The Pope on Temperance.
 The Third Plenary Council of Roman Catholic Prelates in the United States held at Baltimore, made a strong declaration deploring the terrible evils of intemperance. This declaration was communicated to His Holiness, Pope Leo XIII, who replied thereto, in a letter to Archbishop John Ireland of St. Paul, Minnesota, in which he said:—
 "It is well known to us how ruinous, how deplorable is the injury both to faith and to morals that is to be feared from intemperance in drink. Nor can we sufficiently praise the prelates of the United States, who recently, in the Plenary Council of Baltimore, with weightiest words, condemned this abuse declaring it to be a perpetual incentive to sin and a fruitful root of all evils, plunging the families of the intemperate into the direst ruin, and drawing numberless souls down to everlasting perdition."
 Archbishop John Ireland, above referred to, who is one of the most widely known and highly esteemed prelates of the Roman Catholic Church, said: "We thought we meant business years ago in this war, but I hope God will forgive us for our weakness, for we went into the battlefield without sufficient resolution. We labored under the fatal mistake that we could argue out the question with the rumsellers. We imagined that there was some power in moral suasion, that when we would show them the evils of their ways they would abandon the traffic. We have seen that there is no hope of improving in any shape or form the liquor traffic. There is nothing now to be done but to wipe it out completely."

The Cider Question.
 It is not true that the prohibition mentioned in the plebiscite would interfere with the manufacture of sweet cider, cider vinegar, or cider preserved without fermentation. This was made very clear in the debate on the Plebiscite Bill in the House of Commons. On explaining the word "cider" as used in the Bill the Minister of Agriculture said, "The word 'cider' means apple juice which, having been treated in manufacture, has become an intoxicating drink, and it does not mean apple juice in its raw state."

WILL I SUICIDE?
 While There's Life and Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure There's Hope.
 I had suffered so many years from catarrh that I don't know that I will ever get it out of my remembrance. One day, when I took one of the endless prescriptions given me by the medical man to a druggist, I asked him bluntly, "Will this cure me, or will it not? Or will it be like the rest?" I was nearly desperate, I can tell you. The druggist said:—"No, nothing can cure catarrh. I have it myself until I often think of suicide. I take opium usually to sleep it off." I took the prescription away unfilled and went home, thinking of what the druggist had said about suicide, and I was bitterly disheartened. I have that prescription yet. One day my deliverance came. A lady told me she had suffered just as I had, and was nearly insane, and that a remedy known as Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure had actually cured her. I had read a lot about Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure, but I felt toward it as I did toward other medicines; had no faith. I tried it as a last resort. I used two boxes of Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure, and found it a complete cure.
