

The Hudson Bay Company's new steamer, the Northote, made her way from the mouth of the Saskatchewan to Carleton in ten days. From Carleton during the season there is no impediment to navigation for a considerable distance beyond Edmonton. The navigability of the river may be allowed of the Saskatchewan through almost its entire length is therefore quite supposable.

The Right Hon. Wm. E. Forster, member for Bradford, in Yorkshire, in the British House of Commons, and the Minister charged with the care of the Education Department in the late Administration of Mr. Gladstone arrived at Quebec on Monday. He has long held a prominent position in the ranks of the Liberal party in the mother country.

Death of George Monger, Esq.

We regret to announce the death of George Monger, Esq., which took place at his residence, West Garafraxa, (near Fergus), on Sunday afternoon last, at the age of 58 years. Mr. Monger moved from the Township of Toronto to the farm in which he died over twenty years ago, when Garafraxa was but sparsely settled, and underwent the difficulties incident to the pioneer in those times. By dint of hard labor and perseverance, he accumulated sufficient property to place him in comfortable circumstances. He was appointed magistrate some years since, and also represented the township as Reeve, Deputy Reeve and Councillor, the duties of which he discharged with considerable ability. He had been a member of the Wesleyan Church for some thirty-eight years, occupying an official relation thereto for over thirty years. The present prosperity of the Church in Fergus is in a great measure due to his unwavering attachment and unflinching perseverance. He may be said to have been the founder of the church of his choice in that village. In June last his right side became paralyzed, and although he was at times in a very low state, yet hopes were entertained by his friends that he would recover. During the last month, however, it became evident that his end was approaching. For the last two weeks he remained a greater part of the time in a comatose state, occasionally being conscious. On Saturday last he rallied, and stated to his family that he did not think he would linger another day, and his predictions were realized. His funeral took place on Tuesday and was largely attended. His remains were taken to the church, where an appropriate service was presided over by the Rev. Mr. Pakenham, of Drayton. Rev. Mr. McLean, the pastor of the W. M. Church, and the Rev. Mr. Sullivan, Presbyterian minister, assisting in the services—a service which his remains were deposited in the cemetery on the south side of the river, adjoining the village. The pulpit and communion rail were draped in black out of respect for the deceased.

W. Herborne Correspondence.

We notice that Mr. Jas. Hamilton of Woolwich, who usually takes prizes for her butter at the Guelph show; Mr. Hamilton too takes a prize for pumpkins, and Mr. Alex. Sheriffs of Waterloo, for potatoes. The dangerous road over the Winterbourne creek, running on the narrow bank of the dam, is being fenced by the Township Council. A few months ago horses took flight at this place and a wagon was capsized into the dam and a child drowned, but the fencing will make it secure. Mr. Matthew Scott, son of Mr. Henry Scott, Erasmus, who is taking his Collegiate course at McGill College, Montreal, preached with much acceptance in Rev. Dr. Barrie's church, in Erasmus, on Sabbath the 13th inst.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE FOR OCTOBER, received from Harper Bros., New York, and also from W. E. Tunis & Co., Clinton, is as magnificent a number for its illustrations, and as rich in the variety and interest of its reading matter, as was ever published. This number, containing eighty illustrations of unusual beauty, opens with "The Barken's Story," by J. F. Irving, a poem of character, interest and pathos, illustrated by S. E. Bytner. The first of an admirable series of illustrated papers on "Decorative Art and Architecture in England," is contributed by Messrs. D. Colvay, T. B. Aldrich, contributes a pleasant and exceedingly interesting paper, in which he beautifully illustrates, on Portland, entitled "An Old Town by the Sea." Happily supplementing this article is one on "The Isles of Shetland," by John W. Chadwick, beautifully illustrated. Under the title of "The Huntsmen of the Sea," is given a curious and thrilling chapter of American whaling, adventure, with graphic and effective illustrations. One of the most characteristic illustrated papers of the number is "Some Talks of an Astronomer," contributed by Prof. Simon Newcomb, of the United States observatory at Washington. The admirable serial story, "Raps of the Gamp," is continued, with two of Mr. Frederic's brilliant illustrations; and R. H. Stoddard contributes an excellent poem, which is illustrated, entitled "The Two Anchors." Especial interest will attach to the resumption in this number of Senor Castelar's series of papers on "The Republican Movement in Europe." This subject is treated with an especial attention to the religious movement in Germany during the last hundred years, which will be the subject of a few subsequent papers. Three stories of unusual power, poems by John G. Saxo and Margaret E. Saugster, and the five editorial departments make up, with the other articles which we have noticed, an ideally perfect number. THE CLOSING OF BAR ROOMS.—The Court of Queen's Bench has ruled that having lights in a bar-room within the prohibited hours is not in itself a criminal offence, but only prima facie evidence of an offence—that is, of the sale of intoxicating liquors within the prohibited hours, which evidence may be rebutted by proof that no such sale took place. To charge the presence of the light as being in itself an offence was held as constructing a new crime unknown to the law, and which the Legislature never intended to have construed into one. Practically, the decision leaves the lighting of bar-rooms within such hours almost as dangerous as ever, except that where it can be shown that it was done with an innocent purpose the law will not arbitrarily convert that which is not an innocent and legitimate act into a punishable offence. Theonus of proving the act not wrongful is thrown on the defendant, but if he can so prove it he is saved from the injustice of being punished for that which is not in itself a wrong. THE GILBERT scholarship for the present year has been awarded to Mr. W. J. Alexander, a student of the Hamilton Collegiate Institute.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.—The Trustees of the Palmerston School have let the contract for building a frame school house 36 x 56, in two rooms, to Mr. C. Locheed, at $1,875. It is to be completed by the 1st January, 1875.

