SUGAR.

The Food Control Board, and some of its satellites are busy trying to explain of how they saved the country seven cents a pound on sugar. We say "trying," for not a solitary conviction has been secured.

Now here are some further facts that the public should know.

The highest price that sugar has been quoted at in Canadian markets during the middle of the summer before the recent severe decline was 25 cents. Any importer who keeps in touch with sugar markets can vouch for the truth of this.

It is openly stated in St. John's that during the last few weeks a shipment of sugar of 900,000 pounds was imported invoiced at eleven cents per pound. Adding freight charges, etc., this sugar would cost landed not over 15 1/4 cents. This sugar is sold to the public for 30 cents a pound.

Who is getting the hundred per cent. profit? Is it the F. C. B. or whom? The chairman of the F. C. B. and also the editor of the Advocate does not deny that this eleven cent sugar was imported.

How long are the public of this country going to put up with such an outrage. Further, more investigation has been made into the thousands of sacks of Government sugar stored, and it is found that the rats have been getting cheap sugar while the public is deprived.

St. John's papers say that some 200 sacks have been separated from the main bulk because they had been so gnawed by the rats and partly had been thrown aside unfit for human consumption, while in the main bulk nearly every sack bears evidence of the attentions of rats. The whole scene is one of indescribable waste, neglect and filth. And this is what people are paying 32 cents a pound or over for.

THE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS IS A FREE PRESS.

Rumor has it that as some of the newspapers are throwing too much spot light on Hon. Mr. Coaker's Fish Regulations and Food Control Board, sugar scandal he plans to do a little censoring of the press and squash the newspaper men who are letting the light on to some of his little games.

Mr. Coaker is going to find that the hardest task of all he has attempted, and handling the business firms of St. John's mere child's play in comparison.

Most editors are not out for money. Most of them have ability enough to earn far more than they get at pen pushing. But nearly all of them are fighters for the freedom of the Press, and it is the freedom of the Press which has played the deuce with all tyrants—big and little, for when a man wants to be a tyrant, whether a Kaiser or a Lenin, he immediately starts in to muzzle the Press, for he knows that a free Press is death to tyranny.

Editors of independent journals in Newfoundland will rather welcome any such resort on the part of our local Lenin, and he may be assured that if there is a scrap they will be right there with the goods—sling, we admit, but expressive.

It is of course typical of the man whose unpatriotic and disgusting writings were permitted to pass unchecked all through the serious period of war time, that he would gladly prevent free discussion now he is the subject.

The feet of clay of the idol are already uncovered; it is more than likely that the whole trunk and head will be found to be mud also.

Salvage Notes.

The Labrador schooners are mostly home. During the past week the schooners Springbird, A. Hunter, master, and Norah M. Job Stead, master, arrived home hauling for 300 and 700 qtls. of fish respectively.

At Squid Ticks, Mr. John Oldford, in the schooner Blanche, arrived home with 900 qtls. of codfish.

As for as we can gather from reports, the schooners of Salvage Bay and vicinity are, in the main, poorly fished. Skipper Jas. Hefferan, of Bar Harbor, who arrived a few days ago, reports for 500 qtls.

There passed peacefully away this morning at the age of 78 years, Mr. Thomas Stead. During the summer, Mr. Stead was to the Labrador in a fishing schooner, and felt all right in health until a few days ago, when he was suddenly stricken with paralysis of the brain to which he succumbed.

Rev. John Stead, of Bell Island, arrived here this morning to visit his father, Mr. Thomas Stead, unfortunately too late, as death had received the payment of his prior claim a few hours before the son's arrival.

On the 18th September, a son was born to the Rev. and Mrs. Humphries, of Salvage mission.

The schooners owned and mastered by Wm. Brown and Jas. Moss, arrived home to-day from the Labrador with fair trips of fish.

Rev. E. H. Humphries arrived from St. John's, where he had been attending the Synod.

Mr. Richard Haggood arrived home from Grand Falls yesterday.

The win out by Hickman & Co. in the sugar case, has caused much comment. It is a matter for congratulation that some one will save a few cents on the sugar deal (no thanks to the F.C.B. notwithstanding.)

Regret that owing to pressure on time, am unable to touch on the famous regulations and the latest reports from Brazil and Italy.

Had Given Up Hope of Getting Relief, Says Mrs. Lauzon

Did Not Believe Any Medicine
Could Do What Tanlac Did for Her.

