and

pening of COATS.

g crowds heir cold

yles, prealues we extraor-1 elusive $50.00.

Showl Un-

ner

Black, thers

can see anything to do exhesy rain and fight flies. are a humane and tenderople is shown by the fact two classes are always welare even given some of the heir lovable attributes and y to produce a fire out of ed brush. A picnic withmen to build the fire and the surplus potato salad coast. Unmarried men ought after at picnics, as how to hang a hammock ow to disport themselves ne of the most pathetic ife is a picnic party comely of old maids who have se for a hammock than a man has for a set of mili-

would be more popular if held on high, dry ground, death chant of the coarse, nosquito could not be JENSEN'S LECTURE. n of $145.80 was realised Jensen's lecture at the re on Thursday last.

sm, Lumbago, Neural-Aches and Pains. For here.—jly22,tf

Our Volunteers

teered on Saturday last Their names are, a

Mat. Duggan, LaScie. Walter Lidstone, St. John's. Yesterday all the men in training attended Divine Service at their re The total number of enrolments to date is 4040.

Torbay Garden Party a big Success.

the annual garden party at Torbay, postponed from Wednesday last, was postponed from Wednesday last, run off yesterday and was the most successful event of its kind yet held at the historic settlement. Rt. Rev. Monsignor St. John and a large concourse of Torbay people attended as well as hundreds of city folk, including Rt. Rev. Mons. McDermett, Rev. Fr. Renouf and other clergy, a Rev. Fr. Renouf and other clergy, a give you the desired comfort.

Miss M. Butt and Mrs. T. Watts for st. John's; Fred. A. Clouter, Catalina; Lance-Corporal J. F. Barnes, St. John's; Privates M. W. Morrissey, Mr. Eli Martin, who came in from Harbor Grace Island a week or two ago very sick, is now slightly better and his friends are hopeful that he will soon be out of danger.

Miss M. Butt and Mrs. T. Watts for st. John's; Fred. A. Clouter, Catalina; Lance-Corporal J. F. Barnes, St. John's; Privates M. W. Morrissey, Mr. Eli Martin, who came in from Harbor Grace Island a week or two ago very sick, is now slightly better and his friends are hopeful that he will soon be out of danger. John Dwyer, Esq., M. H. A.; W. J. Higgins, Esq., M. H. A.; Councillor Vinnicombe and Chas. J. Ryan, Esq. Fr. St. John received the visitors and made the day as enjoyable as possible for them. The Presbytery grounds, the scene of the garden party, were profusely dressed with bunting. Teas and refreshments were provided and the ladies in charge of the various ister of Agriculture and Mines, receivtables did a brisk business. Football, races and other sports were also en- informing him of the death of his gaged in during the day. The proceeds of the affair were very substan- C. E. F., who was "killed in action" tial and will be devoted to church pur- on Sept. 7th, while fighting in France

As September 20th is the time allowed by law for the carrying of firearms, killing of game, etc., to-morrom midnight the shooting season will be ushered in for 1916. Many sportsmen are getting busy with dogs and guns and already several have left for their favorite hunting grounds. Some went out by this morning's train, others will be leaving on this evening's outgoing train. Judging from reports coming in from various sections of the coun-even on the nearby suburban barrens. ers Nellie M. and Lady St. John reported on last Monday off Cape Race, showed up there again yesterday af-

Astigmatism

Killed in Action.

Mr. George E. Turner, Deputy Mined official notification from Ottawa second son Alfred W., 12th Battalion Mr. Turner has four other sons with the colours, two with the Canadians and two with Ours. The eldest, Sergt. Shooting Season Opens Jack, has just recovered from wound received recently while fighting in Flanders and is now back in

Made Quick Passage.

The schr. Edith Marguerite, the new try partridge are none too plentiful, and left for this port.

but there is an abundance of rabbits, Capt. A. Kean is getting another new vessel built at Shelbourne, N.S., to be used as a foreign fish carrier. AGAIN REPORTED .- The schoon- She will be ready to be launched, it is said, next spring.

SUSU'S STORMY TRIP.-The S.S. BROKEN ARM.—Another message service. The Captain reports strong has been received stating that the na- N. .E gales with heavy sea and fog, ture of the wounds of Sergeant Ernest and it was without doubt the rough-Tessier, C. E. F., was a broken arm, est trip since this service was inausupposed to be caused through the gurated. The fishery at almost every supposed to be caused through the gurated. The fishery at almost every bursting of a shell. He is now at Birmingham Hospital where he was the unfavourable weather. The Susu brought a small freight and several brought a small freight a small freig

Hr. Grace Notes. Our Reatrning

The s.s. Neptune remained in Carbonear all last night and arrived here at 6 a.m. to-day. After taking on board a quantity of freight she sailed for Labrador.

