Call Has Come to New Brunswick Now

Lt. Col. McAvity Announces That Able Bodied Men From All Parts of Province Are Needed to Complete Distinctive Battalion-Those Accepted Can Count on Fighting-A Call to the Loyalist Blood.

What will you lack, sonny, what will you lack
When the girls line up the street,
Shouting their love to the lads come back
From the fee they rushed to beat?
Will you send a strangled cheer to the sky
And grin till your cheeks are red?
But what will you lack when your mate goes by
With a girl who outs you dead?

Where will you look, sonny, where will you look
When your children yet to be
Clamor to learn of the part you took
In the war that kept men free?
Will you say it was naught to you if France
Stood up to her foe or bunked?
But where will you look when they give the glance
That tells you they knowyou funked.

How will you fare, sonny, how will you fare
In the far-off winter night,
When you sit by the fire in and old man's chair
And your neighbors talk of the fight?
Will you slink away, as it were from a blow,
Your old head shamed and bent?
Or say—"I was not with the first to go,
But I went, thank God, I went?"

Why do they call, sonny, why do they call
For men who are brave and strong?
Is it naught to you it your country fall,
And Right is smashed by Wrong?
Is it football still and the picture show,
The pub and the betting odds,
When your brothers stand to the tyrant's blow
And England's call is God's?
