

How to Succeed on the Farm!

MONEY IN POCKET.

THE WILLIAM WELD CO. (LIMITED), LONDON:

DEAR SIR, I believe the FARMER'S ADVOCATE contains more reliable information pertaining to all the branches of agriculture than any other journal published in Canada, and no one can thoughtfully read it for one year without being money in pocket by doing so. ROBT. McEWEN. Middlesex Co., Ont., Dec. 26th, 1898.

Every farmer desires to succeed, and he may do so by applying principles and methods upon which success depends in all branches of farm work. It is not a matter of luck nor waiting for dead men's shoes. During 33 years past the FARMER'S ADVOCATE has made an honest effort to promote this object, and we are encouraged every year by the testimonies of thousands of farmers that have been helped to prosperity by it. We have the best of reasons for knowing that we will aid more farmers next year than ever before, and in better and more practical ways, we believe.

A NEW DRESS.—Among the many improvements in the FARMER'S ADVOCATE for 1899 is the complete new dress of type, which adds greatly to its handsome appearance.
