BOYS READY TO ORGANIZE

With no chance of an O. H. A. team for this season the Hockey fans are determined that the town will not be without hockey of some kind this winter and after talking the matter over quietly have decided to call a meeting of all those interested in forming a town hockey League to meet at the Commercial Hotel next Monday night at 8.30 o'clock when it is hoped the matter will be brought to a successful head.

In big hockey circles Waterloo, the past few years, has been practically off the hockey map and there does not seem any likelihood of them making a big noise for some time to come. It is a sure thing hockey players are made in the city leagues and it is with this idea in mind that the meeting has been called for next Monday night. With the new curling rink running the old rink will be available for skating and hockey which will assure the fans of at least two good games a week. There are no doubt a number of teams in town anxious to look forward to the formation of a league and if a good committee can be secured there is no reason why the game should not flourish in town the coming season. It might be advisable to divide the club up into two or three classes which would give the younger players a better chance to show their ability among players of their own class. No doubt these matters will be all considered at the meeting to be held on Monday.

WILL SOON BE READY FOR BUSINESS

Waterloo's New Glove industry which has been organized by Messrs. Raymond and Becker will soon be ready for business. They will occupy Mr. P. Holmeir's store on King street and the place is rapidly being put in shape. Raymond and Becker are two young men and citizens in general will wish them every success.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. John's Lutheran Church was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert Bolduc, Allan street, there being a large number of members present. Following the business meeting there were a number of excellent four minute talks by several of the members. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. A. Bolduc and Mrs. Graham Hamacher.

SCHOOL BOARD

GRANT INCREASES

Advances From $50 to $125 According to Grade and Length of Service.

At the regular monthly meeting of the School Board held on Tuesday night, the report of the business that came up for discussion was the matter of teachers' salaries. The Board has received a recommendation from the Teachers Association which pointed out the advance in the cost of living and asking that an increase be granted and it was decided to grant increases ranging from $50 to $125 according to the grade taught and length of service, the minimum salary being $700 per annum.

The caretakers of the Central and Alexandria schools were each granted increases of $50.

Most favorable reports were received from the teachers and the Inspector and were ordered filed. There was the usual budget of accounts passed. The school will close on December 19th for the Christmas holidays.

St. James Anglican Church, Ingersoll celebrated its 50th. anniversary on Sunday.

START MADE ON NEW YARDS

A start has been made on the new cattle yards which will be located behind the Market building. The posts have been put in, and it is not thought the weather will interfere with the completion of the work as only a few days will be necessary to have the yards in shape.

At The Theatres

CONSTANCE TALMADGE AT THE ALLEN

The Allen has a real good bill which will be seen for the last time to-night and lovers of good drama on the screen are advised to visit this popular playhouse for in "Mrs. Lefingwell's Boots", Constance Talmadge, the movie star is seen in a film that is one of the best of her many offerings.

Beautiful costumes, gorgeous scenery and a well worked out story make the screen interpretation one of exceptional high merit and the patrons which crowded the theatre at both performances yesterday were more than pleased. The Star is seen in the role of a rich young man's wife, who while doting on his young wife is a little inclined to be miserly. At his wife's earnest persuasion they pay a visit to witness the Polo Match for the Championship. While promising not to ask the husband for anything while on the trip she falls dead in love with a pair of shoes which are offered at the small sum of $75 for the pair. She pawns her jewelry to secure them and tells the doubting husband that she is buying a pair of similar shoes for his sweetheart but at the last minute their engagement is broken off and the shoes are given to the maid. The entire story hinges on the shoes, the dealer claiming there is only one pair on existence like them. This naturally arouses suspicion and during the remaining reels an excellent story is worked out to a successful conclusion. Just how a story can be woven around a pair of shoes and the interesting developments that follow has to be seen to be appreciated and no doubt capacity audiences will attend at both performances to-day.

There is an exceptionally funny comedy entitled "Dabbling in Society" that has a lot of pop and many comical situations besides embodying a well worked out plot. A fine educational film rounded out a first class programme. The entire bill is up to the Allen's usual high standard.

CAPACITY CROWD

GREET MINSTRELS

CLOSING NIGHT

Imperial Theatre Packed to Doors at Every Performance.

The final performance of the Craftsman Club Minstrels drew another capacity crowd to the Imperial Theatre last night and anything the entire program ran smoother than on the two previous occasions. The enthusiasm that has been displayed at different performances throughout goes to show that the efforts of local talent are fully appreciated and especially so on the finished rendition of the entire program from beginning to end of the Craftsman Club. No small measure is due the committee under whose direction the production was staged and it is only a fore-runner of what the public may expect the next time they appear before the footlights. While the committee naturally come in for a certain share of the credit the performers must not be forgotten as no matter how good a leader you have must be backed up by good artists in ability and this was predominant in the large chorus and the principals who took part. Following the performance last night, the members were tendered a banquet at Gettas and Gettas and everyone present showed that they could do full justice to the good things provided as well as do a song and dance or crack a joke. It was a fitting conclusion to a most successful event and every one enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent.