"Tanlac has not only relieved me of my seventeen years suffering, but has built me up to where I am feeling like a different woman," was the truly remarkable statement made recently by Mrs. Adeline Lauzon, of 115 De Courcelles St., Montreal.

"It would be impossible for me to exaggerate all that I've suffered on account of indigestion. I never dared to eat meat of any kind, and even the very lightest diet would give me a hot burning sensation in the chest, and I would blast up with gas till I was in perfect misery. My liver also was very sluggish. I suffered badly from constipation and frequently had dizzy spells when everything seemed to spin around and I had to sit down to keep myself from falling."

"I slept so little at night that in the mornings I felt more tired than when I went to bed, and my nerves got into such a condition that any unusual noise would almost make me frantic. I tried many kinds of medicine but none of them seemed to meet my case, and I almost gave up hope of ever being a well woman."

"I never would have believed that any medicine could help a person like Tanlac has helped me. The first few bottles gave me a splendid appetite and I soon found out I could eat anything. I wanted and never suffer a particle from indigestion. I have already gained several pounds in weight and am so much stronger I can do my housework with as much ease as I ever could."

"My liver is now in good order and I am no longer troubled with constipation or dizzy spells. My nerves are as steady as can be. I sleep like a child all night, and get up in the mornings feeling as fresh as a daisy. I don't hesitate to say that Tanlac is the best medicine I have ever tried, and I hope that all who suffer as I did will give it a trial."

Tanlac is sold in St. John's by Mr. Connors, in Paradise by Mrs. Martin F. Byrne, in Upper Gullies by Heber Andrews, in Portland by H. C. Haines, St. Joseph, Salmonier, by Mrs. J. Guehne, in Millerstown by Ex-Platts Valley Royal Stores, Ltd., in Jamestown by William Samson, and in Lewisporte by Urial Freake.—adv.

Wedding Bells.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place this morning at the R. C. Cathedral, the contracting parties being Miss Julia Downey, of Branch, and Mr. John Moore, of this city. The bride wore a travelling costume of navy serge with hat to match and was attended by her cousin Miss Annie Nash. Mr. Leo Moore, brother of the groom performed the duties of best man. The bride and groom left for Placentia by the 8.45 train where the honeymoon will be spent.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—In reference to "A Suggestion" made by Mr. Wm. White, in yesterday's Telegram, that a light coat of coarse sand be spread on streets immediately after tarring, I am of opinion this would be a splendid idea. We thank Mr. White and only hope it will come into effect.

Yours truly,

Vaccination Regulation at North Sydney.

EVOKE STRONG CONDEMNATION.
GREAT HARDSHIP ON PASSENGERS.

The drastic regulation recently made law by the Ottawa authorities, which went into effect yesterday, caused untold annoyance and loss to passengers arriving here this morning on the steamer Kyle. The steamer docked at the terminus at 6.30, when the work of examining the 125 passengers, together with their baggage, etc., commenced. Then it was that the 125 people on board were suddenly made aware of the fact that all must be vaccinated before being allowed to leave the shed. This naturally caused a great commotion among those of the passengers who were never vaccinated, as well as those who were, inasmuch as all would have to bare their arms which meant a delay and probable loss of boarding the westbound express.

About forty or more persons were compelled to be vaccinated. In one case a man had to have his four children as well as himself, vaccinated, which lessened his limited pocket-book to the extent of $5.00. In all there were about a dozen children who were vaccinated. One result of the new order was that a number of people missed connections with the westbound express, some of them suffering greatly thereby.

Without exception the large number of passengers were loud in their denunciation of the vaccination order, and justly so. Some better arrangement should have been made in order that persons whose business called for no detention here could proceed on their way without losing a whole day here, especially on a Saturday.

What the result would be if a poor woman with a number of children accompanied her had not the amount sufficient to pay for having been vaccinated, is not known. At any rate, there was not a person who arrived by the Kyle this morning who had anything but condemnation for what they term a most outrageously drastic law.—North Sydney Herald, Oct. 2.

[The Newfoundland Government should at once make a protest to Ottawa concerning this drastic rule, and endeavor to have it abrogated. Even the press of the Sydneys strongly condemn this altogether unnecessary regulation.—Ed. Telegram.]

Shipping Notes.

S.S. Kyle got away from Port aux Basques at 8.50 last night, taking a full passenger list.
S.S. Dentora arrived off the port at 8 o'clock last night and took pilot J. Brown aboard. The Dentora is from Norfolk, Va., and has a cargo of coal for the A.N.D. Co., Botwood.
