[Special to The Advertiser.] [Special to The Advertiser.]
Wingham, Nov. 6.—Police Magistrate Norton and the police generally have had a very busy time in the last few days.
Frank Allen, a citizen who had no overcoat when he saw the snow, stole an overcoat belonging to Mr. Henning, as Mr. Henning was in the King Edward Hotel looking over some traveller's, samples. An umbrella mender who saw him take the coat reported the matter, and he was arrested. In Goderich, where Allen was taken, he elected trial before a jury, and has been remanded indefinitely, as the assisses are over.
John Campbell was arrested for stealing a traveller's grip at the Queen's Hotel, and was sent to Goderich jail for two months. About two menths ago

"It is due, I think, to our new leader, Mr. Newton W. Rowell, to place a strong man in the field," said Mr. Purdom. "East Middlesex was the cradle of Mr. Rowell in Liberalism. It was there he made his first political speech, and on my behalf, when I ran as your candidate. He is a man of magnificent character. No minister of the gospel is a better man than of the gos

Shop Early, In the Morning If Possible

From now until Christmas the advantages of shopping in the morning will be all in favor of the shopper. Saturday this was demonstrated most emphatically, and we venture to say that every day in the week from now on more may be accomplished in one hour in the morning than in two in the afternoon.

MORNING LIGHT BEST .- The days are shortening, which is very noticeable in the afternoons, lessening the hours of daylight, whilst in the morning you have five hours of the clearest light of the day, from 8 to 1 o'clock. Throughout the store, as advertised a few days ago, much seasonable merchandise is being cleared, preparing for the condensing of stocks in different departments to make room for the display of Christmas goods.