The sad news was received here this week of the death at Ayr, Scotland, of Sergt. R. J. Kennedy, of the Canadian Expeditionary Force. Mr. Kennedy, who was a son of Capt. Terence Kennedy, of this town, leaves besides other relatives four little children—two boys and two girls, his wife having predeceased him by several years. His death was due to heart trouble.

Among the visitors to town this week were: John G. Munn, of the Jas. Baird Co., John Reddy, carpenter at Mount Cashel and his wife, Messrs.

Thomas and Louis Davis, Miss B. Watts, all of St. John's.

St. John's; W. A. Delaney, St. George's; Sylvester Madden, St. John's; Harold W. Matthews, St. John's; Joseph Stansford, Grate's Cove; Wilfred C. Parsons, Bay Rob-

While we were walking over the barrens a couple of miles from town on Wednesday morning enjoying the beauties of nature, all of a sudden it almost seemed as if we had walked into a German trench as ten of the feathered tribe, with language beyond on. Many of our sportsmen would like a similar experience on Wednes

Mr. A. L. Collis returned from his trip to the northward on Tuesday. He was north as far as LaScie and had most successful and enjoyable trip

Hr. Grace, Sept. 15, 1916.

The following is an extract from letter received by Mrs. E. A. Butler, of Sandy Point, from her brother, Sergeant J. V. Temple, who was one of the first in the Regiment to be wounded on July 1st:

"We have found rather a comfort-The schr. Edith Marguerite, the new purchase of Capt. A. Kean, has arrived at Lisbon with a cargo of codfish, shipped by her owners. The vessel, which is in command of Capt. W. We have found rather a comfort ped off to be present at the wedding. The bride looked charming, dressed in pussy willow silk and chiffon trimmed with pearls and real duchess lace, the shipped by her owners. The vessel, which is in command of Capt. W. Kean, is a fast sailer and made a quick run across the "herring pond." She has since loaded salt at Spain and left for this port.

Solution of Capt. W. It is a not real duchess lace, the latter having been given her by a wealthy female patient whom the bride nursed at the hospital in Chelshad been through Gallipoli, and was all faded, trousers smashed across the knee, legs from the knee down the knee was presented to her by the same patient, who wore both articles on her town weading day twenty-five years. the knee, legs from the knee down covered with mud, and all this crowned by an inverted dish cover or shrapnel helmet, and strapped to his waist a thundering big colt. It certainly boded ill for the Hun that day. I forgot to mention four bombs and two gas helmets, not to mention web equipment! Verily, the historian who says a soldier was invented to hang things on was right. Hope you may SUSUS STORMY TRIP.—The S.S. says a soldier was invented to hang things on was right. Hope you may 9 a.m. yesterday from the Fogo mail service. The Captain reports strong N. E gales with heavy sea and fog, and it was without doubt the roughest trip since this service was inaugurated. The fishery at almost every day—reminds me of Bainforth's cartoon of a chap in Frence looking up at an aeroplane.

Soldiers.

The soldiers returning in charge of Lieut. Charles St. Clair Strong are due Thursday's express; the first 15 are

2nd Lieut. Strong, St. John's; Cor poral Don. Moore, St. John's; Cor-Ivemy, St. John's; Alder N. Whiteway,

nounced medically unfit. Their name

erts; P. J. O'Keefe, St. John's; Chas.

lor. St. John's. Pte. Ellis, of St. John's and Pte Morrissey, of Bell Island, are both married men. The greater number of the men have seen active service in Gallipoli and France and bear up our ken, flew up all about our feet- on their bodies honourable scars ten fine plump partridge. Oh, no, we did not shoot, the close season being on. Many of our sportsmen would

St. John's Lady and American Doctor

UNITED IN WEDLOCK.

The marriage of Miss Selena Be Letter From the Front.

