GOT OFF EASY

Police Magistrate Had Little to Do at Morning Court.

The police people were almost able to hang out the nothing-doing sign this morning. True, there was a drunk, but he was indisposed and had to be remanded until Saturday. One of London's usually peaceable German residents got into a rather nasty temper on Saturday, and his quarrel with his wife led to his arrest on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. The circumstances, however, did not warrant more than his being locked up until Sunday, when he was released.

Two bicycle riding offenders paid a dollar each for breaches of the by-law.

Information were laid at court today of the arrest of James Johnston, of Guilford, of the Thirtieth Regiment of Wellington, on a charge of selling liquor without a license.

The numbers of the choir will include Gade's "Spring Message." This will be given for the first time in London, First Methodist Church, tomorrow evening.

SOCIETY HAS GROWN.

Toronto Star: One of the first Old Boy Associations formed in Toronto was by the London veterans, and it has grown like the proverbial green bay tree. On Tuesday evening last it's going to have what one might call an "at home" on the big steamer Chippewa, and judging by present prospects, there will be a large and happy gathering of old schoolmates.

NEW TIME TABLE IN FORCE.

The new summer time table on the Grand Trunk went into effect yesterday, and will remain in force for several months until the winter schedule is arranged. The changes are as outlined a few days ago. The through train between Toronto and London via Stratford, is to run every day, including Sundays. This is the first time, possibly, that the service has been run on the Stratford branch of the road.
