Those in favor of a change in the system of electing aldermen where by they will be returned from the city generally instead of from the various wards are using the experience of the city of Chatham as an argument in favor of their case. The delegation that was here the other day looking over the market building declared explicitly that the change had been beneficial in Chatham, and that it had resulted in a better class of men being elected to the council. They averred that the people of Chatham were well satisfied with the operation of the system, and would on no account return to the old order of things when the wards returned men calculated to serve the ward only, without regard to the needs of the city at large. — Woodstock Express.

ELECTION CARD

ELECTORS, CITY OF CHATHAM

Ladies and Gentlemen—

I respectfully solicit your vote and influence for Alderman for 1905.

Sincerely yours,

ARTHUR J. DUNN.

Here is
The Store

To get unusual Ulsters: plenty of stores where you can get an Ulster, a few where you can get a good quality. Here you can get a good quality, and what is not so easily got, a coat that looks as if it was your own, none of the common sort. Here you get unusual styles, unusual goods and the best. It would pay many who waste their money on the stereotyped sort to get ours. They'd save money and time.
