CONSULATE GENERAL OF JAPAN,

NEW YORK CITY, N. Y.

July 8th 1917

Dear Mr. King,

I am very much disappointed not to be able to see you yesterday. I have learned at coming back to home yesterday evening that you had telephoned to my wife that you were in town but that you were going back to Ottawa the same evening.

I had received your very kind letter some days ago and was going to write to you thanking you
