Always welcome—cash subscriptions.

The crops throughout the County are looking well.

The canker worm and the potato bug are busy at work.

Rev. A. Cohoon preached on Home

Missions in the Baptist church last Sunday morning.

A new awning placed in front of the Wolfville Bookstore adds very much to its appearance and the comfort of the occupants and customers.

The people of Bridgetown are making preparations for a grand celebration on Dominion Day. The grand driving park will be opened, and a good programme of sports provided.

A number of Wolfville's music loving people went to Halifax last Thursday evening to hear Sousa's Band. They expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the entertainment.

The game of quoits is becoming quite popular in Wolfville. Nearly every afternoon or evening a quartette of gentle-men may be seen enjoying this pleasant and healthful pastime on the school ground.

The Band played out for the first time this season on Wednesday evening last. Quite a crowd assembled at the Campus, and were rewarded by hearing the boys discourse a number of sweet selections.

We hope the agitation for a watering cart is not to end in talk. At the present time, we do not know of anything that our town needs more, and we hope the matter will not be further delayed.

Dry weather and dust is now in season.

The Methodist Camp Meeting association are having a large lodging house erected in their grove at Berwick. They anticipate immense gatherings during the week of services, which will be early

It is said that the prospects for the Bear River cherry crops are excellent.

The Church of England missionary conference is to take place at Truro on the 24th and 25th.

Rev. D. J. Fraser exchanged pulpits last Sunday morning with Rev. William Brown, of Lower Horton.

Saturday excursion return tickets, at one first-class fare, are now issued by the Dominion Atlantic railway, good to return the following Monday.

The new mail service between Ayle-ford and Weston is highly appreciated.

A like service on Mondays and Thursdays from Berwick to Weston is very desirable.

The carpenters began operations on Mr J. L. Franklin's new store yesterday.

Mr F. W. Woodworth is in charge, and with his customary "hustle" will push the work along rapidly to completion.

Mr Fred Clarke, of Berwick, has the contract for building the new station at Annapolis. It will be situated at the end of Robaker street and will be 40x20 in size. Work was commenced on Monday.

Owing to an error the name of Miss Faye M. Caldwell was omitted from the list of Acadia's graduates who delivered essays. Miss Caldwell's subject was:

"The Revolutionary Effects of Speculative Thought."

The citizens of Wolfville will be glad to learn that the band-stand is to be moved to a good location and fitted up.

We have missed the music of the band under favorable circumstances soon.

A new sign with the legend, "Office of the Acadia Orchardist," inscribed thereon, has lately been placed in position over the door of its Wolfville office.

Our little contemporary believes in letting what light it has shine brightly.

Acadia, has been graduated at Newton

Theological Institution, and has accepted a pastorate at West Springfield, Mass.

He was formerly pastor at Cambridge,

Kings Co.

Prof. E. E. Faville, of the Nova Scotia

School of Horticulture, left on Thursday last for Cape Breton, where he will address a number of lectures. He will also speak at other points in the eastern part of the Province before his return.

We learn that Rev. M. P. Freeman is about to remove to Billtown and become pastor of the Baptist church in that place.

Mr Freeman, during his residence in Wolfville, has won general esteem. Billown will have a good man for its minister.

Rev. W. Dawson, Canard, has received a most unanimous call from Polly congregation, Londonderry. The call is said to be the most unanimous and cordial ever given by this congregation.

Mr Dawson has labored during the past twelve years at Canard.

Mr Howard White, of the Levis (Que.)

agency of the Peoples' Bank of Halifax, while returning from his vacation which he spent in the Valley, paid a brief visit to Mr G. W. Munro, of this town.
