

Local News and Personal Items

H. W. Annett was in Bristol for the week-end.

G. H. Gray of Caribou was a guest of A. Plummer this week.

A car of B. C. Fir is just been received by Hartland Mfg. Co. Ltd.

Miss Hilda Boyer left last Thursday for a few weeks visit in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hayward spent the week-end with friends at Bristol.

Belyas & Estabrooks flour mill will be shut down from July 15 to the end of the month.

Mrs. Harry Brown of Patten has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McLaughlin.

Samford Rogers of Fort Fairfield died on Wednesday of last week. He formerly lived at Bristol.

Mrs. Robert Strain of Woodstock was a guest of her cousin, Miss Marion W. Stevens, on Thursday.

The members of the Reformed Baptist Sunday school and church enjoyed a pleasant picnic on the Town Green on Tuesday.

Miss Sara MacMuffin returned to her duties at the St. John Public Hospital on Monday, after a few weeks' vacation spent at her home here.

Dr. King and A. A. Rideout motored to Fredericton on Monday, and returning on Tuesday where accompanied by Mrs. King and two children.

For Sale—One registered Holstein bull one year old, one registered Holstein cow three years old with twin calves. Apply to Ben Good, Centreville, N. B.

Dr. F. W. Mitchell, the well known Houlton specialist, was here on Sunday and performed a nasal operation for Mrs. Bruce Berry, and an aural operation on a child of Allen Barter's.

Mrs. J. A. Nevins has just 20 trimmed hats left and these will be sold at just half price. These are all up-to-date models that must be sold at once to clear the stock. See them at F. F. Plummer's store.

B. B. Dykeman has leased the corner store in Taylor's now occupied by J. T. G. Carr, and expects to take possession Aug. 15. Mr. Dykeman says he believes in a bigger and better Hartland and also in a bigger and better store.

P. S. Manston of Woodstock was in town on Monday.

Get water-glasses for preserving eggs at Estey & Curtis Co. Ltd.

Arthur Sedford of East Centreville was visiting friends here this week.

Men's summer pants, jumpers, overalls and underwear. Cheap at Carr's.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Clark were on a fishing trip to Miramichi last week.

Herbert and Evelyn Rogers of Upper Woodstock were visiting friends here on Tuesday.

There are several makes of Paris Green. Berger's is considered the best. You get this at Carr's.

Walter and Miss Marion Baker left on Friday for a visit of a month at their former home, Sawyerville, Que.

Houlton Business College which has been closed for the holidays will open its fall term in new and larger quarters. See advertisement.

Among the visitors from Mass Hill on Tuesday was William Hay, B. & A. station agent, who visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hay.

Rev. L. A. Farwick of Jacksonville, accompanied by his friend Rev. Mr. Bell from the lower part of the province was here on Tuesday.

J. R. Jones of Lakeville, who has been a subscriber to The Observer since its first issue, called on Thursday to secure the paper for another year.

An Ayreshire cow, five years old, purebred and an excellent milker, together with her heifer calf, 34 months old, will be sold at a right price. Horace Meen, Coldstream R.R. 1, Farmer's phone 10-42.

Earl Ross, son of Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Ross who has been teaching school in the West for some years is visiting his parents in this city. Mr. Ross is the principal of a school at Winnipeg and is now taking his vacation. —Fredericton Mail.

Pupil Nurses wanted for training in special hospital. Three year course, second year in a large general hospital. Graduates qualified for state registration and private and public health service. High school qualifications or an equivalent required. Address: Butler Hospital, Providence, R. I.

Arthur McLaughlin of Houlton was visiting his parents here on Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Moores of Woodstock has been visiting Miss Bee-trice Tompkins.

A second-hand road wagon, in good repair, is offered for sale by Rex L. Yeak, Hartland.

Harry Taylor, of the Bank of Montreal branch, his vacation, Que., is home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Hartland of Woodstock motored to guests of relatives here.

Miss Leila Cummings of Canterbury has been visiting her sister, Miss Belle Cummings of the Farmers' Store.

Rev. F. Brasier, rector of Ashland, Me., was a guest of Rev. N. P. Proulx last week. He was formerly rector of Grand Falls.

The Women's Institute will hold their annual picnic on the Town Green on Tuesday afternoon. Members may invite their husbands.

Teacher wanted for school District No. 3 (Somerville) Parish of Wakefield. Prefer a second class female teacher. Apply to Rex L. York, Hartland, N. B.

Mrs. James Reid and son Charlie left on Tuesday for their home in Toronto after several weeks visit with her mother, Mrs. Eliza Harmon at Peel.

Saturday, July 19, has been proclaimed a public holiday throughout the empire and will be known as Peace Day. All business will be suspended.

FOR SALE—Fast driving mare, seven years old, standard bred, not afraid of autos. Also buggy, harness and sleigh. For particulars apply to Observer, Hartland.

