HYATT BROTHERS WILL ERECT EAST END SUB-STATION

Lowest Tender For $30,477 Accepted by Public Utilities Commission.

Local contractors were yesterday afternoon awarded the contract for the construction of the east end sub-station by the Public Utilities Commission after consideration had been given to about half a dozen tenders submitted.

The successful tenderers were Hyatt Brothers, their tender for the work being the lowest at $30,477. The highest tender came from an outside firm the price being $45,700. General Manager E. V. Buchanan was authorized to sign the contract.

Attention was called by Commissioner P. Toole to the large amounts charged for garbage collection in the city tax bills submitted to the P. U. C. for payment for the two large city parks. The taxes claimed by the city for Queen's Park total $1,078.89 inclusive of an item of $451.56 for garbage collection. The Victoria Park tax bill is $2,499.71 with a garbage charge of $91.15 for the total garbage collection charged against the two parks is $742.22, or nearly 21 per cent of the total taxes.

Some discussion arose over the extension of the lighting system on Dundas and Richmond streets, but no action was taken.

The offer of George Wardrop of Wardrop, Northern Ontario, of a young bull moose for the zoo on the understanding that the P. U. C. pay the freight charges was accepted. The transportation from Wardrop to London will cost about $60.

Subject to the call of the chairman, the commissioners decided to follow the example of the city council, and will take a three-months' vacation.

BIRD NOTES

(Contributed by McIlwraith Ornithological Club.)

The 12th yielded only one bird new for the year, Wilson's Warbler. This little bird is nearly uniform in color, yellow beneath and greenish yellow above, but the top of the head in the male is jet black, hence the name, often used, of Black-Cap Warbler.

The arrival of the Nighthawk on the 14th has not yet been chronicled. It was seen flying over the city by one of our younger members. This bird has made a curious change in its habits, and many of them have located in the city, and rear their young on the ground. But it seems to the writer that this city-loving race is likely to die out, for what chance for survival is there for a young Nighthawk, whose first flight lands him on the ground in the midst of a city full of dogs, cats and boys? For whatever reason, this bird is very much less numerous than in former years, and this change in breeding habits may be one of the prime causes.

At the pond a Hummer was seen doing the "pendulum play." This is a curious antic, doubtless connected with the courtship, in which the male describes the arc of a huge pendulum, going over the route for ten, twenty or fifty times. The female is sometimes to be found sitting in a bush nearby, but finding a sitting Hummer is a little harder than the proverbial needle in the haystack. Dwellers in the outskirts of the city could do much worse than to plant freely such shrubs as are particularly favorite with the Hummer, as there is no more dainty and enjoyable sight than one of these nates of the bird world flitting from spring to spray in search of food, and perhaps, who knows, the planter might be rewarded by the breeding of a pair in one of his trees!

Bush honeysuckles, and especially Caragana (Siberian Pea Tree) are prime favorites.—W. E. Saunders.

A Thimbleful of Radium Costs $108,000

A gram of radium is a thimbleful. There are 140 grams of radium in the whole world, and the total supply is worth $14,000,000—that's about four ounces. Radium is surely valuable, almost as precious as the Perfect Diamonds sold by John A. Nash, My Jeweller, whose new store is 183 Dundas street, "where you will eventually buy."

SLEEPING SICKNESS CURED

A month or two ago a gentleman found that every evening after reading his paper he went to sleep in his chair. A few weeks later he found himself going to sleep before he had half read the paper. This annoyed his wife very much, and he became very concerned and wondered vaguely if this was the commencement of the sleeping sickness. However, a friend suggested that he should see a first-class optician and have his eyes examined. After visiting Mr. F. Steele, 219 Dundas street, and procuring an inexpensive pair of reading glasses, he is able to read his paper with ease and comfort, and without becoming drowsy. Mr. F. Steele is an expert optometrist.

He was born in Carleton County, but came to McGillivray Township in the early 50's. He was a man of strong constitution, and took part in the pioneer work of which there was so much to be done in those days. After several years' residence in McGillivray Township he moved to Parkhill.

He is survived by one daughter and three sons, Mrs. A. E. Campbell, city; J. W. Simpson, Sarnia; H. E. Simpson, Niagara Falls, and R. A. Simpson, Winnipeg.

The funeral service will be held from his late residence at noon on Sunday to St. James' Church, Parkhill, where services will be held. Interment at Parkhill Cemetery.

UNIDENTIFIED SAILOR MAY BE CLAIR FLETCHER

Former Komoka Young Man Feared Lost in Wreck.

ONLY RECENTLY MARRIED

Wife Believes He Sailed From Port Huron On Lost Barge.

The unidentified sailor, who went down in Lake Superior when the barge Miztec sank in the big storm last Saturday, may be Claire Fletcher, formerly of Komoka, but recently a resident of Sarnia and Port Huron. Until laid off last January he had been a fireman on the Grand Trunk. Fletcher was 28 years old and had only been married a year.

The day before the Miztec cleared from Port Huron Mrs. Fletcher, who resides in Sarnia, was notified of a long distance call for her from Port Huron. It was her husband's habit to call her up from Port Huron whenever he had an opportunity. Mrs. Fletcher feels sure that he was in Port Huron that day, having come there from Battle Creek, where he stopped on his way from a trip west.

A letter was received from a friend in Battle Creek, stating that Fletcher's clothes had been sent to Port Huron according to instructions he had given. Fletcher, while not a very regular letter writer, wrote frequently to his wife, and the fact that she had no word from him since he left Battle Creek makes her think more than ever that he may be the unknown victim. Word which she received yesterday from the marine officials was to the effect that they had reason to believe that the unknown man who was drowned was her husband.

LATE GEO. SIMPSON CAME FROM PARKHILL

The death of George Simpson, a well-known resident of Parkhill, took place at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. A. E. Campbell, 115 Maple street, this city, on Thursday morning, in his 85th year.

He was born in Carleton County, but came to McGillivray Township in the early 50's. He was a man of strong constitution, and took part in the pioneer work of which there was so much to be done in those days. After several years' residence in McGillivray Township he moved to Parkhill.

He is survived by one daughter and three sons, Mrs. A. E. Campbell, city; J. W. Simpson, Sarnia; H. E. Simpson, Niagara Falls, and R. A. Simpson, Winnipeg.

The funeral service will be held from his late residence at noon on Sunday to St. James' Church, Parkhill, where services will be held. Interment at Parkhill Cemetery.

COMMISSION HOPES TO SELL HOUSES

Fifteen Actual Sales Confirmed At Meeting—Two Applications Laid Over.

Optimism regarding the disposal of houses erected by the London Housing Commission on Garfield avenue and Pine Lawn sites, pervaded the regular meeting of that body held Thursday night, thirteen actual sales being confirmed at the meeting, while two more applications for houses were laid over. The above sales bring the total of houses on these two sites up to twenty. Following advice received from J. A. Ellis, provincial housing director at Toronto, urging the local commission to seriously consider discontinuing individual loans to persons desiring to construct homes, the members decided that no more applications for loans will be considered for a period of two months. This does not apply to applications now on file before the commission, which will be disposed of, ten individual loans being passed at the meeting.

By an arrangement with the provincial housing director no further construction work will be undertaken here by the commission until all the houses now on its hands are sold.

After waiting for forty minutes such members of the town planning committee appointed by the city council as answered the call to the inaugural meeting Thursday afternoon, the quorum not being a quorum, decided to "call it a day" and adjourn until called together again by the city clerk. The adjournment made after 40-minute wait by members present.
