

The always welcome gift—

A Kodak

The gift that keeps the picture story of every youthful interest—schooldays and sports, the winter and summer outings, the city boy's trip to the country and the country boy's trip to the city. In all these there is fun in the picture taking and afterwards both fun and satisfaction in possession.

Our Christmas stock of KODAKS and BROWNIES is particularly complete.

LET US SHOW YOU.

Allies Will Not Brook Further Delay -- Russian Soviets Want Peace -- Italian City Pillaged by Rioters--New Political Union in United Kingdom--Famine Stalking Through Central Empire.

CONDITIONS IN EUROPE.

LONDON, Dec. 5. A review of conditions in Central Europe was given to-day by Sir William Goode, who has just returned from a sojourn there. Czechoslovakia, Poland, Hungary and Austria are all confronted with great food shortages. In the case of Hungary he estimated the shortage before the next harvest would reach a million tons. He said he found half a million fatherless children in Serbia suffering from malnutrition and learned that thirty-nine per cent. of the population had tuberculosis.

SIGN OR FIGHT.

PARIS, Dec. 5. In a note drafted by the Supreme Council it is demanded that Germany sign the protocol providing for the carrying out of the peace terms, failing which the Allies will be set forth with the obligation to have recourse to military measures.

SOVIETS DESIRE PEACE.

LONDON, Dec. 5. Strong resolutions urging the making of peace with the Entente were adopted by the seventh congress of Russian Soviets meeting in Moscow at which Premier Lenin and War Minister Trotsky were present, according

GERMANS MOVE FROM RHINE-LAND.

BASLE, Dec. 6. An exodus of wealthy Germans from the right bank of the Rhine has begun in fear that military intervention is imminent, according to travellers arriving in Basle from Germany.

TIME NOT ARRIVED FOR PARTY DISCUSSION.

MANCHESTER, Dec. 6. Premier Lloyd George speaking before the Reform club to-day totally rejected the suggestion that the time had arrived for a renewal of party distinctions by Liberals and Conservatives.

MURDERER PUNISHED.

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 6. The Soviet authorities in Russia have punished by death the individual held responsible for the execution of the former Emperor and his family at Ekaterinburg, in June, 1918, when the Czechoslovaks were approaching that city, where the Imperial personages were then being held prisoners, according to a despatch to the Politiken to-day. The messages quotes the Bolshevik newspaper Pravda of Moscow as authority for this statement. The Pravda's account states that M. Jachontoff, a member of the Yekaterinburg Soviets has been condemned to death and executed at Perm for ordering the execution.

Another War Threatened.

(Toronto Globe.)

The Balkan war cloud as not been dispersed. D'Annunzio's kite may bring down the lightning and start another conflagration east of the Adriatic. The Jugo-Slavs are incensed by his filibustering, and threaten to drive him into the sea if he is not immediately taken in hand by Italy or the Allies. A Jugo-Slav attack on D'Annunzio would probably bring all Italy to his side.

The Italian government looks on helplessly while detachments of the army and navy continue to join the "egregious rebel" in his forays down the Adriatic coast. His occupation of Zura, the Dalmatian port assigned to Jugo-Slavia by the Peace Conference, is his latest provocation, and he is reported to be planning similar seizures. The embarrassed government finds both its hands tied. It may need the army if the unrest in the cities, expressed at the polls in Socialist majorities, breaks into violence and insurrection. But it may find the army mutinous if it tries to coerce D'Annunzio. The Peace Conference seems to be equally impotent. To send Allied troops to expel D'Annunzio might arouse the wrath and perhaps the resistance of Italy's armed forces. If war broke out between Italy and Jugo-Slavia the Conference would be perplexed and perhaps divided as to the policy to be pursued.

The problem cries for the League of Nations to organize itself and begin its work. The whole situation in Europe is such as to make delay a tragedy and a crime. Men who are retarding the great design must answer to humanity and history for the consequences.

REPLY READY. PARIS, Dec. 5. The text of the reply to be made by the Allied and Associated powers to the latest communication from Baron Kurt Von Lersner, head of the German Peace mission regarding the original Allied demands for the signing of the protocol putting the peace treaty into effect submitted to Germany on November first was unanimously adopted by the Supreme Council to-day. Premier Clemenceau presided at the session.

AFRAID TO EAT MEALS

"Pape's Diapiesin" is the best Antacid and Stomach Regulator known

When your meals don't fit and you feel uncomfortable, when you belch gasses, acids or raise sour, undigested food. When you feel lumps of indigestion pain, heartburn or headache from acidity, just eat a tablet of harmless and reliable Pape's Diapiesin and the stomach distress is gone.

Millions of people know the magic of Pape's Diapiesin as an antacid. They know that most indigestion and disordered stomach are from acidity. The relief comes quickly no disappointment! Pape's Diapiesin helps regulate your stomach so you can eat favorite foods without fear and a box of these world-famous stomach tablets cost so little at drug stores.

Former Police Officer Tells of Wife's Case

Was Unable to Get Around Without Help Before She Took Tanlac.

"My wife has gained twelve pounds in weight since she began taking Tanlac and is just like a new person," said Martin Lynch, a fisherman, who was on the St. John's, Newfoundland, Police Force for several years, and who resides at Bellevue, Trinity Bay, recently, while speaking of the great benefit his wife had received by taking Tanlac. Continuing, he said: "She had a very severe attack of flu last winter and it left her very weak and run down. She was unable to do any of her housework and finally became so weak she could not get around without assistance. She had a very poor appetite, and what little she did manage to eat did not seem to do her a particle of good. She had severe headache most of the time, and became extremely nervous and the least little noise out of the ordinary would completely upset her, and she could get but little sleep."

"She had tried several different kinds of medicines but none of them did her a particle of good, and as I had seen so much in the newspapers about Tanlac benefiting others I decided to have her try it, and almost immediately I could see an improvement in her condition and I noticed she was brighter and more cheerful. She now has a fine appetite, and has regained her strength so that she can do all her own housework. The headaches have entirely left her and her nerves are in fine condition and she sleeps well at night. I can honestly recommend Tanlac, for after seeing how it has benefited my wife I know it is a great medicine."

Tanlac is sold in St. John's by M. Connors, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative; in Harbor Buffett, by Thomas Wakely & Sons; in Placentia, by James Murphy & Son; and in Topsail, by J. K. Burrell—adv.
