

The accused had a hold on ^{the} me only for an instant. In the process of placing himself in front of me my husband pulled me back.

R. P. 83 (3)

Complied with.

R. Carlsen

At 1800 hrs the Court adjourns until 0930 hrs. on 23 Dec 79. On the 23 Dec 79 at 0930 hrs the Court reassembles pursuant to adjournment pursuant to same members as on 22 Dec 79. The trial is proceeded with.

M. 1111 L/Cpt. Dickens, C.M. & Cdn. L/Ct Provost Coy. having amended some states:

At 1330 hrs 2 Dec 79, In Company with R/Cpt. Dickens, S, and L/Cpt. Cayenta, H, and R/Cpt. Woods, F. H., I was instructed by Ardenly Sgt. to go to N.A.A.F.S. in Ghent. We went to N.A.A.F.S. and on arriving there entered the bar. On information received we went back stairs where two soldiers were pointed out to us by a waiter in the N.A.A.F.S. bar. One of the two soldiers was the accused. I told the two soldiers that there had been some trouble across the street and asked them to come across to the Cafe' with us. The accused said "apparently the trouble is over two drinks we had and had not paid for." As we left the N.A.A.F.S. and started across the street. Mr. and Mrs. R. Somerville came out of the Cafe' and started across the street to meet us. Mrs. R. Somerville pointed at the accused and said "that's him." All of us then went into the Cafe'. We then took the two soldiers to N.A.A.F.S. for questioning.