

An Act to incorporate the Citizen Printing and Publishing Company (Limited).

WHEREAS the undermentioned persons have by their petition represented that they have opened in the City of Ottawa a printing and publishing establishment in which the business of "The Citizen" Newspaper, and other general printing and publishing business is conducted, and of which and of the copyrights, interests, property, and assets connected therewith, the following persons and others are the proprietors, namely:— Charles H. Carriere, George C. Holland and Andrew Holland, and that it is intended by the said persons to establish branch offices for the said newspaper and business in the several Provinces of the Dominion; And whereas, it is represented that the said persons have invested a large amount of capital in the said business, and are desirous of associating others with them in the ownership of the said newspaper and printing and publishing business, and of carrying on the said business in the several Provinces of the Dominion; And whereas, for securing greater efficiency and permanency in carrying on the same they are further desirous of obtaining an act of incorporation, and it is expedient that the prayer of their petition to that effect be granted: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:

1. Charles H. Carriere, George C. Holland and Andrew Holland, together with all such other persons as now are or may hereafter become shareholders in the Company hereby created, shall be and they are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate by the name of the "Citizen Printing and Publishing Company, (limited)," and may by that name sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, answer and be answered, defend and be defended, in all Courts of Law and Equity; and by that name they and their successors shall have perpetual succession, and may have a common seal, and may change and alter the same at pleasure; may establish agencies for the sale of the said newspaper in the several Provinces of the Dominion; may acquire for themselves and successors, under any legal title whatsoever, property real and personal; may alienate, sell, convey, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof, from time to time as occasion may require, for such price or prices, and on such terms and conditions as they may see fit.

2. The said Company is hereby constituted for the purpose of carrying on the publication of the said "Citizen" newspaper, and generally for carrying on the business of printing, publishing, stereotyping, engraving, wood-cutting, lithographing, and book-binding, and to deal in and vend all articles of merchandise connected therewith; the head office of the Company shall be in Ottawa, with establishments or branch offices in the capitals of
