HAMS WERE EASY. The Hamilton ball team put up poor game at Tecumseh Park yester day afternoon, and the Cockneys had Buege, p....... no trouble whatever in turning them down to the tune of 14 to 6. The visitors played like an aggregation of misfits, and the errors on their part came so fast at times that the official scorer had his troubles in keeping tally on 'em. Manager Collins was unable to accompany the Hams, and his stalwart nine took an off day, and turned themselves loose to have a general good time. Collins, it is understood, arrived here last night. McAndrews was out of the game, but for what reason Capt. Danny Sheehan was unable to say. He was ordered to line up with the team. Then there were several other things that Danny didn't know yesterday. He didn't just know when Philadelphia .20000114 -- 8 3 3 to let up in his sassing the umpire; didn't see Kostal's in-shoots, and when the ball was knocked in his paswere made on easy ones. The crowd started in to jolly him, and then Danny got decidedly warm and then Batteries—Taylor 107K—

Buege was hit hard and often by the locals, but put up a good game, considering the rank support he was given. No pitcher could put any vim into the game with such yellow support. Kostal was also hit pretty free-ly, but the visitors failed to tally in many cases where they should have done so if playing snappy ball. Tom-

AT COLUMBUS. at the Columbus Diving Park today. at the Columbus Diving Park today. There was nothing sensational, but the sport was interesting. The weather was clear and the track fast. Coney, the speedy black gelding who was barred in the betting, won the 2:03 pace without an apparent effort. The judges suspected Free Bond was not being driven out, but Miller, who was behind the bay gelding, declared the horse could not go faster.
