

HAZEN'S SELF-EULOGY

Not Such a Great Man As He Thought

Did Things He Took Credit For

Liberals Had Aided Maritime Fishermen to Get Product Quickly into Upper Canadian Centres—Minister Admits He "Misled" Parliament.

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—After paying a very eulogistic tribute in the commons on Monday to his work as minister of fisheries, Hon. J. D. Hazen was yesterday compelled to admit that the chief thing for which he had taken credit was, after all, not based on fact. He confessed that he had "unwittingly" been guilty of claiming too much, and that the published report of his remarks should therefore be corrected.

During Monday's discussion on the resolution of Mr. Sinclair relating to the transportation of fresh fish, reference was made by Liberal members to the assistance given by the late government towards developing this trade. It was pointed out that the late government placed a daily fast freight train on the interprovincial between Halifax and Montreal, and arranged for the shipment of small lots of fresh fish in refrigerated cars each day at the rate chargeable on car load lots.

The late government also guaranteed one-third of the cost of the express. These changes made by the late government built up the trade enormously and practically drove the Gloucester dealers out of the Montreal market.

When these facts were pointed out by the maritime Liberal members, Mr. Hazen became excited and asserted that the present government had done much more than the late government to develop the fresh fish trade. When challenged for details, he stated that his department last year had arranged for a daily refrigerator car on the eastern train to carry fish to Montreal. Yesterday he was compelled to admit that he had misled the house and that all the Borden administration had done in their two years of office was to induce the C. P. R. to attach a refrigerator car once each week, while the rate per 100 pounds remained exactly the same as it was prior to the defeat of the late government.

The fact is that the trade had grown to such an extent under the Borden administration that the late government, by its arrangement made by the late government, was merely maintaining the status quo.

On Monday, Mr. Hazen emphasized and reiterated the statement that he had put on an express car for the transportation of fish "every day," as compared with a fast freight service under the Liberal government. Yesterday he said, "Apparently I must have made the statement because I am reported this way, and my friends misunderstood it. If I did make the statement I did not intend to make it and it was not correct."

HEBERT MARRIAGE CASE TO REOPEN

Montreal Woman Given Permission to Enter Suit to Declare Her Marriage by a Protestant Minister Valid.

Montreal, Feb. 4.—The famous Hebert-Gloucester marriage case will reopen as the result of a decision rendered by Justice Greenfield today giving permission to Mrs. Hebert to enter suit against Eugene Hebert for a declaration that their marriage was valid, and also to sue for a declaration that the decree of Archbishop Bruchesi pronouncing the marriage void is of no effect and illegal.

The case hangs upon the question whether or not the marriage law in Quebec province follows the ecclesiastical law—or in other words, whether the Quebec decree of the Roman Catholic church directed against the marriage of Catholics by a Protestant minister and a priest, between a Protestant and a Catholic, is effective in law.

SUBURBANITES HELD INDIGNATION MEETING IN CITY

Strong Protest Against the Withdrawal of I.C.R. Trains—To Interview the General Manager.

Suburbanites held an indignation meeting Monday morning in the offices of H. P. Puddington, Market square, when the matter of the withdrawal of I. C. R. trains was discussed. There was much adverse comment on a policy which involves the cancellation of a popular and presumably profitable train service.

Instead of taking away trains and lessening the schedule in the suburban service, said more than one speaker, the I. C. R. should be increasing the number and in this way helping to build up the rapidly growing service by adding to the number of dwellings erected at points along the line.

These are not summer residents in the popular meaning of the word, but citizens who, induced by the convenient and popular train schedule recently in force, have built substantial dwellings at stations along the line. Now that their accommodation is to be curtailed to such an extent as in the case, they are naturally up in arms over the matter.

32,000 Have Claimed Bounties

Col. Sam Hughes' Estimate of 10,000 is Trebled—Minister of War Tells of That Famous Trip to Europe with His Retinue of Colonels, Their Wives, Daughters and Secretaries—Many Other Queries Answered.

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—Colonel The Hon. Sam Hughes' trip to England last summer with entourage of officers, officers' wives and daughters and lady private secretaries, his participation with General Sir Ian Hamilton, while on military duty, in the picnic of Ward A Conservative Association of Toronto at Queenston Heights last summer, and his showing of Fenian raid bounties over the country, outwitting the United States pension record, were the chief subjects of inquiry by Liberals in the commons today. The replies brought some illuminative and characteristic expressions from Col. Sam Hughes.

When parliament passed the Fenian Raid bounty act in 1912 it did so on the assurance of the minister that the total estimate of all the men who had been called out for service was 10,000 and it was intimated that not more than 6,000 at most would be still alive and entitled to the bounty. Today Col. Hughes stated that almost 16,470 bounty payments had been made. There are as many more applications still coming in, the influx being now principally from Nova Scotia.

It appears that practically every man who was enrolled in the militia at the time of the Fenian Raids is entitled to a bounty, since the lieutenant-governor of the province proclaimed at the time that they were all liable to be called out for service. It is apparently the intention of the government to pay all these Nova Scotia claims, though there was no fighting done in Nova Scotia during the Fenian raids.

It is stated that the bestowal of the bounties has been so generous that Nova Scotians have received it twice. Officers, while on the trip, received pay according to rank, amounting to $3,984 and for subsistence and other allowances the total amount was $10,000. The party other than officers received actual expenses and their permanent pay. The officers visited the French, Swiss and British manoeuvres, while the minister visited the German divisions, the Dutch and Belgian military centres. Colonel Hughes added that a full report of the trip was being prepared by Colonel Cruikshank and when complete will be placed in the hands of the members.

