

Evangelical Magazine, from its commencement in 1793 to 1869, 77 vols, 8vo, half calf; MANY HUNDREDS OF FINE PORTRAITS OF CELEBRATED NONCONFORMIST MINISTERS; a sound, scarce and valuable set of books. 30.00.

———— Another set, from its commencement in 1793 to 1817, 26 vols, half calf, in 25 vols, containing about 200 fine old portraits, and in sound condition, 10.00.

There are numerous Dissenting seminaries of learning in which this fine series should most assuredly find a safe resting-place and be preserved for future generations. It was commenced at a time when, to be a Dissenter was almost to be a criminal, and abounds with the most reliable information in theology, biography, church history, and the history, position and prospects of Christianity in all parts of the world for nearly one hundred years, and is not obtainable from any other source. There are some SIX OR EIGHT HUNDRED ENGRAVED PORTRAITS OF NONCONFORMIST MINISTERS WHOSE NAMES ARE HOUSEHOLD WORDS, AND WHOSE MEMORY WILL BE HELD IN EVERLASTING REMEMBRANCE.

Gentleman's Magazine, COMPLETE, from its commencement in 1731 to Dec. 1813; many hundred portraits and other engravings of old English and parochial and national antiquities; has a book-plate of the Hon. GEORGE AGAR ELLIS in each volume, and in some volumes will be found MS. notes by EDMUND MALONE (who died in 1813), the well known Shakespear an commentator, to whom the set formerly belonged. 117 vols, full calf gilt, yellow edges, including 3 index and correspondence vols, the cover of 1 vol broken in transit, but not otherwise injured; a fine and uniform set. 65.00.

A most valuable book of reference for all subjects appertaining to local history, historical events, literature, biography, family history, American affairs; full list of births, marriages and deaths for upwards of eighty years. Mr. Allibone, in writing of CAVE, the founder, well says, "It should be in the library of every student of English literature and political history." DR. JOHNSON, in the commencement of his literary career, drew his chief means of support from his contributions to the 'Gentleman's Magazine.' In 1778 JOHN NICHOLS obtained a share in the magazine, and rendered it more valuable than at any period of its former history. EDMUND BURKE entitled it one of the most chaste and instructive miscellanies of the age—an opinion corroborated by DR. WARTON and EDWARD GIBBON, the latter of whom urged Nichols to make a selection for future reference from its overflowing pages. RICHARD GOUGH (see his Topography in this catalogue) was for many years a constant contributor.

Foxe (John) Acts and Monuments of matters most special and memorable, happening in the Church, with an universal history of the same, by MAISTER JOHN FOXE. The 1596-7 FOLIO BLACK LETTER EDITION in one very thick vol, bound in oak covered with leather, the title and introduction wanting, and commences with book 1 Christ Our Saviour, etc., page 27, and the last page of index supplied in MSS. It has the 2nd title. Very thick folio, calf, 1497 pages. 12 50.

———— Another and earlier (1583) edition. Wants first title and 3 preliminary leaves, the index, also a few leaves at the end imperfect, but not beyond redemption. A very desirable and fine thick folio volume of 2,150 pages. In the original oak binding covered with stamped leather, neatly repaired, with seven brass bosses, has the 2nd title and the interior of the volume, including the large and fine woodcuts is in fine preservation. Black Letter. 10.00.

———— 2nd vol of same edition. Commencing at page 731, and terminating at page 1907, consequently wants title, also the last few leaves and index. At page 1113 of this volume will be found the very LARGE and SCARCE WOODCUT OF WINDSOR CASTLE which is wanting in nearly all the early copies of FOXE extant. Black Letter. Folio, half calf, 3.00.
