American Legion Against Segregation

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 14th—The American Legion does not uphold segregation. This was evidenced at the convention of the Legion here last week.

It is alleged that when the clerk at one of the city's leading white hotels, the Millard, declined to register a colored Legionnaire from South Dakota, the post commander insisted that he be registered and it was done. A similar incident is also said to have occurred at the Carleton Hotel with the North Dakota delegation which had two colored representatives. In each case the Legion stood firm against discrimination and won out.
