

Enoch Walked with God

sent by Paul to the Christians at Colossae : "Ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." Repeat them again and again, whisper them a thousand times a day, if need be, wrap them about you as a mantle, hurl them at temptation, rest in them, believe in them, and triumph is yours. They are an all-sufficient answer to the worst that satan can do or suggest.

This victory, which results from walking with God, is a persistent one, lasting clear down to the swelling of the Jordan, "even unto old age I am he, and even to hoar hairs will I carry you." "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil ; for thou art with me." Walking with God through the valley of the shadow of death is the certain outcome of a life that is hid with Christ in God.

At the close of a hard fought day on a distant battlefield a soldier lay dying. The Red Cross nurse as she passed heard him shout, "Here !" Thinking she was called, she stopped, and stooping down asked what she could do. Lifting his feeble hand with all his remaining strength, he whispered, "Hush, they are calling the roll in heaven, and I am answering to my name." Bending still lower, she again heard him whisper, "Here !" and his soul went out to meet its God.
