

pay a sum not exceeding twenty shillings nor less than five shillings for each hundred pounds of such uninspected Fish.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said Inspectors shall respectively be paid for inspecting, culling, and branding each and every cask of Fish as directed by this Act, at and after the following rates, viz: for each barrel, when the quantity inspected for any individual at any one time does not exceed one hundred barrels, the sum of sixpence per barrel, and when the quantity inspected for any individual at any one time shall exceed one hundred barrels, five pence per barrel, and for tierces and half-barrels in the like proportion; the said charge for inspecting, culling, and branding to be paid by the person or persons who shall employ such Inspector: and where any such Inspector shall be required to travel any distance not exceeding two miles from his usual place of residence for the purpose of inspecting any Fish, he shall be entitled to receive, in addition to the charge for inspection, six pence per mile for every mile he shall so travel, exceeding the said two miles; the same to be paid by the person employing such Inspector.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Inspector shall brand any insufficient or defective cask, or any cask the contents of which he has not inspected and culled according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, or if he shall permit any other person or persons to use his brand or brands in violation or evasion thereof, such Inspector and the person or persons so offending, shall each severally forfeit and pay for every cask so branded, not less than five shillings nor more than twenty shillings, and such Inspector shall further be liable to be removed from Office; and if any Inspector when called upon to perform the duties of his Office shall neglect or refuse so to do, without good and sufficient reason, he shall forfeit and pay for each and every offence the sum of ten shillings, and further be liable to be removed from Office.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the person or persons employing any Inspector, shall neglect or refuse to furnish such assistance as may be necessary to enable the said Inspector to weigh and pack at least twenty barrels of Fish per day, it shall and may be lawful for the said Inspector to employ such persons as he may require to weigh and pack such Fish, for which he shall be entitled to receive from the person or persons who shall employ him, over and above the charge for inspection, the sum of five pence per barrel for any quantity under one hundred barrels, and where the quantity shall exceed one hundred barrels, four pence per barrel.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any pickled Fish as aforesaid shall be put on board any Boat, Vessel, or Carriage of conveyance, with intent to sell or export the same contrary to the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace in the same County or City and County, upon information given him, to issue his Warrant to the Sheriff or his Deputy, or to any Constable of the Town or Parish in which such Boat, Vessel or Carriage of conveyance may be, requiring them respectively to detain such boat, vessel or carriage of conveyance as long as may be necessary, and to seize and secure said Fish, and carry the same to one of the nearest Inspectors, and such Inspector is hereby required to open and inspect, and to cull, pack, and brand the same as is before provided by this Act, and to detain the same until the expense and charges of seizure, inspection, packing, and all other charges arising from such seizure shall be paid; and further the owner or person claiming such Fish shall be liable to and forfeit the sum of five shillings for every cask of Fish so seized, and it shall be the duty of every person, when required, to give his necessary aid to the Officer having such Warrant as aforesaid, on pain of forfeiting twenty shillings for his refusal.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall sell
