"Cure-Alls" Didn't Cure

Only a Kidney Specific of the South American Kidney Cure can ever hope to cope with insidious kidney diseases in all its forms.

For two years I was greatly troubled with an affection of the kidneys—frequently unfitting me for work. I tried many patent medicines and "cure-alls," without getting any relief, for I had intense pain almost constantly. South American Kidney Cure was recommended to me. A few hours after commencing its use I got great relief.
Four bottles cured. It is worth its weight in gold.—Frank S. Emerick, Alvinston, Ont. 38

—CURTAINS ABLAZE.—On Wednesday afternoon, after the Reporter had gone to press, we learned that an incident blaze had occurred at the residence of Dr. J. F. Purvis. Miss Purvis, a sister, to light a lamp in her bedroom, struck a match. The sulphur on the lucifer flew off and fell into the folds of the lace curtain about the window, which immediately after became a mass of flame. Prompt measures were used to stamp out the fire, but not before the other articles in the room were badly scorched.

—MEDAL CONTEST.—The annual contest for the award of a silver medal took place on Friday evening in the Methodist church. The event this year was equally up to the past years' events, as the church was comfortably filled, the available space in the aisles being filled with chairs. The W.C.T.U. which had the affair in hand spared no pains in making it one of the most successful gatherings that have been held this season. The six young ladies who took part, and who are all of the Model class of 1902, were:— Misses Jennie Percival, Alice Thompkins, Mabel Karley, Grace McConkey, Stella Bolton and Mamie Stillwell.
The essays were above the average, all the selections being rendered with much eloquent talent and credit to all who took part. The judges, Messrs.
W. G. Parish, F. C. Anderson and Mrs.
T. C. Kendrick, at the conclusion of the contest, they withdrew and their decision was in favor of Miss Grace McConkey. Miss M. E. Stone on behalf of the W.C.T.U., made the presentation accompanied by a neat and wellworded address to the successful competitor. Rev. G. N. Simmons, who occupied the chair, made a very acceptable chairman, filling his difficult task in a highly pleasing way. The programme was interspersed with music, and solos were rendered by Miss Cora Wilkie and Miss Ethel Slack, which greatly added to the pleasure of the evening.
At the conclusion of the contest, the tea which is given annually to the students of the Model school, was partaken of in the Sabbath school of the church, during which short addresses were given by Messrs. W. Johnson, N. L.
Massey and C. R. McIntosh. The meeting closed after the pledge roll had been circulated to those present as one of the best and successful gatherings that come to all far a part.

Running a newspaper is just like running a hotel only different. When a man goes into a hotel and finds something on the table which does not suit him he does not get up and raise his with the landlord and tell him to stop his darn old hotel. Well hardly. He sets that dish aside and wades into some of the many dishes that do suit him.
It is different with some newspaper readers. They find an article occasionally that does not suit them exactly and, without stopping to think that it may please hundreds of other readers, make a grandstand play of their supreme assnity and hasten over to stop their paper.