Letter From the Front. place at Douglass, Mass., U.S.A., on September 4th. Miss Moulton is the sister-in-law of Mr. W. H. Bartlett of this city, and her mother, Mrs. Mary Moulton and sister Miss Mabel ton, also a nurse, who left here three orange blossoms and her bouquet was rose and maiden-hair fern and she Lieut.-Col. Rendell, attended Divine service at St. Mary's Church at 11 a.m. yesterday. The preacher was the Rev. H. Uphill, Rector of the parish, who delivered an impressive and in-structive address on the Great War, referring to ex-Sergt. Rice, of the C.L.B., now prisoner of war in Germany, and asking the lads to write him letters. The return to the Armoury was made via Water St., Mc-Bride's, Church and Long's Hill, the battalion band discoursing excellent music along the way. On reaching the Armoury, Lt.-Col. Rendell and the Armoury, Lt.-Col. Rendell announced that in accordance with the suggestion made by their Chaplain, Rev. H. Uphill, a collection would be taken up among the lads and a Christmas present sent to ex-Sergt. Rice. A committee of four officers was appointed to receive donations. The prizes for the camp held at Topsail last month were won by the following: Best behaved boy A Co., Pte. J. Shears; Best behaved boy F Co., Pte. D. Ellis; Shooting medal won by Lance Sergt. Thos. Pottles; Cleanest and best kept camp, Corp. Downton, and best kept camp, Corp. Downton, tent No. 1, F Co.

At Cochrane St. Church

The Rev. N. M. Guy, M.A., was the preacher at the Cochrane St. Centenpreacher at the Cochrane St. Centennial Church yesterday morning, who, after addressing a few words of counsel to children present, delivered an earnest exhortation on the "Seasons of the Soul and the times of God's visitation." A splendid congregation assembled at the evening worship, when the Pastor, the Rev. Dr. Bond, delivered in chaste language one of his practical and heart searching serdelivered in chaste language one of his practical and heart searching sermons, on "Hope, the anchor of the soul." The learned doctor since taking up his work at this church is drawing very large congregations. The singing was hearty and the special music by the choir added much to the effectiveness of the service.

COAL SHIPMENT. - Since Saturday evening last four steamers arrived here with coal cargoes from North Sydney, namely, the Algonquin, Vik-ing, Jacobsen and Njord.

TRAIN HELD. UP.—Last night, as the Tor's Cove excursion train was passing the Goulds, the engineer observed a mare and foal with their legs caught in the trestle. The engine was immediately stopped, and after great difficulty the animals were extricated. The train was delayed out hour by the incident.

Shooting Season Opens Sept. 20th.

Ask us for anything you need for a Shooting Trip or a Trapping Venture. We can fill your orders.

FOR SMALL GAME HUNTERS.

We have many suggestions in Breech-loading Shot Guns, ranging in price from $5.75, and Rifles from $2.50 each; and a large stock of Ammunition loaded with Black Powder, Smokeless and Ballastite, and from No. 10 to BB Shot.

FOR BIG GAME CHASERS.

The following will appeal: Powerful Rifles of different calibre, Repeating Remington and Winchester; Bear, Lynx, Fox & Otter Traps, etc.

CAMP OUTFITTING.

Our reputation in this line is so well known that it is scarcely necessary to say we can fill any order down to the needs of the humblest woodsman and up to the requirements of the multi-millionaire.

Ayre & Sons, Ltd.

Ladies' RAGLANS

Grey and Fawn, with Belt and Military Collar, for $6.75.

These are a New Lot just opened, and are Exceptional Value at the price.

FINAL CHAPTER OF GREAT

Frank Daniels, the celebrated com dian who is known the world over, will appear in "Crooky" at the Nickel Theatre this evening. The story is by Pearl West, and the cast includes such popular artists as Evart Over- THERAPION ton, Harry Morey and Caroline Birch.

ning in New York: "The District At-SERIAL. torney" will be shown.

FREE TO ALL SUFFERERS

Squires, Minister of Justice, received tend to-day's performance. On Wed-nesday the popular picture now run-dead while at work near his home.

From Cape Race.

Special to Evening Telegram.

CAPE RACE, To-day
Wind E.N.E., light, weather cle preceded by fog. The steamer Blo hound passed in yesterday; the sch
Nellie M., Lady St. Johns and seve others are in sight all bound inwa
Bar. 29.60; Ther. 60.

SURVEYS RED INDIAN LAKE Mr. M. J. James went out on evening's express to make a surve Red Indian Lake for the A. N. D

ASK FOR MINARD'S LINIMENT TAKE NO OTHER.

Some men stand out from the crowd as Gulliver towered over the Lilliputians. By superior energy, activity and reserve strength they predominate. Feeling right within, is one of the fundamentals of physical and mental strength, and is largely the result of proper nourishment.

Grape-Nuts

is the logical food for thinkers and doers. It contants all the nutritious elements of whole wheat and malted barley, is partially predigested, and supplies an abundance of energizing nourishment without overworking the stomach. It also includes the vital mineral salts of the grain which are lacking in white bread and many other cereal foods. There's able help for many in Grape-Nuts.

"There's a Reason'

Made in Canada by Canadian Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Windsor, Ont.