

C239312

-2-

September 24. Anthony Eden. Leamington - role of small powers and the "big four"; programme for immediate post-war period.

October 10. T.V. Soong (Chinese Minister for Foreign Affairs) - the old League and the new world order.

October 30. Anthony Eden. Glasgow - British role in post-war world.

November 6. Josef Stalin - Moscow Soviet - war aims of Anglo-Soviet-American coalition".

November 10. V.K. Wellington Koo (Chinese Ambassador to Great Britain) Chungking - a new international organization.

November 15. Sir Stafford Cripps (Lord Privy Seal) International Youth Congress, London - world and regional councils; treatment of Germany.

November 16. Sir Stafford Cripps, broadcast to N.Y. Herald Tribune Forum - power and post-war world order.

November 17. Chiang Kai-shek (Chinese Generalissimo) broadcast to N.Y. Herald Tribune Forum - Chinese war aims.

November 17. Sumner Welles. N.Y. Herald Tribune Forum - security immediately after the war and later.

November 29. Winston Churchill, broadcast, London, - conclusion of war in Europe and Asia.

December 1-2. House of Commons, London - Debate on post-war reconstruction concluded by statement of Anthony Eden.

December 5. Eduard Benes (President of Czechoslovakia) Manchester University - plans for armistice and peace.

1943

January 7. Franklin D. Roosevelt (United States President) Message to Congress, Washington - the United Nations' treatment of the enemy.

January 10. Herbert Morrison, Newcastle - British Commonwealth and collective security.

January 16. Francis B. Sayre (Special Assistant to the United States Secretary of State), Y.M.C.A. Convention, New Haven - plans for a durable peace.

January 19. Richard Law (Parliamentary Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs). Royal Empire Society, London - role of British Commonwealth; collective security.

January 29. H.J. Van Mook (Netherlands Minister for Colonies) United Nations Forum, Washington - plan for world security union.

February 12. Frank Knox (United States Secretary of the Navy), Springfield, Illinois - United States military power after the war.