Fenian Raid "Veterans"

Mr. Michaud was told that men enlisted for military service to resist the Fenian raid in 1866 consisted of 125,031, divided as follows: Upper Canada, 72,199; Lower Canada, 2,988; Nova Scotia, 59,979; and New Brunswick, 44,255. In the year 1870 the men called out numbered 18,841, divided as follows: Ontario, 20,958; Quebec, 18,008; Nova Scotia, 5,194; and New Brunswick, 3,827. The total called out to resist the two raids numbered 166,872.

Mr. Hughes, of Prince Edward Island, was informed by Colonel Hughes that the department had no record of any Prince Edward Island corps having been called out because of the Fenian raids.

Queens Answered

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—At the opening of today's sitting of the commons, A. K. McLean, of Halifax, asked the minister of the commons, the Hon. J. D. Hazen, to state the terms of the government's contracts with the Royal Mail Steamship Company of Canada.

He was told that the sum per annum paid to the company was $360,000; that the contract ran for five years, from November, 1912, and that the ships were four in number, the Chignecto, Chaleur, Cobequid and Caracot, running from Halifax every two weeks.

Mr. McLean was also told that Watson Griffin had been appointed special travelling trade commissioner in the West Indies at a salary of $4,000 a year. Mr. Griffin was formerly an industrial commissioner at Brandon (Man.).

A number of questions in regard to the amounts paid by the government in the Fenian raid case were asked before the Supreme Court of Canada and the English Privy Council were asked by Mr. Proulx, of Prescott. He was told that the total amount paid to counsel had been $41,978.

Col. Sam Under Fire

Colonel Sam Hughes told Mr. E. M. Hebert that the government would introduce legislation extending the time for the payment of Fenian raid bounties and that the bounty will be paid to widows of Fenian raid veterans. To date 16,470 bounties have been made.

Mr. Proulx asked if the minister of militia had accompanied General Sir Ian Hamilton to the political picnic of Ward A, Conservative Association, at Queenston Heights in July last, wearing a badge inscribed "Borden and our empire," and was so photographed.

APPEAL FOR PEACE CENTENARY FUNDS

No Contribution from British or American Governments—Archbishop Wants American Histories Revised.

London, Feb. 4.—The British committee arranging for the celebration of the centenary of peace between the United States and the British Empire, made a second appeal for funds at a meeting held today at the Mansion House, under the patronage of the lord mayor of London, and with the Duke of Teck in the chair.

A cablegram from Secretary of State Bryan, expressing the sympathy of himself, of President Wilson, and of the cabinet in the object of the celebration, was read.

Premier Asquith said that as far as he knew neither the British nor the American government was officially participating in the programme of the celebration, because both of them felt that the movement should be a spontaneous act of the peoples of the two countries.

The Archbishop of Canterbury expressed the hope that some part of the fund would be devoted to educational endowments, by which what he deemed the disproportionate share given to the separation of the United States from Great Britain might be reduced in American school history books.

NATIONAL FORESTRY CONGRESS IN OTTAWA NEXT JANUARY

Convention Concludes Its Labors and Presents Many Requests to Government to Improve the Present Service.

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—A National Forestry Congress, similar to the one called by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1905, will be held in Ottawa next January. This was decided on the suggestion of Premier Borden, of the delegates to the sixteenth annual meeting of the Canadian Forestry Association, which concluded its sessions this afternoon.

The lieutenant-governors of all the provinces, members of parliament and of the senate, prominent lumbermen, and in fact everybody who is prominently identified and sympathetic with forestry, will be invited by the premier to attend the congress, at which matters pertaining to the preservation of the forests will be discussed.

Prior to deciding on holding the convention the delegates waited on Premier Borden and Hon. Dr. Roche, minister of the interior, and submitted resolutions covering such matters as the extension of forest areas, more care in deciding what lands shall be opened for settlement, free distribution of young trees, and that appointments in the forestry branch should be based on capability and experience.

To all these the premier and Dr. Roche promised to give immediate consideration, and Mr. Borden suggested holding a national forestry congress. Later the delegates informed him they would be pleased if such a congress could be held and the premier promised it would be.

ANGLO-GERMAN RELATIONS BETTER

'Very Good' Declares Chancellor

Is Satisfied With 16 to 10 British Naval Preponderance

Berlin, Feb. 5.—Anglo-German relations are "very good," according to the German foreign minister, Gottlieb von Jagow, in a speech before the ways and means committee of the imperial parliament today. This utterance is the strongest official characterization of the relations between the two countries that has been expressed in years.

The foreign minister declared that the one-time tension was steadily decreasing and that the relations of the two governments were now marked throughout by mutual trust.

Admiral Alfred von Tirpitz, minister of marine, declared he had nothing to add to his statement of last year that England's proposed fleet ratio of 16 to 10, as compared to that of Germany, was acceptable to the German empire.

Both Herr von Jagow and Admiral von Tirpitz expressed the opinion that the official suggestion of a year's naval building holiday, made by Winston Churchill, first lord of the British admiralty, was impracticable.

SIGNAL HONOR TO BRAVE CAPTAIN

London, Feb. 4.—Capt. Francis Inch, commander of the steamship Voltourno, which was burned in mid-Atlantic on Oct. 11, 1913, with a loss of 136 lives, was presented today with the freedom of the city of London in a silver casket, and also with a gold medal, a gold watch and chain, a purse of gold, and Lloyd's silver medal.

The presentation was made by the lord mayor at the Mansion House. He told Capt. Inch that the tokens were in recognition of his "heroism and staunch allegiance to duty."

At the same time, a diamond and sapphire pendant and a silver tea service were presented to Mrs. Inch. The lord mayor and William Macdonald, the wireless inventor, delivered speeches in reply to which Capt. Inch modestly disclaimed having done anything but his duty.
