Ottawa, 8th December, 1910

Sir:-

I have to inform you that the application for loan from Band funds submitted in the name of Stephen Nahmalien has not been presented in proper form, the mortgage portion of the form has not been filled in. The application is returned herewith. Before it is again presented, the question of granting a loan should be brought before the Council of the Band, provided this has not already been done, and a resolution in regard to the matter should be obtained. If the application is approved by the Council it may be submitted to the Department together with copy of resolution of Council in the matter, but you should be particular to see that the form is properly completed before it is again transmitted to head-quarters.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary

WM. Nisbet Esq.,
Indian Agent,
Sarnia, Ont.
