- In Memoriam.

ALFRED KING.

His many friends and shipmates will regret to learn of the early passing of Alfred King, for many years of the S.S. Rosalind. "Al," as he was familiarly known and called, was a young man of a quiet and retiring disposition, and it may be truly said of him he was seen and not heard. Some years ago he was a trusted employee of the Hudson's Bay Co. in the far North. Some of his associates at that time were the late Capt. Leo Coady and Mr. Caines, the latter being a son of our respected fireman, Sergt. L. Caines of the East End division. All three have now passed beyond the vale. (peace to their ashes). The deceased contracted a heavy cold in the closing weeks of the old year, which quickly developed into a more serious malady, and in spite of all that medical skill and loving care could do he passed peacefully away on .St. George's Day. Alfred King has made his last voyage and let us hope that he crossed the Bar in safety, and that he is anchored on that celestial shore to enjoy the reward of a well spent life. He leaves to mourn 'an aged father, mother, five sisters and | a. brother, to whom his demise comes as a severe blow. The writer extends deepest sympathy, in which the Telegram asks leave to join—W.F.C.
