THE SPICE OF LIFE.

Be on earth what good people hope to be in heaven.

If a thousand plans fail, be not disheartened. As long as your purposes are right you have not failed.

Do not believe that all greatness and heroism are in the past. Learn to discover princes, prophets, heroes and saints among the people about you. Be assured they are there.

The Professor—"Humph! Dear me! I gave that young man two courses on the cultivation of the memory and he's gone away and forgotten to pay me, and I can't for the life of me remember the fellow's name."

When on a visit to the Dominion Exhibition, it will pay you to investigate the agricultural possibilities of the Lower Fraser Valley. There is no better way of doing this than by calling on Mr. T. R. Preston. He is familiar with the country, and will certainly be able and willing to render you all possible assistance in looking over this excellent farming district. He also publishes a real-estate bulletin. Send for it.

One of the infielders had made an error. The rosy-cheeked girl in the grandstand turned to the young man at her side. "George," she said. George instinctively braced himself to meet the question he foresaw as to what had happened and what all the fuss was about.

"Well?" he said.
 "Why don't they put a wooden Indian cigar sign on third in place of that moon-faced duffer with the split cipher running gear and the glass arm? That fellow couldn't stop a toy balloon if it was lobbed right into his flippers."

A lady who complained to her milkman of the quality of milk he sold her received the following explanation:

"You see, mum, they don't get enough grass feed this time o' year. Why, them cows o' mine are just as sorry about it as I am. I often see 'em cryin'—regular cryin', mum—because they feel as how their milk don't do 'em credit. Don't you believe it, mum?"

"Oh, yes, I believe it," responded the customer; "but I wish in future you'd see that they don't drop their tears into our can."

Cultivate ideal friendships, and gather into an intimate circle all your acquaintances who are hungering for truth and right. Remember that heaven itself can be nothing but the intimacy of pure and noble souls.

Do not shrink from any useful or kindly act, however hard or repellant it may be. The worth of acts is measured by the spirit in which they are performed.

If the world despise you because you do not follow its ways, pay no heed to it. But be sure your way is right.

The tourist left the train at every station, and went ahead to the baggage car to ask if his trunk was safe.

"Are you quite sure," he asked the baggage officer for the sixth time, "that my trunk is safe?"

"Bogorra, I wish the Lord had made ye an elephant instead of an ass," was the exasperated reply, "an' then you'd always have your trunk in front of you."

"A negro just naturally loves a watermelon," said Representative Johnson, of South Carolina, while speaking of the melon and peach crop. "Strange, too, that when a policeman sees a negro with a melon at an unseasonable hour he has it right down that that gentleman stole the melon. I heard a story about a policeman who met a negro in the early morning hours, and he had a big melon on his shoulder. The officer eyed the man of color and the melon, and said:

"I see you have a melon there."
 "Yes, sah," answered the negro. "I've got er melon, but I've fixed fer you, sah," and pulling out a paper he handed it to the officer, who read:

"The bearer of this is O. K. He paid me ten cents for the melon, and he is a pillar in the church. James Elder."

"You are fixed," commented the policeman.

"Dat's what I 'lowed," answered the negro, and he moved on.

HAVE YOU A BAD LEG

With Wounds that discharge or otherwise, perhaps surrounded with inflammation and swollen that when you press your finger on the inflamed part it leaves the impression? If so, under the skin you have poison that defies all the remedies you have tried, which, if not extracted, you never can recover, but go on suffering till death releases you. Perhaps your knees are swollen, the joints being ulcerated, the same with the ankles, round which the skin may be discolored, or there may be wounds; the disease, if allowed to continue, will deprive you of the power to walk. You may have attended various hospitals and had medical advice and been told your case is hopeless, or advised to submit to amputation; but do not, for I can cure you. I don't say perhaps, but I will. Because others have failed, it is no reason I should. Send at once to the Drug Stores for ALBERTS' Grasshopper Ointment and Pills, which is a certain remedy for the cure of Bad Legs, Housemaids' Knees, Ulcerated Joints, Carbuncles, Poisoned Hands, Abscesses, Corns and Bunions.
