

III. POLITICS

Carleton Library Series, General Editor M. Gnarowski, McClelland & Stewart Ltd.

Titles in the series are drawn from the fields of Canadian politics, law, economics, history, sociology, anthropology and journalism. Includes reprints and original contemporary works.

$550.00

110 volumes

Canadian Studies in History and Government, General Editor G.S. French, University of Toronto Press.

Series of original studies by contemporary Canadian scholars sponsored by the Social Science Research Council of Canada.

$140.00

15 volumes

Canadian Government Series, Editor C.B. Macpherson, University of Toronto Press.

Volumes in this series are intended to describe Canadian Federal and Provincial government as well as to relate the government of Canada to political institutions in other countries.

$330.00

20 volumes

Studies in the Structure of Power: Decision Making in Canada, Editor J. Meisel, University of Toronto Press.

Contemporary studies by leading Canadian political scientists on major issues in Canadian politics.

$81.00

7 volumes

Canadian Public Administration Series, McGill-Queen's University Press. Editor, J.E. Hodgetts.

Collection of contemporary issues and problems in Canadian public administration.

$28.00 (Paper)

$70.00 (Cloth)

6 volumes