Standard Reliance Probe Continues at Toronto.

A. J. PATTISON AND RESIGNATION.

Toronto, Dec. 4.—When the investigation into the affairs of the defunct Standard Reliance Loan Corporation resumed at Osgegoe Hall this morning W. S. Dinnick was in the witness box for the second day.

Before leaving the Canadian Savings Transaction George H. Kilmer, K. C., delivered into the payment of $250 to George H. Cooper, a director of that company. Counsel also read a letter sent by Cooper to Dinnick.

"Did you pay Cooper $250 to purchase his piece as to the transaction?"

"Yes," said Dinnick. "This was the type of thing that we were up against every purchase. When the directors made a deal, later someone would come along with this sort of thing. After the deal was made these people would write and threaten, and then amounts were paid to slave off these threats. Cooper came along and demanded money and he was also paid money by Scott."

C. H. L. Transaction.

Mr. Kilmer then went into the Canadian Homestead Loan and Savings Association, which was taken over by the Standard Loan, after negotiations between the witness and A. J. Pattison. The first transaction was a payment of $21,000 of debentures of the Homestead. Mr. Kilmer wanted to know if the Standard debentures of the Homestead for debenture witness said $11,000 was paid. According to the books of the Homestead two cheques were given the Standard—$10,800 and $10,200—the Standard got only $11,000.

"Did the Standard ever receive the balance of $10,000?"

"No," said A. J. Pattison for retiring as president.

"But he had retired?"

Mr. Starr—"The Standard never got a look at that ten thousand dollars."

Mr. Kilmer—"Pattison was present at the meeting and was secretary and manager when the resolution was passed?"

"Yes."

Eventful Day.

"That was quite a day when that was passed—Nov. 22, 1905—and the transfer took place. John Firstbrook was present, J. Walter Curry and Messrs. King and Fox were also present. A. J. Pattison assigned his shares to R. H. Grieve at that meeting?"

"Yes."

"Who got it?"

"A. J. Pattison transferred to A. J. Williams, Emma Fox to R. H. Greene?"

"Yes."

Dovercourt Bought Shares.

"Were these the shares of the Dovercourt?"

"Yes."

"58 shares valued at $4,862, were transferred?"

"Yes."

"The sale of the assets of the Homestead were arranged at that meeting, and the 58 shares—Mrs. Emma Davies, $2,939.93; Rev. E. T. Fox, a director $509.93; Mr. E. T. Fox, $509.93; John Firstbrook $1,019.86; A. J. Pattison $454.67; John S. King, $75.50; J. Walter Curry $35; and later E. T. Fox got a further $500—were paid for as above by cheque from the Dovercourt."

"This paid for the stock of these directors and their relatives?"

"Yes."

Shareholders Didn't Know.

"Did the shareholders know that the director got cash for their stock?"

"I see nothing to show that."

"And at that meeting the assets were transferred, and on that day you paid A. J. Pattison $10,000?"

"Yes."

THE NEW THEATRE AS AN INVESTMENT

Announcement was made in our Wednesday paper that Kitchener was to have a fine big Theatre.

Owing to the Victory Loan Campaign, operators in connection with this big enterprise had been held back. From remarks heard on all sides this undertaking will no doubt receive exceptional support, and encouragement. As time passes and as the city continues to grow the demand for a large up-to-date playhouse becomes greater and greater, and the financial ability of any one person is seldom sufficient to supply a theatre to a city the size of Kitchener that will satisfy the demands. The responsibility naturally falls upon some local or outside company to put it over. Until a short time ago Bradford was in practically the same opportunity. The city is growing by leaps and bounds and every citizen is or should be boasting, and the best way to invest your money is in your own town and with your own people. The Independent Theatres Co. are purely local men, and the directors and promoters earnestly solicit the help and co-operation of every citizen. The stock is issued in shares of $10.00 each and bears interest at rate of 7 per cent. per annum payable half yearly. The Preferred Stock is practically a first mortgage on the entire assets of the company thus giving the investor a gilded security at 7 per cent. This together with the big earning powers of an up-to-date theatre owned by the citizens themselves makes it possible for exceptional success, as every stock holder will boost for the house where his own money is.

The many friends of Mrs. Wm. Stewart will be pleased to learn she is recovering rapidly after undergoing an operation yesterday in the K. and W. Hospital.

Prisoners Retired.

The prisoners, Ivan Petouff and Stojko Boyeff convicted of murder, remain very reticent.