Mrs. Otis Shaw of Florenceville was here one day last week having come down to meet her daughter, Mrs. Fred Edler, expected to arrive that day from Youngstown, Alta.

Keith & Plummer Limited now have a large stock of granulated sugar and binder twine on which they are giving bargains, also a new stock of fence wire at a low price.

Wallace Noble of Lower Brighton died on Thursday from cancer. He was 42 years of age and leaves three small children as orphans, his wife having died, also of cancer, three years ago. His mother Mrs. David Noble, is afflicted with the same disease, and also has been suffering from pneumonia.

L. E. McFarland is agent for the Metallic Roofing Co. of Toronto and will be pleased to give quotations upon request. By ordering through a practical builder, such as Mr. McFarland, one secures much practical advice as to specifications and the exact quantity of roofing or finish required.

Wanted—Wardmaids, Kitchen girls, and dining-room girls. Wages sixteen dollars a month, board, room, laundry and free medical attendance in case of illness. Fare to St. John refunded after three months' service. Write or apply in person. The Matron, General Public Hospital, St. John, N. B.—5-3.

On Saturday Harold Beairto and Archie Barker of Lakeville were callers at The Observer office. Mr. Beairto has just returned from overseas service, while Mr. Barker is recently let loose from the Fisher Memorial Hospital after being the victim in a gasoline explosion, the mishap occurring a few weeks ago near Waterville.

The Church of England picnic on Friday was a success financially in spite of a heavy downpour of rain just as the sumptuous meal was served. The storm abated at six and the affair moved on finely. The sum of $350 was taken in and the net amount transferred to the building fund was $175. The rector and congregation want to express their sincere thanks to those of other congregations who so willingly and generously gave their aid and sympathy. Their good will will not soon be forgotten.

Major James Pringle, M. C. of Fredericton has engaged as sales manager with R. L. Phillips his automobile business in that city. Major Pringle was formerly well known along the river as the crack salesman for J. S. O'Neill & Son, and will put a good deal of pep into the motor trade. During the last three years he has been serving his King in France with distinction and glory. Mr. Phillips has just bought a new lot near Phoenix square, Fredericton, and will erect probably the most complete garage and general service station in the province.

Methodist appointments on the Hartland-Lindsay circuit are as follows: Sunday school 10:30 a.m., preaching service 11:15 a.m.; Hartland, prayer service at 10:30; Sunday school at 10:30. Preaching services at 7:30. Rev. H. Harrison, B.A., of Jacksonville will preach in the evening, and T. S. Crisp will fill the appointments at Jacksonville.

Rev. Leon H. Jewett, pastor of the Methodist church at Gagetown, preached on the Jacksonville circuit July 7 in exchange with Rev. H. Harrison and on the 14th he exchanged with Rev. F. A. Wightman of East Florenceville. Mr. Jewett is a son of the late Fred Jewett of Waterville, and, calling on friends in this vicinity, he was warmly greeted.

Dr. James Beairto of Lakeville has decided to retire from active work on account of failing eyesight and other maladies. It is his intention to sell his cozy house at Lakeville and remove west where his older sons are located. Dr. Beairto for years practiced in Hartland and has a host of friends here and throughout the county.

Outing Shoes

White Canvas Outing Shoes

in all sizes for Men, Women and Children. Also

Tan Canvas Shoes for Men and Boys

Men's and Boy's Balbriggan Underwear, Cotton Hose, and Sport Shirts

All these at very attractive prices.

F. F. PLUMER

Groceries

Dry Goods

Furniture

PREPARE for POTATO BUGS PREPARE for POTATO RUST PREPARE for HAYING

We can give you right prices on Paris Green Vitriol, Arsenate, etc. Full line of Scythes Stones, Hand Rakes, Forks, Warp, etc., at right prices.

C. R. DeWITT Everything Worth while in HARDWARE

SAVE YOUR MONEY!

By coming to the Farmers' Store at Bath for your

Paris Green, Sol-Arsate, Handy-Killer Vitriol, Groceries of all kinds, Flour

Buckwheat Meal, Feeds, etc.

Special Prices on FLOUR for This Week!

Bring us your Butter and Eggs and get top prices.

United Farmers of N. B., Ltd.

Bath Branch

J. D. Fulton, Manager

"You'll like the Flavor"

KING COLE TEA

Makes a Friend of Every User.

Perfectly packed in bright lead foil, and price marked on every package.

HAYING IS NEAR!!

We have a full line of

Frost & Wood Mowers, Rakes and Hay Loaders

ALSO

Famous Renfrew Standard Cream Separator

Kerosene Engines, Truck Scales

Hay Threshers

Be sure to get our prices and terms before closing a deal with any one else. Call and let us demonstrate the good points of our machinery. Place your orders early and avoid delays. A second hand Deering Mower, in good condition, is offered for sale for only $20.

All Repairs for Frost & Wood Machinery.

McQuarrie & Dickinson

End of Hartland Bridge—Farmers' Phone 11-3