

Meadowvale school name set

The Meadowvale West junior public school to be constructed this year will be located on Montevideo Road east of Glen Erin Drive and will be called Plowman's Park Public School.

The Peel Board of Education approved that proposal last week. The school is planned to open in September 1981. The boundary for its attendance area will be Erin Mills Parkway and Fifth Line on the east, Britannia Road on the south, Glen Erin Drive on the west and Lake Aquitaine on the north.

Students graduating from Plowman's Park will attend Dolphin Senior Public School in Streetsville.

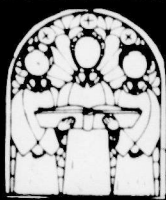

The new senior public school, to be located on a new street called Edenwood Drive, will be called Edenwood Senior Public School. All Grade 7 and 8 students in Meadowvale West, except those in the Plowman's Park attendance area, will go to Edenwood Senior.

Meadowvale Public School in the village of Meadowvale, which is now a kindergarten to Grade 8 school, will become a kindergarten to Grade 6 school in September 1981.

In that year Grade 7 students will go to Dolphin Senior Public School, but Grade 8 students will remain at Meadowvale Public School to graduate.

Foster child

Charlotte, 11, feels insecure

It is difficult to believe that a child can be abandoned in this day and age. But in 11-year-old Charlotte's case, her overwhelmed mother simply vanished.

An active, outgoing girl who enjoys rough and tumble play, Charlotte has been cared for by a neighbor. Unfortunately, the neighbor is ill and unable to continue to parent Charlotte.

In a brief time, Charlotte has experienced two major losses in her life and is feeling insecure about her future. A highly committed couple are being sought as foster parents; a couple who can create security for this girl by being understanding yet not permissive.

The Children's Aid Society will provide a daily rate of $8.47 for Charlotte's care, clothing and allowance.

Interested parties are asked to call 791-5151.

School patrols studied in Malton

School patrols may be established at two schools on Brandon Gate Drive in Malton.

The city's traffic safety council has asked Peel Regional Police to consider the establishment of the patrols at Brandon Gate Public School and

St. Gabriel Separate School, which are located beside each other.

The safety council also recommended that pavement markings, indicating location of crossing guards, be placed in front of the schools.
