancy fabrics. Also new cravats in stripes and live colors, Japanese odd designs, English patterns, French creations—a bully display.

Gilmour's, 68 King St. Open Saturday Evening.

couple marched back to the city clerk's office and secured the license from Asst. City Clerk Carson.

Armed with the license they went back to the church, where they were greeted by the minister and the large group of friends who had anxiously awaited their return. The bride party was formed and marched up the center aisle in front of the pulpit, where a few minutes after 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Hanson pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bride in her application stated she was a native of Prince Edward Island and that she was 39 years of age.

Auto Breaks Next. The bride with Mr. Connolly and the groom started for the Somerville City Hall in the machine, and on the way over the Prison Point bridge there was a blow-out to the machine. The party got out and took a street car to Somerville.

Mr. Connolly made out the papers waiting the five-day law, while the couple went to the office of Mr. Carson and made application for the wedding license. Then arm in arm in wedding outfit they marched down Highland avenue and Walnut street to the home of Judge L. Roger Wentworth on Monroe street, where they arrived at 10 o'clock. Judge Wentworth signed the paper waiving the law, and the couple marched back to the city clerk's office and secured the license from Asst. City Clerk Carson.

Armed with the license they went back to the church, where they were greeted by the minister and the large group of friends who had anxiously awaited their return. The bride party was formed and marched up the center aisle in front of the pulpit, where a few minutes after 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Hanson pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bride in her application stated she was a native of Prince Edward Island and that she was 39 years of age.

Auto Breaks Next. The bride with Mr. Connolly and the groom started for the Somerville City Hall in the machine, and on the way over the Prison Point bridge there was a blow-out to the machine. The party got out and took a street car to Somerville.

Mr. Connolly made out the papers waiting the five-day law, while the couple went to the office of Mr. Carson and made application for the wedding license. Then arm in arm in wedding outfit they marched down Highland avenue and Walnut street to the home of Judge L. Roger Wentworth on Monroe street, where they arrived at 10 o'clock. Judge Wentworth signed the paper waiving the law, and the couple marched back to the city clerk's office and secured the license from Asst. City Clerk Carson.

Armed with the license they went back to the church, where they were greeted by the minister and the large group of friends who had anxiously awaited their return. The bride party was formed and marched up the center aisle in front of the pulpit, where a few minutes after 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Hanson pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bride in her application stated she was a native of Prince Edward Island and that she was 39 years of age.

Auto Breaks Next. The bride with Mr. Connolly and the groom started for the Somerville City Hall in the machine, and on the way over the Prison Point bridge there was a blow-out to the machine. The party got out and took a street car to Somerville.

Mr. Connolly made out the papers waiting the five-day law, while the couple went to the office of Mr. Carson and made application for the wedding license. Then arm in arm in wedding outfit they marched down Highland avenue and Walnut street to the home of Judge L. Roger Wentworth on Monroe street, where they arrived at 10 o'clock. Judge Wentworth signed the paper waiving the law, and the couple marched back to the city clerk's office and secured the license from Asst. City Clerk Carson.

Armed with the license they went back to the church, where they were greeted by the minister and the large group of friends who had anxiously awaited their return. The bride party was formed and marched up the center aisle in front of the pulpit, where a few minutes after 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Hanson pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The bride in her application stated she was a native of Prince Edward Island and that she was 39 years of age.

Auto Breaks Next. The bride with Mr. Connolly and the groom started for the Somerville City Hall in the machine, and on the way over the Prison Point bridge there was a blow-out to the machine. The party got out and took a street car to Somerville.

Mr. Connolly made out the papers waiting the five-day law, while the couple went to the office of Mr. Carson and made application for the wedding license. Then arm in arm in wedding outfit they marched down Highland avenue and Walnut street to the home of Judge L. Roger Wentworth on Monroe street, where they arrived at 10 o'clock. Judge Wentworth signed the paper waiving the law, and the

THE ANOTHER GER ON THE VER REPULS

Austrian Army Drive Above Gorizia by na's Men Make F WEATHER ON THE CONTI Large Proportion of Fokshani Region Trenches and Re

Petrograd, Aug. 30.—A large portion of two Russian regiments the Fokshani region on the Roubin front left their trenches and retreated yesterday, says today's war statement. The dispersal of the regiments followed and many have been taken it is said, to re the positions attacked in the t now in progress.

More Artillerymen. Paris, Aug. 30.—The number artillerymen employed in the operations in the Verdun region greater than the number of infantry men put into battle line. This spring fact is explained by the gun correspondent of the Temps being due to the difficulty of gunners' tasks in addition to the dense number of cannon.

German attacks on the Verdun last night were repulsed completely. The war office announces that French penetrated German positions in the Champagne, taking prisoners and a machine gun. The statement follows:

There was pronounced activity of the artillery in the region of Craillon and in the sector of Craillon. An attack by the enemy on our positions south of Chevreux was repulsed in the Champagne, east of Dives succeeded, without sustaining losses, in a detailed action in the

ANOTHER CUNARD LINE STEAMER TORPEDO

The Volodia Sunk—M Four Masted Scho Laura C. Anderson Sent to Bottom.

Boston, Aug. 30.—The Cunard steamship Volodia, of 5,865 tons was torpedoed and sunk off the Irish coast recently, according to late advices. The Volodia, from the Den of Oglis, was built at Glasgow in 1913.

Schooner Sunk. London, Aug. 30.—The American schooner Laura C. Anderson was by bombs from a submarine on 5 day. All the members of the crew were picked up and landed at an Irish port.

The Laura C. Anderson was master of 860 tons gross. She built in 1891 at Bath, Me., and owned in Philadelphia.

14-16-18 Charlotte St.

HARV Beg

The biggest t marked down flat We slump the money and get yo Clothing, Ladies' eral harvest on al with the crowd to 14-16

The Big Cartridge for Big Game

"any range within reason, a true aim with this cartridge and there's no question about the result."

Dominion

is the dependable ammunition for Canadian big game—the only Made in Canada Ammunition for Canadian sportsmen. Backed by the guarantee of the big "D" trade-mark. Made in all calibres and for every shooting condition.

Dominion Cartridge Co., Limited
Montreal

A Convenient Range

The Kootenay Range has a ventilated oven, with nicked steel walls, drop door, tested thermometer and a flue system that directs the heat twice around the oven. The grates are easily shaken, dampers handy and fire always under perfect control. Write for booklet.

McClary's KOOTENAY RANGE

LONDON TORONTO MONTREAL WINNIPEG VANCOUVER
ST. JOHN, N. B. HALIFAX SASKATOON EDMONTON

Maritime Branch Office and Warehouse,
221-223 Prince William St., St. John, N. B.