CHARGED BY WIFE WITH NON-SUPPORT
Alfred Appeared in Local Police Court This Morning.
Alfred Dunne was arrested by the police last night on a charge of non-support preferred against him by his wife, Mrs. Lenora Dunne. In court this morning Dunne pleaded guilty, and elected summary trial by Magistrate Love.
He was ready to go on, but Crown Attorney McKillop asked that the case be laid over until tomorrow, as he had not had an opportunity of interviewing Mrs. Dunne. The court agreed to this and Dunne was remanded until tomorrow morning.

A "PI" SOCIAL IN WEST LONDON
Unique Event Last Night Under Auspices of St. George's Circle.
Clearly one of the most unique and successful socials of the season was the "Pi" social held last evening under the auspices of the St. George's Circle of King's Daughters, in the school house, West London.
The first part of the evening was occupied with "progressive pi" there being five progressions as follows: City problems, prominent city manufacturers, prominent city avenues, city wholesales and the first four lines of "Home, Sweet Home." The subjects (tables had been prepared by a printer's term) and the contest was to arrange the letters of the different subjects in the correct order, at the city problem table such subjects as "West London Dump," "Smallpox Hospital," "Sunday street cars," "New City Hall," "New Grand Trunk station," "Waterworks question," etc., had their letters all mixed up, and the contest was to arrange the words to the correct spelling. The idea proved very amusing and interesting, and the program passed quickly in a most informal and delightful way.
