AUSTIN G. L. TRIBUTE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

"The Making of Mickey McGhee"

Canadians who love the poems of Service will be interested to know of the discovery of a Scottish Kipling, R. W. Campbell who has already won his laurels by his books "Private Spud Tamson" and "The Kangaroo Marines" has now given the world of letters a set of poems entitled "The Making of Mickey McGhee" and other stories in verse. These verses breathe of romance, the humour, and the glory of the great adventure. And to Canadians these poems will have a special interest, for the author has toured from Halifax to Vancouver, Prince Rupert, and back. He was the author of that famous journey of 12000 miles in a kilt, through the cities, towns, prairies and deep canyons of Canada. His pen and his lectures have sent many to seek their fortunes in the Golden West, for he is an ardent admirer of all things Canadian and matters Imperial. In Toronto he met the great Macdonald of the Globes in Winnipeg, the immortal Ralph Connor, and in other parts the statesmen, thinkers, and pioneers who have laid the foundations of our great Canadian Dominion.

These poems breathe a reverence for things Imperial, and introduce the world to the chivalry of the trenches. Fun there is and in abundance, the same sparkling fun that has immortalized "Spud Tamson." There are many beautiful illustrations, and those who desire a literary treasure should secure a copy. The book entitled "The Making of Mickey McGhee" and other stories in verse, and is to be issued at 3/6 net by George Allen & Unwin, London.

Parcels for Prisoners of War in Germany Must Be Very Strongly Packed.

The Post Office Department has been notified by the British Post Office that many parcels sent from Canada to Prisoners of War in Germany are being received in London in a damaged condition, so that frequently they have to be repacked before they can be forwarded to Holland for transmission to Germany. The British Post Office adds that in most cases the damage appears to be due to the fact that the parcels were inadequately packed by the sender.

The public are warned, therefore, that parcels for Prisoners of War, unless they are very strongly packed, will probably arrive in such a condition as to be of little or no use to the recipients.

Ordinary thin cardboard boxes, such as shoe-boxes, and thin wooden boxes should not be used; nor does a single sheet of ordinary brown paper afford sufficient protection. Even where proper material are used, it is important that the contents should be tightly packed so as not to shake about during transit. The following form of packing are recommended:—

1. Strong double cardboard or straw-board boxes. Those made of corrugated cardboard and having flaps which completely enclose the sides of the box are most suitable.
2. Tin boxes such as are used for packing biscuits.
3. Strong wooden boxes.
4. Several folds of stout packing paper.

The British authorities advise that parcels for Prisoners of War in Germany must not be wrapped in linen, calico, canvas, or any other textile material.

Parcels posted in Canada for Prisoners of War in Germany which have not been adequately packed by the sender will not be forwarded but will be returned to the sender, as the British Post Office has notified the Department that parcels which are inadequately packed must be returned to the senders.

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM

London Military Critics Optimistic Regarding Roumania.

Field Marshal von Mackensen is Trying a Dangerous Game in Pursuing the Retreating Forces—Russian Tropes Continue to Arrive and the Teutonic Invaders Are Courting Disaster.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Military observers here, despite pessimistic utterances by a portion of the London press, see no cause for alarm over the situation in Dobruja. The invasion of Roumania from the Dobruja has been prevented by the blowing up of the Cernavoda Bridge, across which, it is reported, the greater part of the Russian and Roumanian forces had escaped. Field Marshal von Mackensen is trying the dangerous game of pursuing the remainder into the marshes of the Danube delta.

In this region the Roumanians have strong points of support in the large towns of Braila, Galatz and Reni, to the north-west, on the other side of the Danube, whence reinforcements and supplies can be easily transported across the river. It was from Reni, at the bend of the Danube, that the Russians entered the Dobruja to aid the Roumanians when the latter declared war. They crossed the river on pontoon bridges, which doubtless by this time have been strengthened for the passage of heavy artillery, which seems to be the chief need of the army opposing Field Marshal von Mackensen. Three good railroads reach the cities mentioned—from Czernowitz, Kishineff, and Bucharest—and it is safe to say that over all of them trains full of munitions and troops are now speeding to the Dobruja corner.

Mackensen is meeting with little resistance. The allied command, it is believed, is willing to fall back steadily toward the Bessarabian line. Their chief concern is to elude enveloping moves.

Sofia reports the capture of 500 additional prisoners, including some Russian telegraph operators.

The Russo-Roumanian army in the Dobruja is retreating towards the pontoon bridges across the Danube from Hirsova northward to Tulcea and Isakeha, near the mouth of the river, according to Sunday's Bulgarian War Office statement. The Bulgarians have destroyed the bridge at Hirsova and the advanced guard on the eastern wing has reached the region of Babadagh, fifty miles north of Constanza.

Will Make Paper From Wood Chips.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—As the result of studies which have been made at the Forest Products Laboratory on methods of handling wood chips suitable for paper pulp, it is announced that Wisconsin paper companies are now negotiating with the railroads for shipment to their factories of experimental trainloads of chips of Western woods adapted to paper making.

Previous investigations by the Forest Service have demonstrated that good grades of paper can be made from a number of Western woods. The experts now estimate that some of these woods, when cut into chips and dried and baled, can be delivered to the mills in Wisconsin at a very small advance over the cost of chips made from local timber. In Wisconsin alone, it is stated, there is an annual market for over 600,000 cords of pulpwood.

Russia's Resources Ample.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 30.—The Minister of the Interior, H. Protopopoff, has applied to the military authorities, according to the Reuch, for permission to draw upon the military stores for food supplies for the populations of Petrograd and Moscow. The Minister points out that in view of the important part played by these capitals in the conduct of the war it is essential that they shall not be allowed to suffer for want of provisions. M. Protopopoff has asked that the commissary inform him what supplies can be spared for the civilians. Both the Minister of Agriculture and the Minister of the Interior have proposed relief measures dealing chiefly with questions of transportation, since the resources of Russia, they declare, are ample for the needs of the army and the people.

Captured Serbian Village.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—In the fighting at the bend of the Cerna River in Macedonia the Serbians and the French have made fresh progress, advancing and taking trenches in places in local encounters, repulsing Bulgarian counter-attacks, taking a number of machine guns and some score of prisoners. The French in the vicinity of the Cerna have captured Gardilovo Village and a system of Bulgarian trenches between Kenall and the Cerna. Gardilovo was captured in a brilliant engagement.

On the British front the Bulgarians made a counter-attack in the region north of Ormanli, on the left bank of the Struma River. This attempt was easily repulsed.

Fire Damages Liner.

PARIS, Oct. 30.—None of the passengers or members of the crew on the French line steamer Chicago, was injured through the fire which broke out on board the liner while bound from Bordeaux for New York, and which caused her to put into the Azores, where the flames in her hold were extinguished, says a telegram received Sunday by the French line from its agent in the Azores. The damage from the fire was slight.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
