

Q-694 Whereabouts is your billet?

A-694 On Barber street, in the Camp.

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE:

Q-695 Do you recognize this map, exhibit "I"?

A-695 Yes, sir. Here (indicating) is the Sergeants' Mess, and here (indicating) is the road coming down to the main gate.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q-696 Where is your billet from the main gate?

A-696 Right ther (indicating).

BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q-697 That is Park street?

A-697 Barber street, sir.

Q-698 That is Highway No. 68, is it?

A-698 Yes, sir.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q-699 Do you remember October 31st?

A-699 Yes, sir.

Q-700 Were you expecting Brandon over to see you that night?

A-700 Yes, sir; he was supposed to come up that night.

THE JUDGE ADVOCATE: You are leading quite a bit.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q-701 What was he coming for?

A-701 We were to have a game of cards.

Q-702 What else?

A-702 A lunch afterwards.

Q-703 What sort of a lunch?

A-703 Sandwiches.

Q-704 Where were you getting them?

A-704 Brandon was to bring them up.

Q-705 Where was he getting them from?

A-705 We buy stuff in the Company's stores.

Q-706 Did you take any apples with you, when leaving your evening meal?