S. STEPHENSON, — Proprietor.

MR. STEPHENSON'S "MAIDEN SPEECH."

It may incidentally be mentioned that that was Mr. Stephenson's "maiden speech" and it was probably the most remarkable one ever heard in the House. All our representatives make "maiden speeches," that is, except Mr. Pardo. He has not made his yet, but then there is no hurry. To be at his best a member must have time to prepare himself. Mr. Pardo has only had seven years and should not be hurried. There is another session yet. But Mr. Stephenson's maiden effort was impromptu. He had prepared no flowery oration such as members usually do when they nervously try to bud into parliamentary leaders. Of course, he had an idea of what he was going to say. There again he differed with his leader, Mr. Tarte. Mr. Tarte didn't know. If he had, probably Mr. Stephenson's speech would never have been made. He would have got what he wanted without it.

But Mr. Stephenson really showed good judgment in the course he took. Had he simply threatened to bolt in parliament and vote against the administration the government would likely have told him to go ahead. They could spare him and still have over half a hundred majority. But he threatened to resign. That was altogether different. That would throw open a constituency. The ministry would have to fight it under very disadvantageous circumstances. The result would probably be a big party disaster. It would have its effect all over the country, and political leaders are shrewd enough to know that party dissensions can lead in the end to but one thing — overthrow. Thus when Mr. Stephenson made his demands in the way he did he soon got what he wanted.

BRITISH JUDICIAL COMMITTEE TO BE REMODELED.

The British government proposes to reorganize the judicial committee of the privy council in order that it may more effectively deal with matters pertaining to the colonies. Apparently it is the intention of the imperial government to assemble a commission on which the colonies are to be represented to draft a sort of constitution, or rather to outline the scope of the duties of the judicial committee on broader lines, in view of the confederation of the Australian colonies and probable confederation in the future of the South African colonies. It is a movement of much importance to the colonies because the work of the committee in connection with Canadian affairs in the past has not been altogether satisfactory.

Canada has been asked to nominate a representative to the commission, and as one of the most distinguished authorities on Canadian constitutional law, Hon. David Mills will likely be chosen to go to England for that purpose, though the selection has not yet been made. The special study which the honorable gentleman has made of the needs of Canada in connection with the work of such a judicial tribunal will render his assistance of great value to the empire in the accomplishment of an undertaking so important to the future of the colonial dependencies.

HOW THE NATION'S MONEY GOES.

On Friday, on the motion to go into Supply, Urish Wilson showed that the immigrants to Canada in 1899 cost her six times as much as the immigrants cost in the United States, and in 1900 over ten times more than the United States paid for them, and this paid by a people eleven times smaller. Total expenditure, 1897 to 1900, inclusive, $1,524,074. Total expenditure, 1892 to 1900, inclusive, 876,369. Excess of expenditure under a Liberal government in five years over the expenditure for the same period by the Conservative government $647,704. Preston's expenditure and salary may be taken as a sample: Salary, $3,000; living expenses, $673.10; travelling expenses, $796.64; insurance, $11.43; parliamentary papers and books, $9.10; cabs, $31.15; cablegrams, $23.73; postage and telegrams, $56.86; travel to Canada and return, $205; small sums, $18.20. Total cost of Preston for the year, $4,825.21.

Nobody has yet sprung the remark on the public that Mr. Stephenson's remarks were very Tarte.

The Toronto World thinks the members at Ottawa will vote themselves an increased sessional indemnity of $500. If the electors had the say there would probably be a cut in the present allowance to that extent.

The Montreal Witness (Liberal) attacks Premier Ross on the census circular incident in the Ontario Legislature. "Mr. Ross," it says, "was surely very unhappy in his treatment of this matter. Surely it is of some importance to a government that not

When the red is lacking, life is weak, the spirits are weak, the body is weak.

Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil puts red in the blood and life in the body.

its party, we hope, but some injudicious members of it, should be guilty of trying to persuade or tempt the census enumerators to perjure themselves, and surely if some of the enumerators who were strong party men were tempted to do so, the result would be deplorable. If a government treats such affairs as this one as matter of no consequence, it is certainly losing its moral perception, and will soon forfeit the confidence of right thinking people."

Maude Gonne, sometimes called Ireland's Joan of Arc, says that nothing has ever been accomplished by talk. Then why doesn't she shut up. Anybody might know that the ravings of a notoriety-seeking female would not help Ireland any.

Before leaving England for Australia, Hon. William Mulock dropped 50 sovereigns in a hansom cab, or was conferred of that sum by a thief. He conferred with a number of leading men on questions connected with cables and land telegraphs, and had the honor of dining with the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, on which occasion he met a number of distinguished public men. — Hamilton Times.

Who does he suspect? Joe Chamberlain or some of the other leading men he conferred with?

TARTE'S TEMPERANCE PRINCIPLES.

Ottawa Citizen.

The prohibitionists will be thrilled with pleasure when they hear that Mr. Tarte declined to spend public money to get a schooner over the bar.

A DOG'S COMPLAINT.

Will some one kindly pick me up? I need it, if you please! My little mistress seems to think. Pet dogs were made to squeeze.

I try to bear it patiently—Of course, I ought to know The reason I am always choked Is that she loves me so! —St. Nicholas.

RASH MAN.

"No, I don't like Dr. Thirdly," said Mrs. Kilduff, emphatically.

"What has he done?" asked Mrs. Tenopot.

"Well, he asked all the ladies in the congregation to remove their hats, and it was Easter Sunday, mind you."
