

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1913.

ST. JOHN POLICE ASKED TO LOOK OUT FOR NOTED RUNAWAY CRIMINALS.

Some Things the Walls of the Police Station Guard Room Reveal—Many Types of Lawbreakers—The Confidence Man, the Thug, and the Murderer, Who Have Escaped Justice at Least for a Time.

A year ago William S. Allen, the "highly respectable, very debonair" Boston man, would have been interested and possibly offended had he been told that one of his pictures would hang on police station walls. In all the guard rooms you can see pictures of criminals—they happen along every few weeks, and the collections grow. They come from all over America, but mostly from within United States borders, and before each hurried face there are instructions to detain and were the address given.

DEATH SUMMONS CAME QUICKLY TO BRANDON MAN.

Lewis W. Clark Passed Away While Coming Into Montreal.

Deceased, Who Was on His Way to England Via St. John, Evidently Expected to Die Suddenly, as His Will and Full Instructions About Him Were in His Pocketbook. "Ticket, please!" The conductor Morris paused expectantly beside a man on his train this morning as he made this request.

GOOD-BYE TO OLD DAYS.

Globe Dines Walter H. Golding as He Leaves That Paper.

Walter Golding, who for three years has been an energetic and valued reporter on the Globe staff, and some nine years in all connected with newspaper work, said good-bye to the Globe Saturday night to take the position of advertising man in Manchester Robertson Allison, Ltd. The Globe dined Mr. Golding Saturday night in White's, King street, and presented to him a beautiful fountain pen, gold mounted.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera, Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis. IN THE GREAT SPECIFIC FOR. THE ILLUSTRATED LONDON NEWS, Sept. 25, 1886, says: "I was asked which single medicine I should prefer to take abroad with me, and I reply for the most generally used, to the relief of all others, I should say CHLORODYNE. I never travel without it, and its general applicability to the relief of a large number of simple ailments forms its best recommendation."

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Rev. H. A. Meek, who has been visiting his native place, Brighton (Eng.), returned home on Tuesday. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Miller, who is making her home with her son, H. A. Meek, in St. John. Rev. A. D. Cormier, of St. Joseph's College, returned home Thursday morning from a two months' tour in Montreal, and returned home from Lynn (Mass.) Friday because of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. A. H. Coughlan, Cross street. Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Fawcett will leave Crossville the middle of next month for Washington, where they will spend the holiday season with their daughter, Mrs. Jennie Hubbard. They expect to winter in California. Dr. Ayer, of Bath, Vt., will move to Fort Elgin at an early date. Mrs. J. Roy, Campbell, of Dorchester, has slightly improved after her recent serious illness. W. H. Price, of the Eastern S. S. Company, Boston, is in Montreal having been called there by the serious illness of his father, Enoch Price, of the I. C. R. J. Frank Kean, late of St. John, and until recently visiting in the city, has returned to his home in Philadelphia for the best description of "A Christmas Gift Service." Mrs. Phillips, wife of Rev. C. T. Phillips, though slightly improved, is still seriously ill. Mrs. Thomas Shaughey has been elected one of the governors of Laval University. J. W. Campbell, manager of the C. P. R. Atlantic steamship service, Montreal, is convalescent. With reference to a statement that Mr. Arnaud had declined to retire from the service of the Royal Bank, the Halifax Chronicle says: "Mr. Arnaud has retired voluntarily from the Royal Bank of Canada after a service of upwards of thirty years, and his relations with the bank remain cordial and friendly."

NAVIGATION CLOSED.

The Cold Snap Has Put the River Steamers Out of Business for the Season.

Navigation for the year has closed on the river. The stream is rapidly freezing and the probability of being the last boat to tie up for the season belongs to the Essexite (Walter Morris).

WEDDINGS.

Kirk Harding. At Sydney (C. B.), Thursday evening, Col. Sharp, of the Salvation Army of this city, officiated at the marriage ceremony of Kirk Harding, of the Essexite, and the daughter of Captain Andrew Kirk, of Yarmouth (N. S.). Miss Harding, up to the last council, was in charge of No. 2 barracks in this city, but was then transferred to Sydney. Belyea Brown. The Vancouver (B. C.) newspapers announce the marriage in that city on Nov. 18, of Miss Alice M. Belyea, formerly of this city, to J. O. W. Brown, of Barretts (B. C.). Storer-Jolachy. The residence of Dean D. McLachy, Wellington, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday evening when Miss Ella Maud McLachy was united in marriage to Richard Storer-Jolachy, of the Essexite, by Rev. J. B. Gosson, in the presence of a large number of guests. The happy couple will reside in Montreal-Albert Junction.

OBITUARY.

Freeman Dennis, Yarmouth. Yarmouth, Nov. 26.—Freeman Dennis, for many years a prominent citizen, and a member of the extensive shipwrecking firm of Dennis & Deane, died at the residence of his brother, James D. Dennis, this forenoon. He was seventy-seven years of age and leaves a widow. Mrs. Robert Adams. Digby, N. S., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Robert Adams died at her home in Bay View Digby county, at 120 this morning, aged seventy-eight years. She leaves three sons and four daughters. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Anderson, who resides in Massachusetts, and three brothers, John Campbell, of Mt. Pleasant; Alexander, of Victoria, and Daniel. The deceased was highly respected and will be much missed in the community where she resided. Mrs. Mark Wright. Friday's Charlottetown Guardian says: "The sympathy of the entire community will go out to Mark Wright on the death of his wife, which occurred yesterday morning about 9:30 o'clock. The deceased had been in failing health for some time and was suffering from paralysis, which hastened her demise. Mrs. Wright was a daughter of Mr. McKeehan, the first superintendent of the P. E. Island Railway. In the church and home life the deceased was a truly Christian woman and a kind wife and mother. Her husband, five daughters and a son survive."

ST. JOHN AND HALIFAX

The Subject of a Debate by St. Luke's Young Men Monday Evening.

One side contended that St. John benefited by the change; the other took an opposite view. Those holding the former view comprised Messrs. Elliot, Campbell, Belyea, Eagles, G. and U. Miller, and Brown. Their opponents were Messrs. Hanna, Adams, Morey, Kenney, McKim and Stanley. The argument was spirited, and after complimenting both sides on the ability shown, declared the result a draw. He particularly commended the speech given by Mr. Elliot, who strove to show St. John was the gainer by the fact that Halifax had received an additional portion of our shipping trade. Mr. Elliot said in part: "The fact of the steamers going to Halifax, in my estimation, an advantage to St. John, as it gives a more enterprising people, the C. P. R., a chance to further develop this port, as it is plainly seen that without the assistance and active support of the C. P. R. St. John would not be the winter port of Canada." A vote of thanks was tendered Rev. Mr. McKim.
