

Politics in Municipal Elections.

The Mail seeks to recruit the shattered strength of the Conservative party by taking forcible possession of all the Municipal offices in Ontario in the gift of the people.

Minute Correspondence.

Considerable anxiety was experienced here on Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning of last week, in consequence of the non-return of Joseph Taylor, son of Mr. Wm. Taylor.

Another Saw-Mill Accident.

On Friday last, while Mr. L. W. Willis was edging lumber at Mr. W. J. Stewart's saw mill, he unwittingly shoved his hand along with the board on to the saw, and lost not only all the fingers but a portion of the hand also.

Improvements.

A large show room, by Silas Welte, cabinet maker; frame dwelling house, gothic style, by R. G. Lambert; frame double tenement house, by A. Meiklejohn.

Dinner to Stanley.

The Royal Geographical Society gave a banquet to Stanley on Monday night. Many of the nobility and a number of American gentlemen were present.

Considerable Excitement.

has been felt in the township of Monaghan, in consequence of a challenge having been issued by James Walker, of Cavan, to plow against any one in the Dominion, stakes to be $100 a side.

Editorial Items.

It is reported that Cauchon will resign his seat in the Local House in order to retain his contract with the Government for the Asylum.

The English press commend highly the efforts of the National Board of Trade to procure reciprocity with Canada.

The Tories having circulated the report that Dr. Bergin, M. P. for Cornwall, would support the Government, it may be interesting for them to learn that he actively assisted Mr. Fraser during the recent election in South Grenville.

The result of this election is a sad rebuff to the Tories, as they thought that by bringing out Mr. Cairns, a local preacher of the Methodists, to secure the vote of that body against the Roman Catholic, Mr. Fraser. To the honour of the Methodists of South Grenville, be it said, that they refused to be thus manipulated, and polled an almost unanimous vote for the Reform candidate.

There are rumours current to the effect that the University of Toronto will soon revive the Medical department. This arises from the fact that Trinity has revived that department after a lapse of a number of years.

If this takes place the Toronto School of Medicine will, as such, cease, and the students become, as they almost really are, students at the University.

The Monetary Times has the following in its last issue: A credible rumour has reached us to the effect that a serious misunderstanding has arisen between the rival companies formed to seek the contract from the Government.

It is asserted that the proposed basis of amalgamation did not prove satisfactory, and that the chances of an arrangement being effected at all are now very doubtful. Encouraged by this new feature in the situation it is not unlikely that one or more new combinations may enter the field.

Political rumours are rife at present. It is believed that the Ontario Legislature will meet about the first of November; so that the Reform banquet will likely be held in the beginning of next week. The resignation of Hon. Messrs. Blake and Mackenzie, and the announcement of a new Ministry, will be made in the course of a day, or two.

The East Middlesex Election Fraud Case—We learn from the London Advertiser the investigation into the charge of undue influence exercised by William Taylor, the notorious clerk of London Township, at the recent election for the House of Commons in East Middlesex was concluded on Thursday.

A full meeting of the Dominion Parliament will be held Thursday, at which it is understood that the affairs of the North West will be the principal topic of discussion.
