London Bididng the Flapper Farewell.

LONDON.—The "flapper type" young girls is rapidly disappearing in London. The first signs of waning popularity is the discarding of bobbed hair. According to West End hairdressers shortened locks are no longer approved, and the coming winter season will see new styles in the art of hair dressing. The most popular substitute for bobbed hair is a short pompador, and the use of a small ribbon or wreath. This is the favorite FOUR and SIX CYLINDER style of Princess Mary. The reversion in hair dressing has even gone to the extent that small amounts of false hair will be used this winter. The new color for fall hats is "green almond," man from Glovertown appeared and veils will be worn extensively. The on a charge of stealing gold to the small hat with a veil fastened across value of $34.50, and some goods, although the front, which was popular during together to the value of $47.00, taken from a store of the same place on July the war, is to be worn again. The hats will be smaller this fall, but huge last.