THE COUNTY TOWN QUESTION.—We see that notice has been given by hand-bill that a meeting will be held in this village in Kenny's Hall, on Tuesday, 29th Sept., to take into consideration the County Town question. Reeves and leading men of Howick, Minto, Maryborough, Southampton and Harrison are invited to attend. We anticipate considerable "spouting" at all events.

ACCIDENT.—One of the men working at the sawing machine in the W. G. and B. wood yard, was struck on the head on Saturday by a stick of wood, and badly stunned, but sustained no serious injury.

GUELPH CENTRAL EXHIBITION.—Palmerston was emptied of most of its population on Wednesday last, the receipt being Guelph, and the attraction the Central Exhibition. A few reserved themselves, however, for the Provincial at Toronto.

NEWSPAPER.—Mr. A. Armour, of Brantford, has made arrangements to commence the publication of a newspaper in this village. The business men of the place have guaranteed a sufficient number of subscribers to induce him to come, and he will remove the material of his printing office in Brantford to this place at once and issue the paper as soon as he can get ready.

From Toronto.

Special by Montreal Telegraph. Sept. 23, 1 p.m. The weather is very fine, and the streets are thronged with excursionists.

The Liberal Conservative Convention meets at two p.m. A large number of delegates are in the City.

The Yorkville burglary case and attempted assassination of Joseph Dain, will be tried at York County Assizes, which opened yesterday.

A new order of Patrons of Industry is now in Session here, and the question of separation from Granges of the United States will come under discussion. The delegates were lodged with appropriate designs of rural scenery thereon, and the ladies a row-white aprons with crimson border.

Fifteen thousand persons had entered the Exhibition grounds by noon—trains were arriving crowded, even on the roofs—seventy-nine persons went west to-day on a one-horse street car.

ACCIDENT AT NEW HAMBURG.—A man employed on the new brick school-house was seriously injured on Tuesday, by the scaffolding giving way. He fell about 30 feet.

LARGE YIELD.—Mr. John A. Hill of Pilkington, has a very heavy crop of bread-wheat. When threshed it turned out 40 bushels to the acre of nice plump grain. He sold the most of it for seed.

HOME AGAIN.—Mr. James Millar, Guelph; Mr. Robert Lydon, Paisley, Block, and Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson, Garafraxa, arrived in Guelph on Tuesday evening from their visit to the old country. We are indebted to Mr. Millar for late Scotch papers.

FIRE AT WINDSOR.—Early on Tuesday morning a fire broke out in the store of J. H. Bradshaw, in Windsor, and before it could be got under control seven buildings, besides some out-houses, were sacrificed to the destroying element. The value of the property destroyed is estimated at about $36,000, on which there is upwards of $15,000 insurance.

MRS. CASS'S CHILDREN.—These children—two girls and a boy—whom reference was made at the Council meeting on Monday evening, were sent home to Chicago on the morning train to-day (Wednesday). They were furnished with through tickets, and instructions were given to the conductor to see that they were properly cared for, and shown from one train to another. The eldest girl is only about ten years of age, and such a long journey is no doubt a very tiresome to the little wailer, who will have to travel without either of their parents. The town authorities have acted very generously in thus attending to these children, whose mother will not be released from jail until the 16th of October. They will arrive in Chicago at about nine o'clock to-morrow (Thursday) morning.

FOUR YEARS AGO.

It is just four years ago to-day since the Fashionable West End became an established institution on Upper Wyndham Street. At that time, many of the business men in town ridiculed the idea of doing a successful retail Dry Goods business here as absurd, it not altogether foolish. By industry, perseverance, and a determination to succeed, we have dispelled those fears to such an extent that those who were loudest in their prophetic denunciations are now beginning to think there are worse places than Upper Wyndham Street, and are rather inclined to wish themselves up this way.

By the same means we have established a business second to none in town. From the day we opened up to the present, we have enjoyed a steady and regular increase in our sales, the last week being the best we have ever had. For these satisfactory results we feel our indebtedness to the inhabitants of the town of Guelph and surrounding country, and desire to convey to them our very best thanks. Encouraged by the past and fully realizing the fact that the trade is rapidly concentrating on Upper Wyndham Street, we enter upon our fifth year with strong resolutions to do our utmost to merit the continued support of all our old customers, and to secure as many new ones as possible. We were never in a better position to give our customers satisfaction than we are for the Fall of 1874. Constantly increasing facilities enable us to take advantage of every favourable turn in the markets, and confident that no one can do the trade better than we can, we have determined this Fall by an unusually grand display of Cheap Goods to satisfy every one that there is no better place in which to make purchases than the Fashionable West End.
